

Artists Perform to Aid Mental Health

 chure based on a study and compilation of local statistics as part of the Mental Health Survey of Los Angeles County developed through the cooperative effort of the California State Department of Mental Health and the Regional Welfare Planning Council.

For the purposes of the survey, the Harbor - South Bay - Torrance - Peninsula area was treated as a unit, comprised of the following communities: El Segundo, Gardena, Harbor City, Hermosa Beach, Lomita, Manhattan Beach, Palos Verdes, Redondo Beach, Rolling Hills, San Pedro, Torrance, Wilmington, Waverly, and Roll-

The Brochure has been two years in compilation and will be formally presented for public distribution in the near future.

Members from the Harbor District Mental Health Service and the South Bay Mental Health Committee have been assisted by members from the Advisory Board of the San Pedro State Mental Hygiene Clinic and the Harbor Area Welfare Planning Council in arranging for the concert. Those serving on the concert committee are Mrs. Arthur C. Akerson, Mrs. Arnold Cowan, Mrs. Milton Feinberg, Mrs. Ruben Jimenez, Miss Betty Kuljis, Dr. and Mrs. Wing Y. Marr, Mr. Robert Mayer,

Nazarene Church Features Quartet From Pasadena at Sunday Services

At the Sunday evening service of the First Nazarene Church, 1501 W. Carson St., Torrance, the Aeolian Male Quartet of Pasadena College will be featured.

The Aeolians are well-known throughout the southwestern United States. They have traveled extensively in appearances for Youth for Christ, radio programs, and churches.

The Reverend Ponder W. Gilliland, pastor of the church, stated that the service will be from 7 until 8 p.m. Rev. Gilliland will be speaking on the topic, "Mercy—Spurned and With Drawn."

Assuming the yastorate of the church about the first of December, Rev. Gilliland was for four years president and then, four years the executive secretary of the International Youth organization of the Church of the Nazarene which has its headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri. His duties took him around the world and into many countries.

At 10:50 a.m. the pastor will continue a series of messages on the theme, "Key to Happiness." The subject for this morning will be, "What You Can Do About It If You Are Poor."

FEATURED QUARTET—is the Aeolian Male Quartet of Pasadena College at the First Church of the Nazarene, 1501 W. Carson St., Torrance. The service will be from 7 until 8 p.m. tonight. The Reverend Ponder W. Gilliland will be speaking on, "Mercy—Spurned and With Drawn."
