

LOVELY WEDDINGS FOR RADIANT BRIDES

Madeline Molnar Becomes Bride

MRS. ROBERT YOUNG
... former Madeline Molnar

—Photo by Seeman

When Miss Madeline Carol Molnar became the bride of Robert T. Young at the Nativity Catholic Church June 3, the altar was banked with white stock and gladioli. The Reverend Thomas Glynn officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Elizabeth Molnar of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, is the mother of the bride and Mrs. Leonard J. Young of Torrance is the mother of the bridegroom.

Attired in a full length wedding gown of lace and tulle fashioned with a fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline, the bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Andrew J. Molnar. The full tiered tulle lace trimmed overskirt ended in a bustle effect. A princess crown of teardrop pearls held her elbow-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white glamelias entwined with stephanotis.

Bridal entourage wore gowns of lilac chiffon and were led by maid of honor Margaret Kolarsky. Misses Anne McLaughlin and Erma Foxbower served as bridesmaids. Bouquets of lilac glamelias complemented their gowns. Miss Kathleen A. Young served as junior bridesmaid attired in an organza gown of the same color as the entourage.

Attending his brother as best man was Leonard Young. Groomsmen were Lawrence Bower and Emile J. Burke. Thomas R. Young served as junior usher.

Guest were escorted to their places by L. James Smith and Harold LaVelle.

At the reception in the parish hall, Miss Rosemary Vandagriff presided at the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Molnar chose an ice blue organza dress with white accessories and wore a blue hat. Mrs. Young wore a green linen ensemble with blending green accessories.

Following the reception, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Acapulca, Mexico. Upon their return they will be at home in Manhattan Beach.

The bride is associated with American Airlines and the bridegroom's affiliation is with Superior Optical Co., Torrance.

MRS. EUGENE CARL WIEHE
... former Constance Kulp

—Photo by Seeman

Eugene Wiehes Take Honeymoon

After a honeymoon in San Francisco and Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carl Wiehe are at home in Torrance. The couple were married at Nativity Catholic Church at two o'clock last Saturday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Kulp, Jr., 2057 W. 230th St., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wiehe of Inglewood.

The bride came to the altar, escorted by her father, wearing an Alfred Angelo original wedding gown. It was fashioned with a fitted bodice and off-shoulder neckline and short cap sleeves. Neckline and sleeves were of Alencon lace studded with seed pearls.

The bouffant organza skirt, appliqued with Alencon with Alencon medallions, fell into a chapel train. From a silk organza rose atop a lace Juliet cap fell a billowy illusion veil. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Janet Clayton and Misses

Sharon Thomas and Gloria Busch, and Mmes. Sally Schmidt and Linda Conry were bridesmaids. Mint green organza over taffeta was their gown and their flowers were white carnations tipped with green. Headpieces were green silk organza roses.

In a mint green organza floor length dress with hoop skirt was little Miss Capri Montgomery, flower girl. Johnny Kulp carried the rings.

Performing the duties of best man was Jim Craus. Ushers were Paul Harris, Richard Dewey, Hank Ruby and Ralph Russo.

The Reverend Thomas Glynn officiated at the vow exchange.

The newlyweds were greeted at the Knights of Columbus Hall by more than 300 wedding guests. Miss Dolores Johnson registered the guests.

The bride, a graduate of Torrance High School, is employed by Harvey Aluminum. Her groom received his education in Missouri and for the past 11 years has been employed by Harvey Aluminum.

Naiad Hansen Wed To James C. Zack

In a formal wedding at the Ascension Lutheran Church in Torrance, Miss Naiad Hansen and James C. Zack pledged their wedding vows. The Reverend Lloyd Warneke officiated at the vow exchange.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Christen S. Hansen, 3112 W. 179th St., Mrs. Margaret Rone of Inglewood and George Zack of Hollywood are parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Verne Larsen the lovely bride wore a gown of tulle and lace over satin fashioned with a fitted bodice accented by a sweetheart neckline outlined in silver sequins. Her illusion veil was held by a Juliet cap of lace studded with pearls. She carried two white orchids on a bed of net and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Louise Hansen who wore a white embroidered dress with a purple sash. Her flowers were purple asters.

