

Picture Preview of Saturday Parade

TROPHY DISPLAY — Torrance Mayor Albert Isen, Miss Armed Forces Day Bobbet King, and Chamber of Commerce President Hal Frenz admire huge perpetual challenge trophy which will be presented to the "Best National Guard Unit Entry." Other trophies and awards will be presented to entries.

MUSIC GOES 'ROUND — In the vanguard of Saturday's AFD Parade will be the marching unit and band from Torrance High School. Here bass-player Ron Dutton, 2423 Gramercy Ave., junior at THS, gags it up for Miss Armed Forces Day, Bobbet King, right, and Princess Myra McCartney.

MISSILES SHOWN — Full scale missiles, including the massive 50 foot "Titan" and the "Polaris," above, carried by the nations atomic submarines, will be displayed Saturday following the parade. Display grounds will be set up adjacent to Torrance City Hall and will be open to the public.

Marching Units, Displays Spark Annual Celebration

(Continued from Page A1)

and drill team from Manhattan Beach, Naval reserve units from Submarine Division 11-6 and destroyers Marsh, Vammen and Colahan of San Pedro and units of Surface Division 11-20 of Compton.

An added attraction in this year's parade is the appearance of the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps from the University of California, Los Angeles, and the Naval Sea Cadet Corps of Compton.

Next in the line of march will be the Culver City High School band, two Civil Air Patrol units from San Pedro, the Torrance Civil Air Patrol squadron, the Original Dixieland Society of Roaring Teens Youth Band from the South Bay area, Loyal Order of Moose float, Torrance Youth Sports Council Little League float, Boy Scout Troop 996 and Cub Pack 966C under the sponsorship of the Torrance American Legion Post 170, and a color guard made up of Torrance legionnaires.

At the conclusion of the parade, Torrance Legionnaires will move from the parade route to the veterans monument in front of the Torrance city hall where they will place a memorial wreath.

Following the parade the official party will visit the military displays behind Torrance city hall. The display will be open to the public from 10:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Secretary Fay will be the principal speaker at the Torrance Armed Forces Day luncheon to be held at Allen Center, Los Angeles Naval Base at 1 p.m. Fay will be accompanied to Torrance by Mrs. Fay.

The Torrance celebration is sponsored jointly by the City of Torrance and the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the Torrance Armed Forces Day committee organization include: Fred Fathert, general chairman; Mayor Albert Isen, honorary co-chairman; Harold G. Frenz, honorary chairman; Lt. Col. W. B. Koons and Lt. Col. W. L. Geissert, armed forces coordinators; Robert Vroman, luncheon chairman; Walter Nollac, display area chairman; James Morgan, parade chairman; Lt. D. C. Cook, parade vice-chairman; Reg Kison, publicity chairman; Stanley Remelmeyer, reviewing stand chairman; Casper Clemmer, reviewing stand vice-chairman; Orin Johnson, trophy chairman; Don Reining, finance committee; and Edwin W. Sullivan, celebration coordinator.

PARADE LINEUP — Armed Forces Day Princesses Myra McCartney and Judi McTea look over the lineup for Saturday's parade with chairman Jim Morgan. Entries from all branches of service have been received as well as promises to appear from area marching units and bands.

OFFICIAL NOTICE — Huge portable signs, advertising Torrance's annual Armed Forces Day parade and celebration, have been posted at major intersections throughout the city. Here Vern Hughes, advertising chairman for the event, and Stanley Remelmeyer, city attorney, view sign at the corner of Sepulveda and Hawthorne.

ON DISPLAY — A "Titan" operational site model is being checked by Major Warren W. Harris before it is put on display at the Torrance Armed Forces Day celebration next Saturday. Detailed scale models of every U.S. Air Force ballistic missile and various satellites will be shown.