

TURMOIL AND DECISION

"Answer to Crisis: Men of Brazil", third in a series of Moral Re-Armament films, a story of turmoil and decision on the docks of Rio de Janeiro, will be presented Saturday, August 26, 8:30 p.m. Channel Eleven.

It is a unique film in that it was written and acted by the dockworkers of Rio and their families. The men and women of Rio, workers and employers, tell the story just as it happened—and it really happened! Tough political trade union clashes end in men reconciled and caring for and about each other.

Nelson And Thompson Teamed As Pro Football Commentators This Fall

Sportscasters Lindsey Nelson and Chuck Thompson will team up as the commentators for the National Football League games to be televised by the NBC-TV Network on Sunday afternoons this Fall, NBC Sports Director Tom S. Gallery announced today.

The two will divide the play-by-play duties.

NBC-TV's professional football coverage, featuring games of the Baltimore Colts and Pittsburgh Steelers, will include 14 Sundays from Sept. 17 through Dec. 17. The games will be seen coast-to-coast, but will not be carried by TV stations in the 14 NFL cities.

This will be the 10th season that Nelson, the network's assistant sports director, will be reporting football for NBC. The recipient of numerous "outstanding sportscaster" awards, he also covers NBC-TV's weekly baseball sportscasts during other seasons of the year. He was one of the commentators for NBC-TV's coverage of the NFL Championship Game last December.

Thompson has been a broadcaster for the Colts for several seasons and was one of the NBC-TV announcers for the NFL title game in 1958 and 1959. He formerly reported the baseball games of the Washington Senators, and was a World Series commentator for NBC Radio last Fall. Nelson and Thompson were microphone partners for NBC-TV's coverage of the 1961 National Open Golf Championship.

Blind Channel 11 Cartoonist Owes Success To Courage and Love of Children

SUSIE NELSON

Sketches Funny People

Every time cartoonist Susie Nelson picks up her chalk, it's a lesson in genuine courage—because Susie is blind.

You'd never know it to see her in action, because she's a symphony of motion and happy chatter as she sketches her funny little people and animals during "Sheriff John's Lunch Brigade" on KTTV, Channel Eleven.

It all began when she was 14 and living in Germany. An eye inflammation was diagnosed wrong and treated incorrectly. Since then she has been completely blind in one eye and has only a shadowy kind of vision in the other.

For her protection, she carries a letter which certifies that she is "legally blind."

But no one has a better time than Susie. She is a devoted mother to her four children—Dan, 16; Fern, 10; Bonnie, 9, and Don, 8. "We have fun," Susie says with that limitless cheer.

Dan is the son of Susie's first husband, killed in his homeland during World War II. During the occupation of Germany, Susie met Duane Nelson, then with the U.S. Army. Duane later sponsored her trip to America and soon after she became his bride.

Now an American citizen, Susie "knows about war," and she says: "I know we must have understanding and tolerance in this world." Susie promotes her philosophy in "chalk talks" which she gives for various organizations and in the lively drawings she does on Sheriff John Rovicks TV show.

The Nelsons moved to California from Duane's Idaho ranch in 1955, following Susie's appearance on a Horace Heidt show which attracted attention in television circles and eventually brought her to Rovicks program.

"Sheriff John's Lunch Brigade" is seen everyday, Monday through Friday, noon to 1 p.m. on Channel Eleven, and Susie may be seen in action on the show every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

The "Curly Bird" prop used on the show was designed by Susie, styled after a drawing done years ago by her mother to amuse Susie when she was ill.

Susie and her family live in Sherman Oaks, and for a hobby, she paints! Some of her paintings have hung in galleries during Southland art exhibits.

Where does she get this determination? Well, the way Susie tells it, there are two ways to be blind—one is to crawl on your hands and knees and the other is to take a chance. Susie has been taking a chance most of her life and sees no reason to stop now!

DIFFERENCE

It makes no small difference whether we form habits of one kind or of another from our very youth; It makes a very great difference—or rather all the difference.
