

SCANNING SCORE — Reviewing the musical score for "I Pagliacci" are conductor Elyse Aehle, concert-master Myron Fisher, and drummer Clarence Cordon. The presentation is being made by the Civic Symphony Orchestra and will be heard at 3 p.m. today at the Redondo Union High School Auditorium.

Civic Symphony Orchestra Gives Presentation of 'I Pagliacci'

I Pagliacci will be heard this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the RUHS auditorium. On the stage will be the 80-piece Civic Symphony, Elyse Aehle conducting, which will form a background for the action of the five soloists who will be in costume.

Enrico Porta, who made such an impressive success both in acting and singing in the Civic Symphony production of "Aida" last year, will sing the role of Tonio in I Pagliacci. In this role he can give full rein to his talent for characterization and comedy as well as to his magnificent voice. Although he is a nationally known specialist in orthodontic design and has invented and improved many braces, etc. to relieve the injured and lame, his hobby is Opera and he has sung leading parts in nine operas many of them repeated, always receiving praise from the critics for his outstanding performances.

Other equally proficient soloists are: Ann Bethel as Nedda, Mario Leonetti as Canio, Paul Ashton as Silvio, and Raymond Gagan as Peppe.

NEW FACES

The orchestra has been fortunate this season in the acquisition of a number of new musicians who are former members of such great orchestras as the Royal Philharmonic of London and the New York Metropolitan Opera. These have encouraged and inspired all the players. New members are always welcome, no matter what their musical background, if they wish to play unsimplified symphony music.

The Civic Symphony Orchestra receives help and encouragement from the performance funds of the recording industries through president John Tranchitella of Local 47 A.F. of M.

The Younger Set

Girl Scout Troop No. 2000 recently received a wonderful letter of thanks from Mrs. Margaret Clark, manager of women's division of the March of Dimes. The Girl Scout troop sold 288 boxes of cookies during G. S. cookies sale, and donated the entire proceeds to the March of Dimes. Girls are now busy learning first aid, child care, good housekeeping, gardening, cooking and community life among their badges to earn first class rank. The troop will leave for Lake Cachuma for a four day holiday. Mr. and Mrs. John Burton and Mr. and Mrs. Don Townsend are treating the girls to this outing for all of the work the girls have been busy with. Girl Scout troop is sponsored by Harbor Lite Dog Obedience Club.

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE

DO YOU KNOW THE REAL CAMPAIGN ISSUE?

Do you know the kind of a man who now runs your city? We're talking about the incumbent mayor, and we know he is hurting our city's reputation.

Do you know that he even embarrassed you while representing you in Sacramento? During an inter-city Highway session in the state capital, your incumbent mayor's social behavior blemished Torrance's reputation among the neighboring communities as well as the Governor's office.

Why wasn't Albert Isen appointed to a judicial office? An appointment he has sought for many years.

Do you know Police Departments in the South Bay, including our own in Torrance, have on occasion, "assisted" the incumbent mayor in order to "protect other drivers?"

Do you know the incumbent mayor often stays at the bar during convention dinners?

Do you know the incumbent mayor is often insulting and boisterous at these times?

Do not overlook these facts when you go to the polls, TUESDAY, APRIL 10TH. "IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE." There's one man who can restore dignity as the city's chief executive. VOTE FOR WILLYS BLOUNT, a moderate mayor.
