BOWLING

With Darlene Cope

The Fifty and Over Bowling Club will have its second annual King and Queen contest at Gable House this Saturday night at 8 p.m. in the meeting room.

PARTY FOR ROYALTY

Her highness Sylvia Hilliker and King Earl Queen will turn over their crowns to the newly elected royalty. The new king and queen will, as last year, reign over the club activities during the coming year.

A big party is planned for the club. Refreshments, games, and the big election composes the evening's activities. Besides the Gable House club members, club members of Cal Bowl of Los Angeles will attend this event and will be eligible to compete for the honored titles.

Results and a brief resume of the grand evening will appear in next week's column.

GHBA PARTY

The GHBA "Come Dressed as a Song Title Costume Party," which was held at Hal and Julie Elkins last Saturday night was a great success. The costumes were all very original and funny.

Best costume prizes were won by Cliff Taylor, who came dressed as a woman, including the high heels, as "Baubles, Bangles and Beads," and Fran Phillips, who was dressed as "Sweet Little Alice Blue Gown." (Crazy low cut gown for Alice!)

Dee Cecil won the door prize for being dressed as two songs, "Top Hat, White Tie and Tails," and her flip side was "Can Can."

Other costumes included Pistol Packing Mama, Four Sleepy People, a couple of Rik Sha bows, and two Cowboys. Norma Frazer was dressed in a jazzy red "Charleston" dress Howard Cecil came as "Red Sails in the Sunset" and stumped everyone. Bob Alderman was some sort of a "Witch Doctor," Pat O'Leary was a Hatfield of "Hatfields and McCoy's," and Babs O'Leary was a green haired "Cajon Queen." The Marvin's and Marshall's were dressed as judges. Bill Phillips took movies of this crazy party—everyone who attended must be wondering how they turned out.

After the many games were played, a delicious dinner was served. Dinner consisted of fried chicken, ham, jello mold, deviled eggs, macaroni salad, stuffed celery, pickles and olives. A great time was really had by all.

GABLE HOUSE CHATTER

The Las Vegas Traveling League rolled at Gable Monday, so complete scores should be coming in soon.

The new downstairs Rik-Sha Room will be open in about two weeks. Plan on coming over and seeing the finishing touches.

Ann Homels dress shop, Jezebel on Hawthorne Blvd., will hold its official grand opening this Thursday. Try and stop by to see Ann and her latest selection of spring fashions.

Lady beginner classes will commence about the third week in April—sign up soon.

Summer leagues are filling up fast, so better sign up now.

Saturday Is Final Signup Date For Tordondo Little Leaguers

Saturday will be the last chance for signing up in the Tordondo Little League with boys from eight to 12 eligible. Youngsters must be accompanied by a parent and also must bring proof of age. Park is located at 5417 Halison St. in Torrance and it will be open from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Tordondo Little League has a program for all boys who sign up. There are twenty teams and a school for beginners.

All the youngsters will be given another opportunity for a physical checkup to assure their fitness to play ball. This examination is voluntary and free and will be given at the South Redondo fire station, located at 401 South Broadway in Redondo. Examination is made possible by the volunteer services of doctors of the Southern California Chiropractic Association and the Redondo Beach Fire Department. Last chance for Tordondo League boys to obtain this checkup will be Saturday, March 3, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

For additional information call Al Pearson, president at FR 1-3774 or Glenn Tibbett, players agent, at FR 9-8224.

REGISTRATION

Torrance National Little League will hold registrations, Feb. 22 and 23, at the YMCA, 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Any boy between the ages of eight and 12, before Aug. 1, 1962, is eligible. Proof of birth is necessary.

Warrior Nine Coach Hopes For Top Year

"If pitching holds up and defense remains steady, we may have a fine year," El Camino baseball mentor, Chuck Freeman observes with caution.

Freeman may have appeared cautious before, but after the scholastic ineligibility of three of his best men and the Kansas City acquisition of brilliant shortstop Herb Newman, he has every right to display extreme conservatism in his outlook.

"I'm only hoping they will show their potential," Freeman said of his hurling crew.