Mrs. Barbara Harrison, Miss Linda Larsen and Miss Sherie Rone were bridesmaids. Each attendant wore a gown of white organdy and carried an arm bouquet of lavender chrysanthemums.

Serving as best man was Lee Harrison. Ushers were John Ainsworthy, Steve Welch and Kenneth Hession.

At the reception held at the church, Miss Jackie Hansen registered guests.

Upon return from their San Francisco honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home in Lawndale.

MRS. JAMES C. ZACK

... Nee Naiad Hansen

—Photo by Seeman

Beachcomber Affair Slated by Auxiliary

South Wood Little League Auxiliary members are making final plans for their Beachcombers Dance, June 17, at Eagles Hall, Redondo Beach. "The Moon Glows" will entertain from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

There are going to be door prizes. Mrs. Edward Nicodemus and Mrs. David Cook, along with other members are planning a full night of entertainment for all.

Auxiliary members wish to thank the many people who unselfishly donated their Blue Chip Stamps to the league for opening day drawing and for the many door prizes, and the beautiful items that will be offered for the drawing at the dance. Also the group thanks those who made the posters advertising the dance, Harry Pelley, Bob Brown, Mary Davison, Tom Watson and Bob Watson.

Dance committee includes the following people: Mmes. David Cook, Lloyd Wheeler, Allan Butler, Alex Constantino, Ralph Hogue, Edward Nicodemus, Robert Watson, Steve Haston, William Faulds, Marvin Sullivan, Alvin Frinkous, Thad Males, Bob Black, Lyman Turner, Forrest Steel, Robert Rothwell, William Lee, R. W. McDonald, Jim Hourigan and Harry Pelley.

Lioness Meet

Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt was drafted by the membership to serve as president for the year 1961-1962. Mrs. Ewalt served the club as its second president in 1948-1949. She is a past president of the Torrance Terrace Garden Club, and the Woman's Club of Torrance. She has held many chairmanships in both organizations.

Elected to serve with her are Mrs. Clarence Clark, first vice president; Mrs. Caryl Powell, second vice president; Mrs. Paul Diamond, secretary; Mrs. Ernie Harris, treasurer; Mrs. Walter Keberlein, bulletin editor; and Mrs. Wm. King, hair puller.

Installation dinner will be held at the Hacienda on June 20 at 7:30 p.m.

The club regrets the loss of Mrs. Dale Harter, who with her family, is moving to Needles, Calif. Mrs. Harter was the president-elect.

May meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Abe Robinson, 111, Vis Sego, Torrance. The Lioness members are planning to assist their Lion Husbands with the fireworks booth.

Maternity Tea Held at Hospital

Little Company of Mary Hospital recently entertained with another elaborate maternity tea for one hundred guests which was held in the tea-room of The Little Company of Mary Hospital in Torrance.

The long tea-table was beautifully decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Victor Benstead, flower chairman, who arranged an unusually lovely centerpiece of large pink peonies which blended with the tall pale lavender candles in the silver candelabras. An exquisite Pointe Venise Cloth was used which proved to be a perfect foil for the handsome silver tea service which the Auxiliary had recently presented to the Sisters.

Mrs. Raymond L. Reed was chairman of the tea and assisting her was Mrs. Frank M. Forester, president of the Auxiliary, who poured during the afternoon.

Committee members were Mmes. Robert Cooper, George Owens, Donald Puhl, Theodore McNeer, Fred Brierly, Woodrow Putman.

After tea was served, Sister Angela, who is in charge of the maternity floor, gave an interesting talk to the guests, followed by a short motion picture. The pleasant afternoon ended with a tour of the maternity floor and the modern nursery.

Mrs. Thompson Is CWF President Now

Using the "Doorway of Decision" as her theme, Mrs. Alen McDaniel, 2nd vice-president of the State Christian Women's Fellowship Board, presented keys to open the doors of service, study, and worship to the new officers of the CWF of the First Christian Church of Torrance.

One hundred members were present for the ceremony which was held during the monthly brunch Tuesday morning, June 6th, in the Friendship Hall.

Mrs. C. H. Thompson, president, and Mrs. Dean Lougee, vice-president, were installed for the second year in their respective offices. Other officers are Mrs. Jim Richards, secretary; Mrs. Frank Franzen, treasurer; Mrs. H. M. Sippel, director of study; Mrs. Ray Stewart, director of service; and Mrs. Irvin Bishop, director of membership.

