

Area Family Dinner Time

The Southwest Association for Retarded Children will hold its annual family dinner and kick-off of the membership drive tomorrow.

This year the theme "Food and Mood" will be highlighted with an Italian atmosphere. The potluck feast, to be held at Lennox Park, will begin at 6 p.m.

Entertainment will be furnished by 14-year-old accordionist Wayne Goulet, holder of a national award in his category. Special folk songs will be presented by Mrs. Michael Galanos, who, with her family, has toured Italy twice in the last four years.

Families of retarded children from Inglewood to Palos Verdes may attend. Mrs. Jewell Trumbo, OR 4-8136, may be contacted for additional information.

A brief business session will be held at the close of the meeting.

Moore Elected First President Of British Club

Members of the newly-formed British Commonwealth and Friends club met in Torrance recently to elect a committee and discuss organization of the club.

Ervine Bakke, chairman of the San Pedro British-American club, attended in an advisory capacity.

Francis Moore of Lomita, who was responsible for the formation of the group, was elected chairman.

Other officers to serve with Moore are, Leslie Smith, vice chairman; Mrs. T. Lamb, secretary; Mrs. D. Duplessis, assistant secretary; Edna Davis, treasurer; Joyce Kennedy, membership and hospitality, and Clinton Lamb, social activities secretary.

Members decided officers should serve for period of three months initially.

A dance has been scheduled for Saturday at the American Legion Hall, 1109 Border Ave., Torrance. Another general meeting will be held Sept. 12.

HULA STEPS are being practiced by members of the Lioness Club of Torrance as they anticipate their annual luau Sept. 23 at 2432 Gramercy Ave., 3 p.m.

Readying for the event are (front, left to right) Mmes. Pete Radisich, Newell Larsen, (back) Cecil Powell, A. F. R. Ewalt, and Abe Robinson. (Press Photo)

Women Form Discussion Group on Great Books

Formation of a daytime Great Books Discussion Group for the South Bay area was announced by Mrs. Jeannette Pierson and Mrs. Ida Moran, who will act as co-leaders.

Meetings will be held in the conference room of the American Savings and Loan Association, 205 South Pacific Ave., Redondo Beach, from 10 a.m. to noon on alternate Wednesdays, beginning Sept. 19.

Sixteen selections will be read and discussed during the year, including some Greek classics, a book of the Bible, the Declaration of Independence and a short novel by Tolstoy.

Mrs. Moran and Mrs. Pierson emphasized that there is no charge for participation in the group. Only requirements are an interest in ideas and a desire to read the great literature of the world. Discussions will follow procedures developed by the Great Books Foundation, a non-profit foundation for adult education.

Mrs. Moran, FR 4-6370, or Mrs. Pierson, FR 9-0302, may be contacted for information.

JOY HINZ ... to be wed

Hinz-Norton Tell Plans Of Wedding

The parents of Joy Hinz recently announced the engagement of their daughter, former Torrance resident, to Lt. Richard D. Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Norton of Claremont.

Miss Hinz is the daughter of E. A. Hinz of Rolling Hills and Mrs. Cecil Pappan of Phoenix, Ariz.

The bride-elect graduated from East High School in Denver, Colo., and attended El Camino College where she was affiliated with and president of Gamma Phi Delta sorority.

Miss Hinz is presently employed at the Studebaker Hospital in Norwalk.

The bridegroom-elect attended Claremont High School and holds a B.A. degree from Stanford University. He is presently a second lieutenant stationed at Reese AFB, Texas. Recently he received his wings as a jet pilot and is now an instructor in the same program.

A November wedding is planned by the pair.

South High Plans Event

South High's annual "get acquainted" picnic will be held Sept. 8 from 10:30 a.m. to 1 a.m. in the mall. Students are asked to bring their own lunch, but beverages will be supplied, according to Nancy Baker, publicity. Entertainment will be provided by the Spartan Pep Squad and other members of the student body.

All students new to South High School are invited with a special invitation to new sophomores, juniors, and seniors, Miss Baker said. The picnic will serve to acquaint the new students with the student council. Freshman orientation is scheduled for Sept. 11.

and door prizes. The public may attend. Information may be obtained by calling DA 6-4545 or DA 6-2838.

Club Plans Aloha Luau

A Sept. 11 meeting and a Sept. 22 Aloha Luau is being slated by the Xi Zeta Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, it was announced at the recent meeting of the organization.

Presiding at the recent meeting, held at the Torrance home of Mrs. Richard Musto, was Mrs. Les Mayfield who was suffering from a broken wrist.

The cultural program, "Southern Europe," was presented by Mrs. Don Dawson. Mrs. Bert Whited, Civil Defense chairman, stressed the importance of completing the First Aid Course offered by the American Red Cross. Mrs. Whited attended the recent Southern California Council Executive Board meeting at the Chef's Inn, Pasadena.

