

FASHION FUN—CDA, Our Lady of Victory, members put last minute touches on fashion show luncheon plans. Affair is planned for May 13 at the Polynesian restaurant. Arranging details are (left to right) Mmes. Nicolas Humting, commentator; Rodger Ste. Marine, program and favor chairman; Charles Kelly, general chairman; and Stacy Rodman, grand regent of the court.

PICK MY POCKET—for a price—says clown Mrs. Earl Sanders to her children, Edith, Roy and Danny Sanders. The occasion is the Halldale Avenue PTA Carnival to be held on the school yard on Friday, May 19, from 3 to 7 p.m. In addition to the clowns there will be hot dogs, movie cartoons, games, bake sale, general store and fun for all.

Women

Lavina Nugen, Women's Editor Telephone DA 5-1515

Sankey-Wilson Vows Recited

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wilson are at home following a Las Vegas honeymoon. The couple were married at the Wayfarer's Chapel, Portuguese Bend with the Reverend Kenneth Knox officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul P. Sankey of Redondo Beach are the parents of the bride, Mrs. Charlotte Wilson, 2826 Gramercy Place, Torrance, is the mother of the bridegroom.

For her wedding, the former Paula Sankey chose a full-length gown of silk-organza and taffeta fashioned with a lace bodice accented with seed pearls. Button pearls and clover leaves of organza formed the crown which held her illusion veil. She carried a cascade of orchids. When given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Richard Sankey, matron of honor, wore peppermint silk organza. Misses Carolyn Lemke and Mrs. Ruth Haines, bridesmaids, were attired in yellow nylons over taffeta gowns.

Best man was William Strahn and ushers were Wayne Sankey and Jerry Schnipper.

At the reception following the ceremony Mrs. Olive Hawk registered guests.

The bride wore a white wool costume when the newlyweds departed for their Las Vegas and Grand Canyon honeymoon. They are at home at 23701 Western Ave., Torrance.

Mrs. Wayne Wilson is a graduate of Redondo Union High School and Wilson, a graduate of Torrance High School, attended El Camino College.

"Fun in the Sun" Theme For CDA Fashion Show

Members of Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America will present their 15th Annual Spring Fashion Show, Saturday, May 13, at 12 noon in the Polynesian Restaurant, 3901 Pacific Coast Highway, Wailonia.

"Fun in the Sun," will be the theme of this year's social affair, announced Mrs. Charles Kelly, general chairman. Commentary on fashions will be by Mrs. Nicolas Humting.

Court members and teenage daughters of Court members will model classified women's apparel from local shops. Mad hatter, 261 Avenida del Norte, Hollywood Rivera, will furnish the hats and accessories for this show. Models' hair fashions will be done through the courtesy of local beauty salons. Make up by Jafrá will be under the direction of Mrs. James Davis of Lomita.

Miss Ann Stora, ways and means chairman, announced ladies involved in chairmanships of this gala event are: Mmes: Charles Kelly, chairman; Frank West, co-chairman; Weley Muzik, models; Lyle Peters, tickets; Fred Gervig and Frank West, prizes; Roger Ste. Marie and Richard Wurm, Jr., programs and favors; Nicolas Humting, commentator.

Court members modeling are Mmes: Same C. Estes, Jr., Charles Fischer, Joseph Lord, Frank West, George McGregor and Miss Ann Stora, Jr. Miss Fashion models are Misses: Margaret and Kathleen Kelly and Thelma and Sherrie Muzik. Children models are: Debra Wiegel, 8 yrs.;

Sandra Durhman, 6 yrs.; Suzanne Ste. Marie, 4 yrs.; Laura Davis, 2 yrs., and Valesta Muzik, 18 months.

Hostesses for the day will be past grand regents who are Mmes. Ernest Tarrin, Nicolas Humting, Lyle Peters, John Condon, Edmund Chandlee, Jack Glaser, Roy Mulgrew, Lorenzo Otto, Robert Lewellen, Helene Thompson, Lee Dimond, Wm. Croak, Paul Hogan, Mathew Woods, Edward Boynton and Miss Mary Gahwolf.

One of the outstanding attractions of the afternoon will be the awarding of $50 and other prizes. Many door prizes will be given throughout the afternoon through the compliments of South Bay merchants.

A delicious luncheon consisting of Javanese Saute on a bed of fried rice, snow peas, and fruit cup with dessert will be served at 12 noon with the "Fun in the Sun" fashions immediately following.

Reservations and additional information may be obtained from Mmes: Lyle Peters, FR 5-3817; Charles Kelly, FR 4-1724; and Stacy Rodman, FR 1-3782.

SHELF BRIGHTENER

If the bookshelves in your child's room are beginning to look a bit dingy, here's an easy way to brighten them without painting. Simply cover the shelves with Marvalon adhesive covering in your choice of colors. Just measure and cut to size, pull off the backing sheet and smooth the covering to the shelves. It will stay on indefinitely and you can clean it with a damp cloth.

Hawaiian Atmosphere For Auxiliary Benefit

A gala evening of dancing and nibbling is in store for the guests, Saturday night, May 13, at the Ports O' Call Restaurant in San Pedro.