Chairmen installed were Mrs. H. M. Sippel, missionary education; Mrs. Stewart Cooke, world call; Mrs. Tom Saine, literature; Mrs. H. G. Cassell, spiritual lift; Mrs. Robert Vroman, stewardship; Mrs. Hans Thomsen, christian family life; Mrs. Grant Jones, publicity; Mrs. Cecil Goad, ecumenical; and Mrs. Tom Saine, pianist.

New group leaders installed were Mmes. Jim Warden, Rodney Puckett, Don Morgan, Ralph Adamson, Albert Rodepouch, Fred Schweigert, J. B. Mosley, Ada Drake, Deloy Stromme, Elva Conrad, and Miss Marsha Miller.

Lovely orchid corsages were worn by Mmes. Thompson, Lougee, and McDaniel, a gift from Mrs. V. C. Viellenave, and Mrs. Thompson was also honored with a gift of a brass and milkglass scale from the CWF members.

The tables were decorated with books and materials used for study and worship during the past year and with many of the items made in the service projects during the year. The guest of honor's table was beautifully decorated with shining candles amid ivy and flowers.

Mrs. Louise Compton was presented with an award for her untiring service. Among other things she knit 49 bandages and made 25 children's dresses during the year. Mrs. Compton will be honored Sunday at an open house to celebrate her 90th birthday.

Using the nursery rhyme "Old Mother Hubbard" Mrs. J. B. Mosley wrote a clever skit which she put on with the help of the group leaders to illustrate the main service project of each group. She also reviewed the many services rendered by the entire Fellowship during the past year. She introduced Mrs. Ray Stewart, new service chairman, and briefed the Fellowship on the first 3-month service project Mrs. Stewart will direct.

Those who enjoy sewing could start making children's dresses, size 5, 6, and 7, but not putting in the hems as girls of this age very greatly in height. Good used dresses in these sizes will also be collected. These items will go to Church World Service. Another project will be the making of school bags with shoulder straps and filling them with school supplies, such as pencils, paper, and erasers. These also will go to Church World Service.

BEACHCOMBERS — Checking details for decorations for their Beachcombers Dance set for June 17 at the Eagles Hall in Redondo are (left to right) Mmes. David Cook, president of the Southwood Little League Auxiliary; and Robert Watson and Edward Nicodemus. Moonglows will furnish dance music for the informal affair.

Women

Lavina Nugen, Women's Editor ★ Telephone DA 5-1515

MRS. FRANCIS L. BRANNON

... nee Carol Welhouse

—Photo by Al Frederic

Carol Welhouse Is Now Mrs. Francis Brannon

Miss Carol Welhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Welhouse, 21430 Anza Ave., Torrance, became the bride of Francis L. Brannon at an 11 o'clock ceremony, June 3 in the sanctuary of the St. James Catholic Church, Redondo Beach.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Brannon, 5606 Calle de Arboles.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon lace fashioned with a seed pearl accented scalloped neckline and fitted bodice ending in a bouffant skirt. A seed pearl crown held her nylon net veil. She carried a cascade of white sweetheart roses.

Misses Rose Ann Pomeroy and Penny Brannon served as maids of honor. They wore identical dresses of aqua nylon tulle. Sister of the bride, Janet Welhouse was bridesmaid and wore a maize nylon tulle dress.

Flower girl was Carol Cleveland who wore a white dotted swiss dress and carried a basket of yellow carnations.

Best man was Jack Pomeroy and groomsmen were Stanley Martin. Serving as ushers were Roger Holdsworth and Terry Titus.

Mrs. Welhouse chose an ice blue nylon lace dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Brannon was attired in bone colored two piece silk sheath dress with pink accessories.

At a reception held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, the couple greeted guests. Those who attended from out of the city were Mrs. Peter Jansen, Mrs. Henry Jansen, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jansen, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jansen of Little Chute, Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. William Mangan of Victoria, Texas, also attended.

After a honeymoon in Yosemite, the newlyweds will be at home in Torrance.

The bride is graduate of South High School and her groom, a graduate of Torrance High School, is presently employed by Union Carbide Chemical Co.