

PAINT FOR SCOUTS is being picked up by members of Torrance Junior Woman's Club from Pittsburg Plate Glass Co. The Club is donating the paint to the Torrance Scout Center building on Plaza Del Amo St.

Loading up are (left to right) Mrs. Jack Dean and Mrs. Kenneth Boulter of the club; Neil Olsen, Pittsburg personnel manager; Beryl Newsom, employee.

COME AS YOU ARE invites members of Victor Woman's Club, which is slating a "Come as You Are" surprise breakfast for some morning between tomorrow and Aug. 18. Caught in the act are Mmes. D. P. Valenzuela, A. S. Stock and T. E. Brents, club members. Women attending suspected of dressing up or fixing up will be fined or "jailed" by a judge and jury.

GAVEL PASSES—Mrs. Frank H. Forrester, three-term president of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary, is shown handing her gavel to the new president, Mrs. Clarence Van Lingen, at a recent meeting.

Unit Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Association, Harbor View Unit 217, opened its new term with the first board of directors meeting at the home of Mrs. Tava V. Miekley, new president, recently.

The president directed the board in discussing the year's budget and setting tentative dates for the social and fund raising activities. Also the resolutions and endorsements for the National Regional Caucus held in Long Beach Aug. 11 and 12, was discussed.

Mmes. Tava Miekley, William Bavis, Harry Setner, and Joel Kellom were delegates to the caucus and also the convention, which will be held in September at Memphis, Tenn. The alternates are Mmes. Claude Fowler, Catherine Loro, Emily Cofield, Earl Rush, and Michael Doktor.

DELEGATES

Delegates came from all over the southwest to the recent caucus held in the Lafayette Hotel, Long Beach.

Mmes. Margaret Abels and Violet S. Correa was accepted into the auxiliary as new members at the recent meeting.

Mrs. Emily Cofield draped the charter in the Memorial Service for Flora E. Craig who passed away since the last meeting.

INITIAL PROJECT

The first money-making project of the month will be a luncheon and card party to be given by Mrs. Miekley, 704 Opp St., Wilmington on Wednesday, Aug. 15, at noon. Reservation will be accepted by the hostess.

Members of the auxiliary visited Unite 11, San Pedro, 21, Los Angeles, 39 Inglewood, 43 Long Beach, 45 Burbank, 120 Oxnard, 175 Orange County, 196 Compton, 211 Pomona, and Gardena 204, for the Annual July Installation Ceremonies throughout the South West for the Fleet Reserve Branches and Units.

Attending the meetings were Mmes. Miekley, William Davis, Harry Setner, Catherine Loro, Harry Fralich, Claude Fowler, Emily Cofield, Micheal Doktor, Joel Kellom, and John Beauchamp.

Women

CAROLYN PERKIO, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Morning Nuptials Recited by Couple

Wedding vows uniting Patricia Eugenie Glover and Charles L. Rose were said July 21 at a 10 a.m. ceremony at Ascension Catholic Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Glover, 541 W. 112th St., was given away in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Rose, 1439 W. 84th Pl.

Presiding before 200 guests at the double-ring ceremony was Father John Cofield.

The bride chose a full-length gown of chantilly lace for the nuptial event. She wore a pearl crown attached to an elbow-length veil.

MAID OF HONOR

Maid of honor was Loretta Glover, attired in a coral chiffon dress with a round neck and a full skirt. She carried white carnations with aqua ribbons and net.

Bridsmaids were Patricia Logan, Camille Curiel and Louise Rose. They wore aqua chiffon gowns with square necks, full skirts and satin sashes. Their headpieces were made of clustered roses with pearl dew drops. The bridesmaids wore white, wrist-length gloves and carried white carnations.

Best man for the bridegroom was Robert Musella. Ushers were Michael Popovics, Michael Crivello and Jim Prichett.

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, parents, grandparents, relatives and close friends, of the bride and bridegroom, assembled at a 2:30 p.m. reception at the Women's Progressive Club in Inglewood. Attending the guest book was Loretta Popovics.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink, full-skirted, nylon dress with a jacket to match and pink and white accessories. The bride's mother wore a pastel pink sheath with a large floral hat and accessories to match.

SCHOOLS

The bride attended Ascension Grammar School and graduated from St. Michael's Catholic Girls High School. She took her training as a hair stylist from Marinella Beauty School.

The bridegroom attended Mother of Sorrows Grammar School and graduated from Serra Catholic Boys School. He works at Mission Furniture Mfg. in Los Angeles as a clerk on docks.

MRS. CHARLES L. ROSE
... the former Patricia Eugenie Glover
(Photo by Crotty)

University Women Slate Area Coffee

An area coffee in Torrance is being planned during August to acquaint women college graduates with the activities of the Manhattan Beach Branch of the American Association of University Women, according to Mrs. Michael N. Lesh, president.

Mrs. Ronald Webb, membership chairman, announced that the 10 a.m. coffee for prospective members are scheduled as follows: Tuesday, Aug. 21 at the home of Mrs. John D. Freeman, 1320 23rd St., Manhattan Beach; Thursday, Aug. 23 at the home of Mrs. Donald Gantner, 2601 Pine Ave., Manhattan Beach; Tuesday, Aug. 28 at the home of Mrs. William S. Vance, 439 Prospect Ave., Manhattan Beach; and Thursday, Aug. 30 at the home of Mrs. Robert White, 121 Paseo de Granada, Redondo Beach.

ASSISTING

Membership committee members who will assist the hostesses are Mrs. Joseph L. Miller, Mrs. Gerald Dunn, Mrs. Hugh E. Wells, and Mrs. George Brewster.

The Manhattan Beach Branch of AAUW offers members a study-action program covering the fields of higher education, elementary and secondary education, international relations, social and economic issues, status of women, mass media and the arts. It features a monthly general meeting which last year presented such speakers as Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona, Dr. Norman Topping, president of the University of Southern California and Dr. Alma Hawkins of UCLA.

Representatives of the various branch study sections will be attending the coffee meetings to greet prospective members and to explain the branch program. Women college graduates interested in the AAUW program and those wishing to receive invitations to a coffee in her area should contact Mrs. Webb at FR 2-4167.

Turgeon-Cox Vows Said at Ceremony

Marriage vows were taken by Sharon Louise Turgeon and James C. Cox Aug. 4 at St. Philomenas Catholic Church in Torrance.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ella Turgeon of Torrance, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy South of Mill Creek Oklahoma.

The single-ring ceremony was officiated by Father Rhodes.

The bride wore a chantilly lace, floor-length gown and a fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet, featuring carnations and white orchids.

Her maid of honor, Miss Micklin Cooke, wore a royal blue dress and also carried a cascade bouquet of carnations. The bridesmaid, Rodella Sankee, wore a pastel blue dress and a fingertip veil. The bride was given in marriage by Thomas E. Turgeon.

The best man was Bernie Mounce, and ushers were Joseph Brown and Everett Wyant.

A reception followed the ceremony at the bride's home at 21217 Shearer Ave., Torrance.

The bride is a student at Flavio's Torrance Beauty College, and the bridegroom is stationed aboard the USS Isle Royale AD-29 in Long Beach.

MRS. JAMES C. COX
... nee Sharon Louise Turgeon
(Photo by Seeman)