

ECC Instructors Win Presidential Praise, Norwegian Assignment

Two El Camino College history instructors are the recipients of letters from the leaders of their respective governments.

J. A. Grenier, history and journalism instructor recently received a letter from the White House expressing the gratitude of the President for a photograph taken during the presidential campaign in the South Bay Area.

Grenier is working for his doctorate in history at UCLA. For the last four years he was photo instructor at El Camino. During that time the college dominated the Junior College field in state and national photo awards won. The instructor, his wife, Nancy, and their children Karen and Eric live at 3405 Maple Ave.,

Manhattan Beach.

LETTER FROM KING

Dr. Ivar Bjorndal, visiting El Camino College from Halden, Norway, on a Fulbright Exchange Teaching Fellowship was the recipient of a letter from King Olav VI, of Norway, awarding him his permanent teaching appointment. In Norway, teachers on the college level are appointed to their post by the king following a period of successful experience.

Dr. Bjorndal will tour the United States with his wife, Eva and son, Rrild, after completion of the current semester, and will then return to Norway. He and his family are presently living at 16833 Thornburgh Ave., Torrance.

Torrance 'Y' Schedule BPM Breakfast March 31

Torrance YMCA this week mailed invitations to the Los Angeles Y's Fourth annual Good Friday Breakfast for Business and Professional men March 31 at the Biltmore Hotel.

Speaker will be George Romney, president of American Motors Corporation.

Others on the program will include actor Joseph Cotton; Marni Nixon, lyric soprano; Elinor Remick Warne, composer-pianist; C. L. Peck, Jr., contractor; and Waller Taylor, II, lawyer.

Scott F. Albright, Y Board chairman, said, "We sponsor this event jointly with 24 other YMCA branches and expect to have a big Torrance contingent in attendance."

GEORGE ROMNEY
... Noted Speaker

CIVIC EVENT

"In only three years the Good Friday Breakfast has become a major civic event, and with a speaker of Romney's stature and reputation we expect more than 1,000 men to attend this year."

On of America's best-known business leaders, Romney is also active in religious and civic affairs. He is president of the Detroit Stake of the Mormon Church.

Born in Chihuahua, Mexico, of American parents, he came to the United States as a boy. He attended University of Utah and George Washington University.

Albright said reservations for the breakfast may be obtained by calling the Y, FA 8-1272.