Members of Xi Zeta Lambda recently served refreshments at the special Officers' Forums sponsored by the South Bay Area Council at the home of Mrs. Raymond Millhouse. Presidents of Compton, Southeast Area, Northern Orange and Long Beach Area Councils conducted the forums with Mrs. Hal Moore, president, Southern California Council, as special guest.

Mesdames Les Mayfield, F. L. McIntyre and Angus Mitchell of Xi Zeta Lambda have vacationed at the World's Fair, Seattle this summer.

Women

CAROLYN PERKIO, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Trip to Tahoe, Vegas Follows Pair's Vows

A two-week honeymoon to Northern California, Lake Tahoe and Las Vegas followed the 5 p.m. nuptial promises of Sharon Wnuck and Gill Barnett Aug. 25 at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Inglewood.

The bride, given away in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wnuck, 21102 So. Denker, Torrance. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnett, 5003 W. 126th St., Hawthorne.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Eldred Dierker.

AT ALTAR

Miss Wnuck appeared at the altar in a gown of white slipper satin. She carried stephanotis, lilies of the valley and an orchid.

Attending the bride was Carol Wnuck in an aqua, satin sheath dress with an organza overskirt. She carried pink roses and white carnations. Flower girl was Teri Sue Wnuck in a white organza dress over white taffeta.

Bridesmaids at the nuptial event were Susan Hoover, Donette Gray and Mrs. Robert Johnson. They wore Kelly green, sheath dresses with organza overskirts. They carried pink and white carnations.

Attending the bridegroom was William Clark, best man. Ushers were Tom Barnett, Irvin Wnuck and Robert Johnson.

HONORS COUPLE

A reception was held in honor of the newlyweds immediately after the ceremony at the parish hall. Assisting was Mrs. John Raymond. Bride's aunt, Maureen O'Malley served at the guest book. Mother of the bride attended in a green, satin gown and the bridegroom's mother wore a beige, chantilly lace gown.

The former Miss Wnuck is a graduate of Gardena High School and attended the University of California at Santa Barbara. Barnett was graduated from Hawthorne High School and attended Los Angeles Harbor College.

MRS. GILL BARNETT ... the former Sharon Wnuck (Photo by Seeman)

Couple Says Promises At Torrance Baptist

Vicky Hippik and Michael Cochran of Torrance exchanged wedding vows Aug. 25 at Torrance First Baptist Church. The Rev. Robert Dehn officiated at the ceremony with 400 guests present.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Reed, 1442 W. 215 St. and Steven Hippik, also a resident of Torrance. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cochran, 723 W. 228th St.

The former Miss Hippik, a 1960 graduate of Torrance High School, was given away in marriage by her step-father, Charles Reed.

CHANTILLY LACE

Her gown was of chantilly lace and tulle with a bodice of lace. The bodice had a sabrina neckline and was detailed with a row of tiny covered buttons on the back. The skirt front was panelled with lace and tulle. It was tiered with chantilly lace and tulle and cascaded into a chapel train in the back.

Her headpiece of lace and seed pearls was attached to a bouffant veil of French illusion with a hand rolled edge.

CASCADE

She carried a cascade of rose buds circling a white orchid.

The maid of honor, Sharon Magner, wore a street-length dress of apricot green chiffon over taffeta. She carried bronze mums tied with moss green ribbon.

Bridesmaids Janet Reed, Mrs. Collene Wilson, and Mrs. Mary Tole wore street-length dresses of yellow chiffon over taffeta, and also carried bronze mums tied with green ribbon.

FLOWER GIRL

The flower girl, Cindy Adams, wore a street-length dress of yellow crystalline over taffeta.

Tom Cochran, bridegroom's brother; David Bridge, and Don Daniels, were ushers. John Peadt was the best man and Peter John Laskey was ring bearer.

Wedding music included "At Dawning," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "Wedding Prayer."

RECEPTION

A reception for the newlyweds followed the ceremony in the church social hall. Mrs. Flora Herman attended the guest book, with Mrs. Kenneth Ruffell, Mrs. John Cummins, Mrs. Harry Matthews, Gracie Connett, and Mary Devries assisting at the reception.

The couple will reside at 729½ Friends Ave., Whittier following a two-week honeymoon at Carmel and Monterey.

Fuchsia Society Slates Spaghetti Dinner

The Lomita Fuchsia Society will hold its annual spaghetti dinner Sept. 9 in Eipper Gardens, 3338 Pennsylvania Ave. Lomita, from 2:30 to 6:30 p.m. There will be $100 merchandise awards

MRS. MICHAEL COCHRAN ... the former Vicky Hippik (Photo by Seeman)

THE ART OF FASHION is being shown by Mrs. Leonard Ensminger (center) to Mrs. Robert Bashor and William E. Grubbs (left to right), members of Torrance Hospital Auxiliary, as they discuss the Art of Fashion show slated for Sept. 25 at 2:30 p.m. at the Terrace Room of the Broadway Del Amo. Champagne will be served guests at the event. (Press Photo)