

Mrs. Lee Clotworthy Is Gracious President of Junior Woman's Club

Mrs. Lee Clotworthy, president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, is a gracious example of the modern mother. Active in social and civic affairs, a pal to have on a camping trip with her children and husband, and a charming hostess in her lovely Torrance home, is Mrs. Clotworthy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clotworthy are the proud parents of five children. They are Craig, 15, who attends school in Waupaca, Wisconsin; Terry, 9; Ricky, 8; and David, 5, who attend Fern Greenwood elementary school. Nancy, who is 3½ years old, is the only daughter of the family.

Lee Clotworthy, a Mason, is a design engineer at North American. He is a native of Redondo Beach. Mrs. Clotworthy attended Dorsey High School and was a member of the Dolphins of Manhattan Beach before moving to Torrance five years ago.

During Carol Clotworthy's term as president of the Junior Woman's Club, the young women have granted three music scholarships; donated $500 to the Garden Valley Association; entertained senior citizens at holiday time; given a lift to a disabled man; sponsored a fireworks booth with the proceeds from sales going to Scout Center, Inc.; and stuffed 20,000 envelopes for the March of Dimes campaign.

Before becoming president of the Junior Woman's Club, Carol was Americanism chairman for two years; mental health chairman; and press chairman for six months before taking the presidential office.

Bobbie Gayle Kloppenburg Bride of Charles L. Taylor

At the First Methodist Church, Torrance, Dec. 17, Miss Bobbie Gayle Kloppenburg became the bride of Charles Lincoln Taylor. The Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kloppenburg, 22516 Normandie Ave., Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Taylor, 1555 W. 208th St., are the parents of the groom.

For her wedding, Miss Kloppenburg chose a gown of white skinner satin and Chantilly lace fashioned with high neckline and cap sleeves. The full skirt fell to a chapel length train. Her finger-tip veil was caught by a pearl tiara.

When she was given in marriage by her father, she held a white Bible with a bouquet of orchids and carnations atop it.

Miss Marilyn Kloppenburg, sister-in-law of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink lace over satin ballerina length dress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations with pink ribbon streamers. Best man was Jim Taylor, brother of the groom, and ushers were Mike Kloppenburg and Bill Hoffman.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kloppenburg was attired in a beige suit with tan accessories. Mrs. Taylor wore a blue flowered dress.

Following the reception, which was held at the Recreation Hall, 22516 Normandie Ave., the newlyweds left for a honeymoon to an undisclosed destination.

A graduate of Torrance High School, Mrs. Charles Taylor is presently employed by the Selma Cleaners in Torrance. Taylor, a graduate of Gardena High School, is employed by Van Vorst, Inc., Inglewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Taylor are at home at 22516 Normandie, Apartment B49.
