morning for five months, the girls with their leaders gathered to learn the art of puppet making. The play was presented several times by the puppeteers. Mrs. William Priest is leader with Mrs. John Navriath, co-leader helping Mrs. Erika Muhl, Sea-Aire Craft Director.

Crazy an' Beautiful Hats Seen at Chapeau Luncheon

First Chapeau Luncheon for Mothers and their friends of Woodcraft Rangers and Rangerettes was held Monday with 90 in attendance at the Moose Lodge in Torrance.

Tables were decorated with miniature hat boxes and Uncle Sam hat banks. The main table was decorated with a centerpiece of manazita breads decorated with miniature hats and bows. The registration desk had a gaily decorated ticket receptacle.

R. K. Weaver, district executive, welcomed the ladies and turned the meeting over to Ray Wetzel, who represented Woodcraft Rangers.

Invocation was given by Mrs. Dorothy Hembree. Luncheon prepared by Mrs. Eileen Woods and her assistants, was served by Mrs. Alberta Ray, Alice Toro, Lois Hoover, Kay Calas, Theda Deiselhorse, Helen Profit, Jean Maybee, Mary Sylvan, Edna Muir, Ruth Irons, Lorraine Tucera, Vesta Longpre, Jean Chonori, Helen Whitmore and Ann Worthington.

Several of the ladies won door prizes distributed by Mrs. Eileen Woods.

Ray Wetzel thanked the following people for a job well done—Sherrill King for baby sitting; Randy Halverson and Tom Nakagawa for assisting in the parking of cars; Wanda Fones and Gloria Wetzel for distribution of tickets; Mary Sylvan, Helen Whitmore, Gloria Wetzel and Doris Elkins obtaining the many prizes; Dorothy Larsen for the beautiful job of table decorations and the programs; Lil Keith and Juanita Wheeler for handling the registration; and Doris Elkins, Gloria Wetzel and Beverly Weaver for acting as hostesses.

Mrs. Gert Schmitz of Lynwood, mistress of ceremonies, was introduced and awarded more than 35 door prizes, compliments of the local merchants, while the judges were busy determining the winners from a group of beautiful and outstanding hats, which the women made for the luncheon.

Mrs. Alma Tucker, Mrs. Theo Gilmore, and Mrs. Ella Mae Wittenburg, judges, were introduced and announced the winners. The sweepstakes prize was awarded to Mrs. Wanda Fones. Prizes for the most beautiful hats were awarded to Mary Sylvan, first prize, Mrs. June Forrester, second prize and Mrs. George Murray, third prize.

Funniest hats of the day were made by Mrs. Ginger Roche who took first prize, Mrs. June Jurtz, second prize, and Mrs. Merney Crawford who took third prize.

First prizes were ceramic hats made and inscribed by Mrs. Ann Worthington. Thanks for a job well done was given to Mrs. Doris Elkins and Mrs. Gloria Wetzel who were chairmen for the event.
