Charleston act by Beverly Hague and Linda DeGregory (shown above) was another highlight on the "Talent Time" review, an annual service activity for high school Red Cross members.

Area Teenagers Highlight Program Produced by Red Cross Councils

Acts by Torrance and Gardena teenagers highlighted the annual "Talent Time" program sponsored by the Harbor Bay and West Bay High School Red Cross councils and presented Tuesday night for domiciliary patients at the Veterans hospital in Westwood.

Master of ceremonies for the two-hour show, featuring a cast of 90 teenagers from 10 area schools, was Lee Larsen of South High. Donning clown costumes for three different numbers, "Portrait," "Dead Eye Dick" and "Dance" were Gena Eichenberg, William Folsom, Kelly Sims, Glen Stacy, Bob Woodward and Rita Orr all of North High.

DIRECTING
Directing the group was Mrs. Lenora Anderson, North High nurse.

"Raccoon Rumble" brought back memories of the 1920's as Linda DeGregory, Delma Jordan, Rebecca Franco and Beverly Hague of Gardena High did a lively Charleston. Also representing Gardena High on the show were the "Counts," a jazz combo whose members include Clarence Scarborough, Richard Johnson, Joe Crutler and Melvin Jones.

Among the other numbers were an accordion solo by Rose Ann Berndt of Avia-

Marineland Has 'Big' Tiny Little Three More Weeks

So popular has become "Big" Tiny Little during the first month of his engagement at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes that he and his musical revue have been held-over for three additional weeks in the "Porpoise Room," it is announced by owner George M. Foster.

The current show, which is the honky-tonk piano star's third return appearance will now extend through May 19. Few entertainers have equalled this unusual 11-week engagement at Marineland Restaurant.

GALA ANNIVERSARY

The Pen & Quill Hotel in Manhattan Beach was the scene of a cocktail-dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Doty of Torrance in honor of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Marsh of Lomita, who were celebrating their 15th wedding anniversary.

Providing an annual variety show for the hospital patients is one of the High School Red Cross service projects.

Torrance Cooperative Nursery Begins Membership Drive With Open House

Among honored guests present at the 1962 open house held at Torrance Cooperative Nursery School were Mayor of Torrance Albert Isen and Mrs. Isen and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Collins. Mr. Collins is principal of the Adult Education Division of the Torrance Unified Schools. The open house event, held Sunday, April 8 at 2 p.m. heralded this year's membership drive. Registration is now open for September enrollment.

Greeting guests at the annual event were Mmes. Frederick Stone, Richard Turner, William Campillo, Henry Blada, Richard Cummins, John Pooley, Edward Bigelow, Richard Jones, Howard Banks, William Rickett, John Freeborn, Mr. William Campillo, president; and Mr. William Susoeff, president-elect. Mrs. Alvin Kaye, teacher-director, was present to meet prospective members and to answer questions concerning the pre-school and parent education programs of the organization.

Torrance Nursery School, a parent cooperative, combines a four-day-per-week nursery program for children between the ages of three and five with a parent workshop in child study. It operates as a non-profit, non-sectarian parent participation school under the auspices of the Torrance Adult Education Division and is located at 4558 W. 182nd St., Torrance. For further information please call Mrs. Frederick Stone, FR 5-7128.

Easter Bunny Workshop Is Planned at Craft Center

The Easter Bunny Workshop, the Bunny and a demonstration of old world egg decoration will highlight the spring program of the Arts and Crafts Center of the Torrance Recreation Department.

The Easter Bunny Workshop will be Wednesday, Thursday and Friday April 18, 19 and 20. There will be two classes: 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. for 6 to 8 year olds and 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. for 9 to 12 year olds. The fee is 50 cents for the workshop.

On Saturday, April 21, at 2 p.m. the Easter Bunny Workshop and the Sea-Side School recreation program will give a party with games, refreshments and a visit from the Easter Bunny.

The demonstration of old world egg decoration will be given by Mrs. Mokowski on Thursday, April 12, as part of the Crafts-Omnibus program for adults. Other lecture-demonstrations will be rug-making on April 26 and May 3 and copper enameling on May 10.

The studio type program, under the direction of Erika

Muhl, includes lectures-demonstrations on Thursdays 1 to 2:30 p.m. and in the evening 7:30 to 9 p.m. The center is open for workshop periods: Wednesday 1 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 10 p.m. and Friday 9 a.m. to 12 noon at which time individuals may work on projects of their choice. The fee for the four week Craft-Omnibus session which will run April 12 through May 16 (no classes during spring vacation) is $2.

The Arts and Crafts Center is at Sea-Aire Park, 22730 Lupine Dr. Pre-registration is not required for the Easter Bunny Workshop. Couple Honored At Surprise Party On Anniversary

It was a happy surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. Michael Doktor, 25351 Fejjoa Ave., when members of Harbor View Ladies Auxiliary Unit 217 and their husbands were invited to Mr. and Mrs. John Beauchamp's, 1814 247th St., last month to help celebrate their forty-second wedding anniversary. Granddaughter Patti Pesce was co-hostess.

Decorations included lovely bouquets of pink bell of Portugal, roses, carnations and tall pink candles on either side of a large bowl of camellias on the dining room table served as a centerpiece. Two pink entwined heart shaped cakes were decorated with white roses and the names Marie and Mike.

Mrs. Harry Setzer assisted in serving tea and coffee at the silver service.

During the evening, a money tree and other gifts were presented to the couple. Mrs. Doktor received a huge bouquet of red roses from her husband.
