Palley's Annual 'Treasure Chest'

Palley's annual "Treasure Chest" sale will be presided over this year by motion picture actress Karen Parker, who will appear at the Torrance store Saturday, Aug. 18, between 1 and 3 p.m., to distribute lucky keys.

Miss Parker, soon to be seen in Elvis Presley's latest picture "Kid Galahad," will have thousands of keys for all of Palley's customers. Certain of these keys will open the giant "Treasure Chest" in the store with valuable prizes for the lucky winners.

The sale begins Aug. 17 and continues through Aug. 23, "Kid Galahad," which also stars Gig Young, Lola Albright, Jean Blackman and Charles Bronson, opens at theaters and drive-ins Aug. 23.

OPTIMISTIC

The Heart Association reports that medical scientists are optimistic about the possibility of finding basic answers about the cause of high blood pressure, and even more effective control methods than are now used.