Affair has been named "Okole Maluna." This is the second annual dance for the Auxiliary to the Little Company of Mary Hospital in Torrance. Proceeds will go to purchase equipment for the nursery at the hospital.

Music will be furnished by Johnny Graves and his orchestra. Dancing will start at 9 p.m. and continues until 1 a.m.

Mrs. Lawrence E. Smith of Rolling Hills is serving as chairman and is assisted by Mrs. Theodore R. McNeer, also of Rolling Hills. Mrs. George McNeill is handling the publicity and door prizes will be supervised by Mrs. Charles Kirsnis Jr., of Torrance.

Other committee members helping stage the dance are: Mmes. Joseph Pigeon, Rolling Hills; Raymond Reed, Palos Verdes; Clarence Van Lingen, Torrance; and George Casserly of San Pedro.

P.S. "Okole Maluna" means "Down The Hatch."

NSA Conclave Set for May 19

Miramar Hotel in Santa Monica is the site chosen for the California Division Meeting of the National Secretaries Association (International) to be held on May 19-21. Chosen to represent South Bay Chapter, NSA, as delegates is the Chapter's retiring president who is Mrs. Hilda G. Smith (Mrs. W. Howard) and alternate delegate is Mrs. Margaret B. Charles (Mrs. F. G.), President-Elect.

Hosted by the Santa Monica Chapter, NSA, the six workshop sessions on Saturday morning, which are open to all registered members, will prove to be invaluable training for incoming chapter officers as well as future prospectives.

A general session will hold sway in the afternoon hours, followed by a 7:30 banquet featuring the "Secretary of the Year" finalists, installation of new Division Officers, award presentations and entertainment.

Sunday's program begins early with a general session and report on the Certified Professional Secretary program.

Proceeds from this show will be used for the many charities this Court contributes to yearly announced Mrs. Stacy Rodman, grand regent.

Vickie Wadlow Becomes Bride of Jerry Terry

Miss Vicki Carol Wadlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wadlow, Wilmington, became the bride of Jerry R. Terry at 8 p.m., Saturday, May 6 in the First Assembly of God of Wilmington. The Reverend and Mrs. Lawrence Terry, 24611 Marine Ave., are the parents of the bridegroom. Before an altar banked with daisies, stocks and gladioli, the Rev. Terry officiated at the vow exchange.

In a gown fashioned with iridescent sequins and baby pearls, the bride was given in marriage by her parents. Her shoulder length veil was held by an orange blossom crown.

Matron of honor Anna Mae Otis, a sister of the bride, wore a green chiffon dress and matching cymbidiums were her flowers.

Bridesmaids included Earlene Cross; Carol Wadlow, sister-in-law of the bride; Mary Alice Kuehn; Linda Ireland and Brenda Barnes, cousins of the bride; Mary Ellen Toie; Cora Waterfield; and Cheryl Jones. The attendants were gowned in orange chiffon and wore pearlized crowns of orange blossoms and orange net. Their flowers were white carnations with orange streamers.

John Gilman served as best man. Ushers included Dwayne and Tommy Wadlow, brothers of the bride; Jimmie Williams; Bill Sandusky; David Nair; David English; Don Toie; and Jerry Otis.

Ring bearer was Rickie Wadlow, nephew of the bride. Gail Terry, sister of the groom, served as flower girl. She wore an orange chiffon dress and carried carnations and stephanotis.

Candlelighters for the ceremony were nephews of the bride, Larry and Roland Otis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wadlow chose a lavender and silver sheath with silver-champagne accessories. Mrs. Terry wore a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Their flowers were white orchids.

At the reception held in the Fellowship Hall, hostesses were Grace Ireland, Geneva Yerke, Gertrude Schaberg, Enid Peterson, Betsy Wadlow, Josephine Barnes and Agnes Donoho. Following the reception, the newlyweds left for a northern California honeymoon.

The bride, a graduate of Banning High School, attended Harbor Junior College. Terry, a graduate of Narbonne High School, attended Long Beach State and Southern California College.

Upon their return from their wedding trip, they will be at home in Wilmington. The new Mrs. Terry is employed at Wilmington Mutual Savings and Loan. Terry works with sheet metal.

LADIES ATTEND CDA AFFAIR

Representing court St. Catherine, CDA at the institution held at Catalina Island recently, were Mmes. Richard Ban and Don Cowden. A banquet at the St. Catherine Hotel followed the event.

BIRTHDAY DINERS

Among the recent celebrants at The Pen & Quill in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bochenek of Hollywood Riviera, who observed her birthday anniversary with a dinner party for a table of eight guests.

Use classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.

MRS. WAYNE WILSON

... nee Paula Sankey

—Photo by Frederic

Lioness Meet

May business meeting of Torrance Lioness Club was held at the home of Mrs. Milton Isbell of Torrance. Mrs. Ray Wyatt, president, presided. The election of officers for 1961-62 was held. Mrs. Dale Harter, president; Mrs. Clarence Clark, 1st vice; Mrs. Cecil Powell, 2nd vice; Mrs.

Ernest Harris, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Diamond, secretary; Mrs. Wm. King, hair puller; Mrs. Walter Leberlein, bulletin editor.

Outgoing president's party will be held at the Palms on May 16. Affair will be a dinner and handkerchief show for the president.

Mrs. Ed Gregory, a new member, was introduced.