

One-Week Honeymoon Shared by Newlyweds

A one-week honeymoon at Carmel and San Francisco followed the Aug. 26 nuptial vows of Donnica Dawn Mosbos and Gary Meredith Ross at the Hawthorne Community Seventh-day Adventist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carlos Moshos, 2570 Trotters Terrace, Rolling Hills, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Ross.

The church was decorated with a large bouquet of lavender mums, pink gladiola, white stock and a blue larkspur. There were pew bouquets of white stock, bows and ribbons and seven-candleabra on each side of a large bouquet.

OFFICIATING
Officiating at the 6:30 p.m. wedding was Dr. Wilbur Alexander, D.D. The bride was given away in marriage by her father before 350 guests.

The bride wore a gown of white, dull satin with no lace or ornamentation except a scalloped neckline, sleeves and waist overlay. She wore a full-length chapel train. The bride carried a bouquet with a white orchid, stephanotis and long ribbon streamers with blue flowers.

Maid of honor at the nuptial event was Donna P. Moshos, sister of the bride. Matron of honor was Mrs. Laurence Johanson. Bridesmaids were Carolyn Nelson, Diana Ashley and Sandra Lou Ross. They were dressed in pink, blue and lavender.

BEST MAN
Best man at the nuptial event was Robert Towsley. Ushers were Edward Lugenbeal, Anthony Hasso, John Duge Jr., and Don Carlos Moshos Jr.

Music at the wedding included "Wither Thou Goest," sung by Lou Ann Wallace of Saratoga. Accompanying her was Harold Hannam, head of the music department at La Sierra College.

A reception was held in honor of the newlyweds at 8 p.m. at the bride's parents' home. Attending the guest book was Mrs. William Rue. Assisting were Mmes. Keith Ray, Mott Farrell and Rex Hill.

EDUCATION
The bride has attended La Sierra College for four years and will receive a bachelor of arts degree in the summer of 1963. She completed one year of study in medicine at Loma Linda University. She plans to continue work on a master's degree at Washington State University at Pullman, Wash.

The bridegroom received his bachelor of arts degree from La Sierra College and his master's in history from Stanford University in Palo Alto. He earned this through a Woodrow Wilson grant from the Henry Ford Foundation.

Ross has a teaching assistantship at Washington State University where he plans to work on his doctorate degree in history.

The couple will reside at 205 W. McKinzie, Pullman, Wash. after Sept. 12.

MRS. GARY MEREDITH ROSS
... the former Donnica Dawn Mosbos
—Photo by Crotty

Women

CAROLYN PERKIO, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Nursing School of Boston Graduates Torrance Woman

Jeanne Christine Kerallah of Torrance was graduated from the Catherine Laboure School of Nursing, Boston, Aug. 26. She was among 104 students of the class of 1962, the largest graduating class to receive diplomas at ceremonies at the John Hancock Hall.

Miss Kerallah is a former employee of Douglas Aircraft Company.

While at Catherine Laboure, she was active in the Student Faculty Association, Student Nurse Association of Massachusetts, Student Council, Scholarship Benefit Show and Triad Art Staff.

Captain Ruth Houghton (Ret) former director of Uavy Nurse Corps was the principal speaker. Diplomas were presented by Rt. Rev. Augustus C. Dalton, archdiocesan director of hospitals and schools of nursing.

On Sunday morning prior to graduation the seniors participated in a televised dialogue Mass and received their caps and pins from Sister Cecilia, director of the school, at a Communion breakfast held at the Carney Hospital.

The Catherine Laboure School of Nursing, established in 1951, was forged from the traditions and accomplishments of three hospital schools of nursing in Massachusetts: the Carney and St. Margaret's in Boston, and St. John's in Lowell. The school is under the direction of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

The Sunday afternoon graduation program also included an invocation by the Most Reverend Thomas J. Riley, D.D., Auxiliary Bishop of Boston.

JEANNE CHRISTINE KERALLAH
... receives nursing diploma

Menorah Women Event Features Special Program

The first regular meeting of Temple Menorah Sisterhood at noon, Sept. 10 in the Community Hall of Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach. A special surprise program will be featured.

