Princesses were Suzanne Murray, Manhattan Beach, and Nancy Newman of Whittier.

New Woolworth Store Manager Announced

L. H. Roberts is manager of the new Woolworth store located in the Del Amo Shopping Center at the intersection of Hawthorne and Sepulveda Boulevards in Torrance. The new Woolworth's is scheduled to open March 16. Roberts is now in the store supervising preparatory work prior to its opening. Roberts managed the Woolworth store in downtown Bakersfield for the past two years prior to his recent Torrance appointment.

L. H. ROBERTS

Company in 1951 and has worked in various Woolworth stores throughout the Pacific Coast.

He is married and has two children.

The new Woolworth's, a one-story and basement structure, containing 21,000 square feet will be completely air-conditioned and equipped with the most up-to-date fixtures available.

The first floor will be devoted to sales space and a Luncheonette with facilities to seat 42.

Stockrooms, utility rooms, employees lounge and the store's office will be located in the basement.

GARDEN SHOP

A feature of the new Woolworth's will be a large Garden Shop carrying growing plants and a complete line of gardening supplies.

Also featured will be the Ready-to-Wear Section, carrying a complete line of women's, children's, infants' and men's wear; and the Home Furnishings Department, stocking curtains, towels, bedding, rugs (including room size), and decorator items such as lamps, shades, framed pictures and ceramics.

The new Woolworth's will operate on a self-selection basis, allowing quick or leisurely shopping as desired.

Roberts said the new store will employ approximately 30 people.

HOMECOMING DINERS

A foursome recently noted enjoying dinner at the Pen and Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steinberg of Miraloste, who were complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bauch of Hollywood Riviera on return from a three-months sojourn in Europe.

Torrance Industrial, Commercial Leaders Head Drive

Torrance business and civic leaders will head the 1961 Red Cross fund drive, according to Douglas Bird, Southern Branches Fund chairman.

"We have been very fortunate in getting local business and civic leaders for the 1961 Red Cross Fund," said Bird. "With these people on our team, I am certain that we can count on the support of the people of Torrance."

Fred W. Mill will be Torrance area chairman for the drive. Mill is the controller of The National Supply Company, 1524 Border Avenue. A past president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, he is chairman of the Torrance Industries Tax Committee.

Mill is an alternate to the Torrance educational advisory committee, and is vice-district chairman of the Boy Scouts. He was an organizer and finance chairman for the building of the Little Company of Mary Hospital, and a member of the Torrance Rotary and YMCA.

C & I DIVISION Wally Haas has agreed to serve as chairman of the commerce and industry division of the Torrance Red Cross campaign. He is a manager representative with Bethlehem Steel, 2100 W. 190th Street.

Haas worked on last year's Red Cross Fund as a commerce and industry committeeman. He is a member of Rotary.

Mrs. Mary Pagac will serve on the Red Cross Fund as Torrance business chairman. Mrs. Pagac is the owner of Mary's Color Bar, 1424 Marcelina, Torrance. Mrs. Pagac is treasurer of the Torrance Red Cross Branch Board of Directors. She is on the Board of Directors for the local YWCA and is a Century Club member of the YMCA. As a member of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce she is chairman of the clean-up and fix-up committee. Mrs. Pagac is also a member of Mary Auxiliary.

Mrs. Helen Lahey will be residential chairman for the local Red Cross Fund.
