Eagle Scout Award Given Richard Alves

Richard H. Alves, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund R. Alves, 1603 W. 218th St., Torrance, was recipient of the coveted Eagle Award at the January Court or Honor Ceremony of Boy Scout Troop 241, sponsored by St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. The award was presented by the Reverend Hugh R. Percy, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Richard has been active in the scouting program for six years; three years with Cub Scout Pack 228C and three years with Boy Scout Troop 241. He has served his Troop as patrol leader, senior patrol leader, junior leader, and treasurer. Alves is also a member of the Siwinis Lodge of the Gabriellino Chapter of The Order of the Arrow, a national brotherhood of Scout Honor Campers.

Recently, Richard was among those honored at the annual Eagle Scout Recognition Banquet hearing Dr. Paul A. Siple, director of the Office of Polar Affairs for the department of the army. As a student at Stephen M. White Junior High, Richard has been active in school affairs including after-school sports leagues, Lancer Service club, Solons Scholarship society, and Chess club.

As a participant in the Bowl-O-Drome Junior Bowling Leagues and the West Side Junior Traveling League, he has received trophies for: League High series - 609 scratch, 2nd place team, Bowling over 200, and recognition for bowling a 266 game.

Richard is a member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church where he has served as an Acolyte for the past two years. He is also a member of the National Order of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew. He is a former carrier for the Torrance Press.

Officers Set By Torrance Demos

Torrance Democrats, Inc. have again chosen Roger West to head their club. Also serving on the executive board are Pete Millar, vice president; Robert Kerber, treasurer; June West, executive secretary; Kay King, recording secretary; John Steffen, Abraham Avoian and Mac Thorington, trustees.

Newly-appointed committee chairmen David Lyman, program; Martha Armstrong, women's activities; Rose Sarukian, youth activities; Sharon Baker, publicity; Louise Gilgoly, social activities; John Barton, legislative committee; Thomas Brantner, parliamentarian; Diane Steffn, librarian; Melburn Fleck, sergeant-at-arms, promise a full and productive year.

Torrance Democrats, Inc. meets the second Thursday of every month. Notices will appear giving time and place. Visitors are welcome, said Rager West.

PUBLIC INTEREST

Government administrative and regulatory authorities are necessary, and generally do excellent jobs in the public interest. But at the same time they often lag behind dramatic changes that are taking place in today's world.

Youth Sunday Scheduled For Seaside Church

Youth Sunday will be observed at Seaside Community Church, 230th and Ocean, Torrance, on January 29, with the young people taking part in the service. Rev. Schatz will have "And Jesus Matured" as his sermon topic. Diane Foote, Robert Lee, Nancy Shupe and Robert Martin will assist with the liturgy.

Nancy Pauling will serve as acolyte; greeters for the morning will be JoAnne Terry and Lary Tottle. Ushers are Richard Evans, Jeff Evans, Jack Welliver and Jim Phillips.

Worship service begins at 10 a.m. Child care is provided. Sunday school is held at 9 a.m. with classes from the 3 year old through adults.