Luncheon will be served free to members who have paid their annual dues. Mmes. George Goldstein, Torrance; Gene Kaufman, Palos Verdes Estates; Henry Levine, Torrance; and Lee Solomon, Redondo Beach, will serve the luncheon. Dues may be paid at the door prior to the luncheon.

The surprise program, which promises to be highly entertaining, has been planned by Mmes. Kaufman; Sydney Siegel, Torrance; Martin Simon, Palos Verdes Estates; and Ronald Schack, Palos Verdes.

Sisterhood President Mrs. Philip Weinstein, Torrance, invites all persons interested to attend the luncheon and meeting. Babysitting service will be provided during the event. Information or reservation may be obtained by calling FR 5-8362 or DA 9-8973.

Rebekah Members Honor Kastrups On Anniversary

Members of Trio Rebekah Lodge 240 met at the Lomita Masonic Temple Aug. 28, at which time the past noble grands took over.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kastrup, celebrating their golden wedding anniversary, were escorted to seats at the front of the lodge room. Mrs. Kastrup was crowned with a jewel-studded, gold crown and given a scepter with orders "to rule over the roost" the rest of the night.

Mr. and Mrs. Kastrup and family were escorted to the dining room where a wedding cake, made by Noble Grand Mae Van Wie, was the center of attraction.

Refreshments were served by the PNG's.

Stamp Club Meets Mon.

Once again it will be club sales night when the Torrance Stamp Club meets Monday night Sept. 10.

Many a nice stamp has gone into members collections from past club sales. This one should be no exception as it features world-wide lots.

The club meets at 7:30 p.m. in the Scott Park Community building, 23410 Cattel Ave., Wilmington. All stamp collectors are welcome to attend the meeting. Information can be obtained by calling. TE 4-6718.

Newlyweds Trek to Seattle After Saying Wedding Vows

A 3 p.m. Catholic wedding ceremony joined Celia Ann Stinger in marriage to Larry Allen Rosenrahl Aug. 11 at St. Catherine Laboure Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stinger of Torrance and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John Hansen of Lawndale and Lester Rosendahl of Seattle, Wash.

Miss Stinger said her wedding vows before 175 guests at the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of white stock and gladiola on the altar and at the altar rail.

GOWN
She wore a gown of nylon organza over a taffeta bodice and skirt. The skirt was trimmed with Venetian lace and cascaded into a sweep train in the back. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Maid of honor for the bride was Ester Yniguez, who wore a gown of lavender organza over taffeta and carried a spray of vanda orchids on a background of yellow tulle.

Bridesmaids were Dolores

Regina Stinger, Toni Exley, Douglas Stinger, Donald Foster and Gerald Brant, ushers.

A reception was held to honor the couple immediately after the ceremony at the Torrance YWCA. At the guest book was Mrs. Dennis Hunter, sister of the bride. A catered buffet luncheon was served.

ATTENDING
Attending the bridegroom were Robert Davis, best man, and Roger Rozendahl,

Mother of the bride wore a gown of gold crepe and brown brocade accessories. Bridegroom's mother wore a brown and white print dress and white accessories.

DEPARTURE
The pair departed from the reception for a honeymoon in Seattle, Wash., via Yosemite. They planned to visit the bride groom's father and see the World's Fair.

The bride is a graduate of North High and attended El Camino College. Rosenrahl graduated from Leu-singer High and attended El Camino. He is employed by Pacific Telephone.

The pair's permanent residence is in Inglewood.

MRS. LARRY ALLEN ROSENDAHL
... visits World's Fair
—Photo by Seeman

Nuptial Plans Of Couple Told

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bower, 2362 W. 247th St., Lomita, recently announced the engagement of their daughter Barbara to Richard McLachlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. McLachlan, 907 Gastine, Torrance.

BARBARA BOWER
... plans wedding
Photo by Seeman

The bride-elect is a winter, 1962 graduate and McLachlan is a summer, 1962 graduate of Narbonne High School. She is employed as a secretary and he as a truck driver at Superior Wholesale Electric Company in Harbor City.

A wedding date will be set in the future.

Moose Lodge Sponsored Teen Club Holds Luau

The Torrance Teen Club, sponsored by the Torrance Moose Lodge 785 and Women of the Moose Chapter 44, were hosts recently to a Sunday afternoon luau.

