Nuptial Vows Unite Couple in Marriage

The Wayfarer's Chapel in Portuguese Bend set the scene for the nuptial ceremony which united Rita Joy Simmons in marriage to Calvin Howard Wixom August 5 at 9 p.m.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of full-length imported silk organza and chantilly lace. The bodice had a scalloped neckline; the sleeves were of finger-tip length; and the veil was elbow-length of imported silk illusion. Jewel and seed pearls adorned a rose applique on the veil which matched roses on the skirt of the gown.

Miss Simmons carried a bouquet which consisted of three white orchids, three gardenias, and lilies of the valley. String pearls hung from the heart-shaped bouquet.

PARENTS

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Sit-mons, 2271 W. 236th Place, Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wixom, 2561 Sonoma, Torrance.

At the ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Kenneth W. Knox, the bride's sister Nelda Duncan was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Evelyn Ross, Kathy Parnlicki, and Georgia Duehring.

The matron of honor wore a pink nylon over taffeta gown and carried white carnations, lily of the valley, and an orchid surrounded by pink ribbon and net.

GOWNS

Bridesmaids wore lavender nylon over taffeta gowns and carried bouquets similar to that of the matron of honor.

Best man at the double-ring ceremony was William C. Duncan. Ushers were Ronald Wixom, Jack Wixom, and Michael Wixom.

MOTHERS

The mother of the bride wore a light blue silk organza sheath with a lace overskirt. She wore dyed-to-match shoes and white hat and gloves.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink silk organza sheath with white accessories. Both mothers wore white orchids. Attending the guest book was Judy Wixom, sister of the bride, who wore a gold brocade sheath with matching accessories.

A reception was held in the Gold Room of the Jump 'n Jack following the ceremony. The couple departed for a three-week honeymoon in Tennessee.

RESIDE

The bride, who is a 1961 graduate of Torrance High, and bridegroom, also of Torrance High, now reside at 21605 S. Avalon, in Torrance.

Wixom is presently in the Navy stationed at Long Beach aboard the USS Bryce Canyon.

Alumni Reunions Planned in Area

"The Inglewood High School Alumni Association Board of Directors met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Burdick. President Bob Kissam announced that this year's recipient of the annual "Mother" Maude Knudsen scholarship was Miss Georganne Lilly, who plans to attend Santa Barbara University.

This is the third year the group has awarded this scholarship to a deserving senior who plans on becoming a teacher. The scholarship was established in memory of "Mother" Maude Knudsen, a teacher at Inglewood High for many years, who is remembered for writing personal letters to those in the armed forces from the school during World War II.

The classes of '32, '42 and '52 will be starting soon on plans for their reunions to be held next year. If anyone knows the whereabouts of any member of these classes, they are asked to send the information to the Inglewood High School Alumni Association, P. O. Box 433, Inglewood.

Pair Plans April Vows

Charlotte McComas will exchange nuptial vows with Gary Tiernan in April at the First Methodist Church of Torrance, it was announced by parents of the bride-to-be recently.

Tiernan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tiernan, 2345 W. 230th St., Torrance, and the bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo McComas, 1722 W. 234th St., Torrance.

The two met at Torrance High School as students there. Miss McComas is a 1960 and Tiernan a 1959 graduate from Torrance.

With a major in music at El Camino College, Miss McComas will return this fall as a sophomore. She plans to transfer to Long Beach State as a junior.

Tiernan has attended El Camino and is presently employed by Food Giant Markets.