Though not as powerful as last year's team, ECC's '62 squad may cheat its way to the top via defense alone.

The Warriors boast a steady infield with Pete Banulin, Morningside, guarding the gateway; Bob Withers, Mira Costa, on the pivot spot, and John Ranslem, Serra, handling the hot corner at third.

SHORT STOP

Bob Brown, Morningside, will step into Herb Newman's shoes to flag down the ball at short.

On reserve for infield work are two top-notch glove men in Ed Beckwith, San Francisco, and Nick Fuscardo of Serra.

Four men will vie for starting berths in the outfield. Speed and accuracy will be the key words for the ECC outer gardeners.

Joe Moore, Serra; Rel James, Gardena; Bob Pier, Morningside, and Frank Van Patten, Torrance, will battle for starts.

Moore was a regular outfielder last year and boasts plenty of power. James is a jack-of-all-trades and can double just about anywhere. Pier packs plenty of speed, a fine arm, and a .400 batting average while Van Patten should develop into a top-notch lead-off man.

Pitching will be the Warriors do or die rallying point.

Several top-ranked hurlers make up the hill corps—all rookies except for Ted Sprague, ECC's outstanding pitcher of '61.

John Torok has the potential of becoming a big winner, while Jerry Smith possesses a fast ball that makes major league scouts sit up and take notice—and notes. Rounding out the mound crew are Steve Parents, Dick King, Lance Valatch, Skip Parente, and Ray Wilson.

Warriorville is exactly three-deep in catchers.

Dick Green will probably open the season as ECC backstop with Ron Schneider and Ken Proctor in reserve.

Green played in the shadow of Angel property Dave Marsden last year. Once out from beneath the shadow he may develop into an excellent receiver.

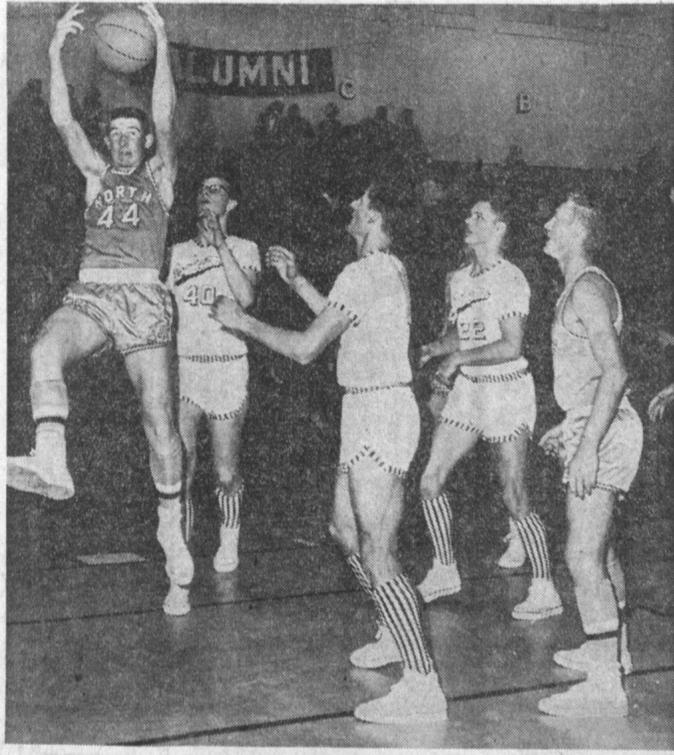

Proctor is quick with his hands and hustles behind the plate.

Schneider, a top hitter, will have to polish off his receiving before falling heir to the catching spot.

Coach Freeman may be cautious, but with steady ball handling and a little luck, El Camino may jump the one or two notches necessary to improve last year's third-place finish and once again reign as diamond king.

MOST GAMES

What Los Angeles Angel played in the most games last year? Ken Hunt, with 149 to his credit. Next three in line: Albie Pearson, 144; Lee Thomas, 137 and Leon Wagner, 133.

DOWN FOR THE COUNT — North High's hoopsters were walloped Monday afternoon by a high-riding Inglewood five, 60-46 in the Saxon gym. Handicapped by a half-time score of 28-20, the Saxon five battled grimly up to the final gun. Outstanding defensive action by the North squad kept the score from running away.