Scene of the gala event was the home of club president Dennis Pierce at 1114 Fonthill St.

The Hawaiian-style tables and mats were set on the wide apron of the swimming pool. Decorations were of fruits and imported Hawaiian flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rinehart were in charge of all the food and decorations. They also arranged for professional entertainment.

Officiating at the ceremony as acting high priest in the States was John Bright, president of the Polynesian Society of Los Angeles County.

Bright also served as master of ceremonies for the show which followed the meal. Musicians were Bill and Kaipe Kalehua. The music and songs of Hawaii were played all through the dining. The show after consisted of several Polynesian island dances and songs by Alike and Valani, professional island dancers.

After the dinner and show most of the teenagers present had a swim in the pool. Later there was dancing at pool-side to the record player. Many members of the Pal Mates Club, sponsored by the Manhattan Beach or Club President Brian J. Bell, TE 1-4494.

Political Club To Hold Dinner

The Harbor Young Republican club recently named Mitchell "Mitch" Toland to head up the club's $10 a plate fund-raising dinner held this month.

Toland will be responsible for dinner arrangements and ticket sales. The dinner, set for Sept. 27, 8 p.m., will be held at the San Pedro Hacienda Hotel.

Principal speaker will be Ronald Reagan, star of television and motion pictures and nationally-known Republican speaker.

The four candidates will share in the proceeds from the dinner. Additional information concerning the dinner may be obtained by calling Toland, TE 1-4226, or Club President Brian J. Bell, TE 1-4494.

Navarro, Tracy Say Catholic Promises

Nuptial vows joining Alice Catherine Navarro to Vance R. Tracy were recited Aug. 25 at a 11 a.m. ceremony at Nativity Catholic Church in Torrance.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Consuela Navarro 1564 W. 219th St., Torrance, and the late Joseph Navarro. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mildred Tracy of Los Angeles.

Officiating at a ceremony before 200 guests was the Rev. Father D. O'Toole. The church was decorated with white gladiolas, stock and white bows on the pews.

Miss Navarro was escorted down the aisle carrying a corsage of orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. She was given away in marriage at the double-ring ceremony by Joseph Fernandez, her un-

Attending the bride was Anna Gianunzio, maid of honor, and Gloria Munoz, Tamra Heinz and Mrs. Barbara Eyster, bridesmaids. They wore light blue, taffeta dresses with knee-length bell skirts and matching hats with veils. They carried white mums.

FLOWER GIRL
Flower girl at the nuptial event was Teri Sooter, three and one half years. She was accompanied by Mark Belles, four and one half years. She wore a light blue floor-length dress with a hoop and dropped flower petals on the aisle. He wore a white tuxedo. Ring bearer was Mike Sooter, five and one half years.

Best man for the bridegroom was Guy Tracy. Ushers were Dan Kemp, Louis Lisoni and Fred Breen. Wedding music was presented by Ray Negrette, organist and singer.

A reception was held at the church annex immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Betty Lisoni was at the guest book. Following the reception, a family buffet for 40 was held at the home of the bride's mother.

HONEYMOON
The newlyweds departed for a two-week honeymoon in Northern California. After tomorrow they will reside at 6920 1/2 S. La Cienega, Inglewood.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and attended Los Angeles Harbor College. She was graduated from Long Beach State College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in education and was affiliated with Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority while there.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Dorsey High School and works with the U.S. Forestry Service in its engineering division in Pasadena.

MRS. VANCE R. TRACY
... nee Alice Catherine Navarro
—Photo by Seeman

Parish Mothers Plan Ham Dinner For Youngsters

The seventh and eighth grade mothers of St. Catherine Laboure Parish will sponsor the first ham dinner of the school year Sunday, Sept. 16, in the parish hall at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., in Torrance from 3 to 7:30 p.m.

Chairman in charge of the dinner are Mmes. Tom Kearns, Harry Lockwood, Charles Glomboske, John Mulvihill, Irvin Gleason, Joseph Ramsauer, William Melvold, Charles Wells and George Maage.

The menu will consist of baked ham, au gratin potatoes, string beans, lettuce wedge salad, rolls and a cake dessert.

Prices are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. For families with three or more children there will be a family plan with a reduction in price.

Mrs. Roy Stinchcomb, home and school chairman, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend