

B-I-E DAY—A group of teachers in Torrance Unified School District enjoyed a tour of Certi-Bond, 501 S. Arlington Ave., Torrance, during B-I-E Day sessions. After a meat cutting demonstration by Al Holt, manager of the meat department of Certi-Bond, the group adjourned to the Jump 'N Jack restaurant for luncheon and a talk given by Mike Kronheim,

Martha Agan Assists With Record Systems

Miss Martha Agan, medical records librarian at South Bay Hospital and biostatistician at Camarillo Hospital research department, will visit Washington, D.C., this week to assist in development of a uniform system of records keeping for mental hospitals in the United States. It was announced from the South Bay Hospital administrator's office.

The committee functions under the biometrics branch of the National Institute of Mental Health of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Miss Agan has been medical records librarian at South Bay Hospital since it opened in August, 1960.

She holds a master of science degree in public health from the University of California, Los Angeles. Her graduate work has been in the field of biostatistics.

New Members Dominate Club Program

New members made a clean sweep of the formal program at a recent meeting of Southbay Toastmasters 280. Taking the winners cup was James McDonald of Manhattan Beach with his second speech entitled "No Third Class Citizens." Secondary honors went to William Addington of Torrance for his talk "A Three Time Loser." Runner-up was new member Arno Dreus, also of Torrance.

Inducted into club membership was Leonard Gaines of San Pedro. Attending as a special guest of President Howard Smith was George Stevens of the Long Beach District Naval Office.

Plans for a "Speechcraft" course, designed for beginners, were outlined. This course will cover the fundamentals of good public speaking and will be instructed by prominent officers from Toastmaster Headquarters. Men interested in this training are invited to attend any Wednesday dinner meeting at 6:45 p.m. at the Redondo Beach Elks Club. Further information may be obtained by calling Fred Strible at FRontier 4-4990.

Pastor Wells To Preach on 'Resurrection'

Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church of Lomita will have two Easter morning services at 8:30 and 10:30. The Pastor Robert A. Wells will speak at both services on "It Happened at Jerusalem." The best news the world has ever heard came from the cemetery, "Christ Arose." His resurrection is but the "first fruit of the dead," to be resurrected at His will.

Extra seats have been arranged to care for the overflow crowds.

The Adult Choir will sing "By Early Morning Light," by Dickinson, with soprano solo by Mrs. Nita Paschall. The services will be in duplicate. The church nursery will be open at both services.

Evening service, at 7:30, will feature the annual Easter music by the church choir. They will sing the cantata, "Behold Your King," by John W. Peterson. Soprano soloists will be Mrs. Gloria Cooper, Mrs. Lola Ruffin; tenor soloist, Dave Newman; baritone soloist, Bill Wells. This event has become a classic musical event for the church and the community.
