

Pharmaceutical Auxiliary Meets

Women's Auxiliary of the South Bay Pharmaceutical Association will hold a luncheon meeting, January 12, at the home of Mrs. Fred Reese in Hermosa Beach.

Mrs. Lee Solomon, president, will conduct the meeting. Annual Shamrock Ball plans will be the primary business of the meeting. Dinner and dancing has been planned for the affair at the Fox Hills Country Club, Culver City, on March 18.

Donald Cottrell, president of the men's association; and Mmes. Donald Demarest, Douglas Ingle and Lee Solomon will handle reservations for the social event.

At the December meeting held at the Thunderbird

Hotel, a buffet-luncheon preceded a showing of an educational film by Captain Charles A. Salvail, Redondo Beach Fire Department. "Mouth to Mouth Resuscitation" was the interesting subject of the film.

A check for $25 was sent by the South Bay Auxiliary to the Children's Hospital to be used at their discretion. This is an annual gift for the children.

Assisting Mrs. Reese with the luncheon will be Mmes. Donald Cottrell, Jack Dean, and Ralph Rector.

BARE-ROOT PLANTING
Continue bare-root planting—roses, fruit trees, flowering trees and shrubs, shade trees.

INSTALLATION HELD for the officers of the Women's Council of St. Philomena's Church had the theme, "Golden Nuggets of 1961." New officers look on as Mrs. Gene LeRoy (right center), retiring president, pre-

Women's Council Officers Installed

Mrs. Gene LeRoy, president of the Women's Council of St. Philomena Church, presided at the recent meeting held in school hall, 21900 S. Main St., Torrance.

The last meeting of her two-year term as president, Mrs. LeRoy took an opportunity to thank all of the ones who helped her during her term of office.

Installation committee took charge of the remainder of the meeting. Members of the committee were Mmes. Walter Eilers, John Rubio and Robert Gese.

"Golden Nuggets of 1961" was the theme of the installation. Outgoing and incoming officers received yellow and gold corsages and dainty yellow organdy aprons.

Retiring officers were: Mmes. Gene LeRoy, president; Victor Spellman, first vice president; Clarence Turner, second vice president; Henry Niles, secretary; Clifford Daniels, treasurer; and E. M. Bernardin, parliamentarian.

New officers elected were: Mmes. Clarence Turner, president; Edward Germany, first vice president; William Cary, second vice president; Ray Mathys, secretary; Don Mead, treasurer; and Geene LeRoy, parliamentarian.

Following the installation, refreshments were served by St. Catherin's Guild under leadership of Mmes. Raymond Kozal and Gharbald Jensen.

FUND-RAISING

The American Medical Association News observed that the proliferation of fund raising health organizations is causing headaches for agency officials and confusion among donors. National drives have skyrocketed from 15 in 1940 to more than 100 today, and annual contributions total $1 billion. Duplication abounds to take one example, 19 agencies complete nationally for money to aid the blind.
