

Annual Camp Meeting Set

Announcement was made today by Southland officials of the Seventh-day Adventist church that Pastor Glenn Goffar of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., has been named to the Public Address Committee of the church's 58th Annual Campmeeting which opened in Lynwood Friday June 16.

Ernest Roy also of the Torrance Church serves on the Music Committee. Mr. Roy is an evangelist singer and has just completed assisting Elder A. O. Sage in a series of meetings which were held at the Bellflower church.

Members of the local church made preparations to attend the annual religious event at 4100 Imperial Highway, Lynwood, which is expected to draw some 15,000 to 20,000 persons on weekends and between 4,000 and 10,000 on weekdays.

SESSION

Opening address of the session was at 7:30 Friday with William A. Fagal, New York City, speaking on "God Speaks of Our Day."

"We will move our regular Saturday worship services to this great religious meeting on Saturday, June 24," Pastor Goffar said in announcing the local church's participation in the Campmeeting.

"Our mid-week services on Wednesday evening will also be held at the Campmeeting site," he said.

Purpose of the nine-day convocation, Pastor Goffar said, is to give church members a deeper insight into the church's theology as well as to provide opportunity for a fuller Christian commitment.

In a day of gross materialism this great drawing apart to study things of the spirit comes as a refreshing change," Pastor Goffar said.

Religious meetings of the convocation will be held at 6 and 7:30 p.m. each day with services throughout the day

Couple Celebrates 25th Anniversary

To celebrate their golden wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Nelson of 1344 W. Carson St., are visiting their daughter and husband in Massachusetts for an open house June 25.

The couple was married in Cheshire, Mass., and lived in Pittsfield, Springfield and later built a home in Southwick, where they resided for 18 years until coming to Torrance four years ago.

Both are members of the Tournament of Roses Association and help decorate the Torrance float every year. They are also active members of the Harbor, Pomona, Grange and Gardena Fuschia Society.

Mrs. Nelson is an associate member of the El Redondo Chapter DAR, formerly serving as publicity director. She is a member of the Torrance Woman's Club; for the past three years she has been drama chairman, directing a play each year, and recently gave her position as recording secretary.

Nelson is employed at Harvey Aluminum Co., Torrance, and is a member of Al Malakah Shrine in Los Angeles and the South Bay Shrine Club. Before coming to Torrance he was employed by the government for 27 years, retiring in 1953.

FRIENDS DINE

Entertaining a table of friends for dinner at Marineland Restaurant, where they enjoyed The Ink Spots in the "Porpoise Room," were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swietlik of Torrance. Guests in their party were Messrs. and Mmes. Donald F. Bush of Rolling Hills and the Robert E. Reids of Hollywood Riviera.

SUMMER TRAVELERS

Mrs. Lola Richards, with Lorraine Mills, and son Dan Larson, travel this week to Missouri to visit Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Britt, longtime residents of WALTERIA. Dan will be helping on the Britt cattle stay to spend the summer ranch.

Toastmistress Seeks National Speech Title

Mrs. Glenn Sink of the San Pedro Toastmistress Club—an organization of women from Torrance, Lomita, Rolling Hills, Palos Verdes, San Pedro and other communities in the area—has talked her way to celebrity status and a crack at the international speech contest winner's trophy recently.

The young homemaker and mother of two has won five speak-offs in the past five months and has eliminated all competitors to make her representative of 197 Toastmistress Club in California, Arizona, Nevada, Hawaii, Japan and the Philippines. She will compete with winners of seven other regions at a July 17 contest in Washington, D.C.

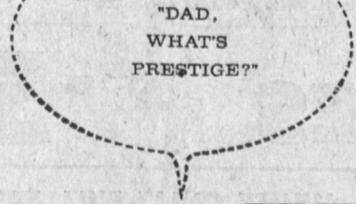

Her latest success was at the regional level when she spoke to more than 600 at the Fresno Municipal Auditorium during a conference of Southern California Toastmistress Clubs.

Mrs. Sink credits the club with a great portion of her success. "No one joins a Toastmistress Club just to win speech contests," she commented, "because the major aims are to develop poise and confidence. However, the opportunity to write and deliver contest-winning speeches would never have been mine without Toastmistress."

The club meets at the YWCA in Harbor City on second and fourth Monday evenings.

New officers will be installed at Ports O' Call June 26 when Mrs. Norven McKean, will conduct ceremonies seating Mrs. Don St. John, as president.

Other new officers are Mrs. John Rowe, vice president; Mrs. Kenneally, secretary; Mrs. Martin Trolen, treasurer; Mrs. Roger Griggs, club representative. Mrs. Grigg is retiring president.

"My Dad's a lawyer. He made me look prestige up in Webster's dictionary. It says it's 'the ability to command admiration and esteem.' I'm not certain I know what that means but, anyhow, there sure are a lot of doctors, lawyers, engineers, big business men and other important people livin' in our neighborhood in GRANDVIEW PALOS VERDES. Mom likes our home 'cause it's in such good taste and such high quality. I think I'll look up quality. Is it spelled with a k or a q?"
