Red Nichols, Five Pennies Featured At Marineland

Red Nichols is back again for the fifth time at Marine-land Restaurant in Palos Verdes, tooting his golden cornet and leading his famous "Porpoise Room," where ous Five Pennies in the this week's (Tuesday, Aug.
28) opening was a five-starred blockbuster!

Playing jazz reatments of the old Dixieland favorites, Nichols was welcomed by the loyal legions who applauded and cheered the horn that's been heard 'round the world. Many more jazz buffs, particularly fans of the musical idols of the 20's, already have started to make reservations in the "Porpoise Room."

The Rive Pennies, however, continue to win a whole new generation of patrons of the Nichols art with infectious sounds that swing from brassy cornet solos and down-beat jazz to a stream of Dixieland classics. One of the most enduring musical institutions in American jazz, Nichols performs at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes with his famous "Five Pennies." The king of the cornet and his group entertain nately except Mondays in the dining spot's "Porpoise Room."

Bringing to the South Bay one of the Southland's best known and versatile trios, Marty Harris and his musical group have opened at

The Pen and Quill hotelrestaurant in Manhattan Beach. They entertain for supper dancing, which is held nately except Mondays in the cocktail lounge.
