Sportsmen's Show April 6

Ever see a million dollars worth of fishing tackle? The answer to a fisherman's wildest dreams will go on display April 6-16 during the run of the 16th Annual Los Angeles Sportsmen's and Vacation Show at Pan-Pacific Auditorium, oldest and largest outdoor exposition on the Pacific Coast.

Tackle Row, a special section of the show, has been set aside to showcase the 1961 models in every conceivable line of piscatorial gadgetry. H. Werner Buck, executive producer, said the number of fishing tackle exhibitors has broken all records this year.

Everything for fishing except a cure for exaggeration will be on display, ranging from tiny dry trout flies to giant compound reels for landing deep-sea game fish.

The accessories for fishermen are something out of this world in the new lines. Water-repellent and waterproof gear, designed for freedom of casting action, has been newly designed for stream fishing.

The 1961 lure designers, making free use of pliable plastics, have developed artificial minnows of startling, lifelike action. Other lures range from evil-smelling, "sure fire" baits for catfish to feathered pigs for albacore.

Need Managers For Tordena Colt League

New Tordena Colt League still has several openings for managers as well as a number of coaching berths, it was reported yesterday. The managerial posts are expected to be filled prior to the leagues initial tryouts, March 25 at North High field.

For further information call "Whitey" Gillibrand, president, at DA 4-1578.

Managerial prospects should submit applications in writing to the next meeting of the league officials, at Edison School (182nd St. east of Prairie Ave.)

In addition to fishing tackle, boats, camping gear, camping trailers, guns and sporting equipment valued at more than $10 million will be on display at the Show.