El Camino's Swimming Squad Will Open Season Friday at Fullerton College

Boasting one of its most individually talented squads in years, El Camino College opens the swimming season Friday, Feb. 23, at Fullerton Junior College in a 3:30 p.m. meet.

Fullerton boasts a potent aggregation and the results of the meet should serve as a good indicator of how Coach Rudy Kroon's club will fare in future meets. In water polo, the Hornets knocked off Long Beach in the Southern California finals to terminate a win streak which had neared the 100-game level. Lacking depth, but sparkling in individual talent, the squad expects a fairly successful season, with many individuals records falling along the wayside. Even with one of its finest talents in recent history, El Camino can expect to finish no higher than fourth in the rugged Metropolitan Conference.

VIKES WIN

Last year, Metro Conference teams finished first, second, fifth and eighth in the State meet. Long Beach took the win spot followed by Santa Monica. Valley grabbed fifth place and ECC wound up in eighth place.

Things appear equally thorny for the Warriors this year, with Santa Monica boasting an improved team and Long Beach and Valley equally as strong as last year.

A Honolulu import, Jerry Sheely is expected to be the top man on the ECC team. Coach Kroon says, "Sheely will keep up with anybody in the butterfly this year. He is a great swimmer."

Spartans Drop Home Game To Powerful Mira Costa

Both North and South high schools dropped close ones Monday afternoon as the Spartans fell before the Mira Costa five, 70-40, while the Saxons went down before the trampling Inglewood squad, 60-46.

To play Culver City Tuesday Torrance was scheduled to play Culver City Tuesday afternoon. Final score was not available before press time.

In North High's tilt with Inglewood on the Saxon home courts, action was fast and furious throughout the game with the score seesawing back and forth until the closing quarter.

In the final period Inglewood poured on the steam and leaped ahead. Picking up an impressive lead, they managed to hold it until the final gun.

Halftime score stood at Inglewood, 29, North 20.

Also a home game, South was battered unmercifully by the Mira Costa hoop squad, losing the lead early in the game and never regaining it.

Monday's loss continues South's streak of losses and effectively removes them from any chance at top league honors.

Harbor JC Hawks Near End of Court Season

Right in the middle of the league standings is where Harbor College's cagers find themselves as they approach the last two weeks of basketball competition.

With a 5-5 mark in league play, the Seahawks are not title contenders but they can have a big influence on the league race as they meet the league leaders.

In the past week they beat Long Beach 80-68, but lost to San Diego 64-81 in the border city to remain where they started at the .500 mark. The Seahawks were to meet Santa Monica on Tuesday in Santa Monica and then return to the Harbor gym to play Bakersfield Friday night. Bakersfield currently is in second place, one game behind league leading L.A. Valley, whom the Seahawks play next week.

In the first round Santa Monica lost to the Hawks in an overtime thriller. Coach Norm Kettering is hoping that this is not the time the Corsairs decide to win their first game of the 1962 season. In their first meeting the Bakersfield Renegades defeated the Hawks decisively.

Against Long Beach it was the 25 point efforts of Hollis Lee that made the difference. The 27 points Windfeldt scored against San Diego were not enough to overcome the 28 of Dell plus the 23 of Mathis and the 16 of Catlin. A hot second half in which the Knights scored 45 points to the Hawks 30 gave them the victory.

County Employs Designer for Two Area Golf Links

Responding to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn's urging that the county develop its unimproved golf sites so they can be used for recreation and return a net revenue to the county, the Board of Supervisors Tuesday took the first step in the development of two of the eight proposed courses.

William F. Bell, well known as one of the nation's top golf course architects, was hired to assist the County Engineer in the development of the proposed Diamond Bar course near Pomona and the Victoria Park course at 190th street and Avalon boulevard (Dominiguez area).

Under terms of the agreement under which Bell was hired, he will prepare routing plans, develop improvement criteria and prepare large scale contour drawings of each green. These will be used by the County Engineer and his staff in preparing working drawings.
