

ROASTS 'N' CARNIVAL: fun will highlight St. Catherine Laboure's 15th Anniversary Festival Sunday on parish grounds from 1 to 9 p.m. Whetting their appetites for the event are (l-r) Mrs. Gerald Sullivan, dinner chairman; Mrs. Thomas Kearns, dinner co-chairman; Eddie Mach, chef; and Mrs. Stanley Gallwas, council president. Church is located at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd. Dinner will be served from 1 to 7 p.m. —PRESS Photo

RIDES, BOOTHS 'N' BEEF REIGN AT PARISH EVENT

Carnival rides, booths and a roast beef dinner will be highlights of St. Catherine Laboure's 15th Anniversary Festival Sunday on parish grounds from 1 to 9 p.m.

The festival, held at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., marks the tenth anniversary of the opening of the parish school.

The roast beef dinner, to be served from 1 to 7 p.m., will be under the supervision of Mrs. Gerald Sullivan, dinner chairman. Assisting will be Mmes. Thomas Kearns and Roy Stinchcomb, co-chairmen. Presiding in the kitchen will be Chef Ed Mach. There will be a dinner donation of $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children.

RIDES, BOOTHS

Jack Held, general chairman of the carnival, and John Fitzpatrick, co-chairman, said there will be rides and booths for adults and children attending.

Rides and booths will be under the direction of parish members from the Holy Name Society, Women's Council, Gardena and Hawthorne Knights of Columbus and the Boy and Girl Scouts. A special attraction will be kiddie rides for the children, according to Mrs. Carl Lascheck, rides chairman.

FESTIVAL FUN

There will be doll, toy, fancy work, bowling game, and baseball game booths. Light refreshment booths will serve pizza, hot dogs, chips, popcorn, soft drinks, cake and pastry.

The cake booth, headed by Mrs. Wayne Alldredge and the Girl Scouts, will feature a cake-decorating contest for parish children. Ribbons will be awarded for the prettiest, neatest and most comical cakes in three age groups, under 10 years, 10 to 14 years and over 14 years.

Those working and serving as chairmen of the various booths are Leo McElroy, Ed Greteman, Larry Kuhn, Ed Price, William Fuller, Harold Erlandson, Joe Andrade, Charles Melough, Al McQuire, Thomas Harrigan, George Carter, Jesse Frey, Frank Galassi, Charles Wells, John Porter and Mmes. Stanley Gallwas, James Banks, Doris Peterson, Harold Higgins and John Sharron.

Others assisting with arrangements are Hugh Walsh, William De Prez, Jim Ericson, Don Moreau and Ray Shannon.

Proceeds from the festival will go to the church debt fund.

Court Women Plan Heat or Rain Event

Come heat, rain or fog, members of Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America, will take "Time Out for Fun" at the Adli Swim Club, 2444 Hawthorne Blvd., Torrance, Saturday at 9 p.m.

Members and guests are invited to the "Indoor-Outdoor" party for an evening of dancing, swimming, table tennis or cards. Mrs. Richard Wurm Jr., grand regent, said,

"An admission charge of $1.25 per person will include "man-sized" refreshments.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Stacy Rodman, chairman, and Mmes. Frank Ives, Sy Durham, Rhonald Metro, Wurm, Fred Gervig, Paul Hogan, Leroy Siddons, Laura Dupont and Charles Fischer.

Mrs. Rodman, FR 1-3782, or Mrs. Ives, FR 5-7734, may be called for reservations.

Ways and means functions enable the group to continue its philanthropic work, which includes support to Teresita Pines Summer Camp for girls, partial support of a Priest-Brother at Trinity Missions in Maryland, a contribution of tuition to a student at Bishop

Montgomery High School, hand-sewn articles for the gift shop at Veteran's Hospital at Long Beach, donations to the South Bay chapter of the City of Hope, the Archbishop's Christmas party, and the Catholic Information at the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona.

Skit Shows School Wear Do's, Dont's

Do's and don'ts in High School wear was the theme of North High School's first Girls' League assembly of the year.

A short skit entitled "Looking Back" illustrated these do's and don'ts.

Dave Smith and Judy Bradford headed a cast of 16 in the skit, in which a senior girl looked back at how things were when she was a freshman.

"This year we have an entire new Girl's League cabinet and many new ideas. We hope that this first assembly will show how we are trying to improve North High School's Girls League," Phyllis Jorgensen, Girls League president, said.

Dorothy Adleman is sponsor of the league.

Women

CAROLYN PERKIO, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Breakfast Events Startle Unsuspecting Women

The home of Mrs. James Clark 592 Via Almar, Palos Verdes Estates, was the scene of the annual Come-As-You-Are Breakfast of the Redondo Beach Dianas, Junior Women's Club of Marina District Oct. 6.

Early in the morning drivers Mmes. James Mitchell, Roger Cardemann, Eric Lindgren Vincent Rothemich, Anthony Credico and Christ Saunders picked up members as they were.

Many were wearing curlers; there were short, medium and long robes, slippers, go-aheads and bare feet.

Juice, home-made coffee cakes and coffee was served by Mmes. Mitchel, second vice president, and Ronald Clarke, ways and means chairman. Chairmen of the breakfast were Mmes. Robert Campbell and Saunders.

Proceeds from the breakfast will go to the club's philanthropies, Las Palmas School for Girls and the La Paz Sister City Project.

Mrs. Roger Gardemann, president, stated that among the 60 women attending were Mmes. Charles Hillinger, immediate past Marina District president and past Diana president; Merle Coffee, Keith Donelson and Milo Brunskill, past president; A. L. Hammond and Mrs. Winnifred Van Gilder, coordinators.

Nancy Kleinhammer ... "Viking" director

Mothers' Club Holds Coffee For Membership

Mothers of freshmen students of Occidental college were honored when Mrs. Hugh R. Percy, 1230 Acacia Ave., Torrance, entertained with a coffee on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Percy is the Torrance-Beach Cities area chairman for the college's women's club.

Mrs. William A. Thomson, president, briefed members on the scholarship fund raising activities of the club. They include the Thorne Hall Travel Series and the annual Holiday Boutique.

Mrs. W. W. Irwin, general area chairman, acquainted guests with the volunteer program; Mrs. King Robey, projects chairman, conducted an informal workshop for items that were featured in Boutique; and Mrs. Vernon L. Bollman, wife of the dean of the faculty, attended as a representative of the college.

Mothers of new Occidental college students are Mmes. W. F. King, B. F. Schier, Erling Olson, Amy H. Wilson, O. B. Willett, B. J. Connolly, L. E. Swartz, L. B. Sorensen, Kiyotsugu Tsuchiya, J. J. Lesson and Karl E. Hahn.

Torrance women with students attending Occidental College helping with the scholarship fund projects are Mmes. S. N. Wyoff, J. C. Martin and H. L. Colbert.

November Wedding Set For Couple

At a recent family dinner party, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ardell Teague, 17211 Eastwood Ave., Torrance, announced the engagement of their daughter, Nanette to Jean Pachadin of San Francisco.

Pachadin received his education in Lyon, France, and has been a resident of San Francisco for two-and-one-half years. He is the son of Mrs. Euphrasie Pachadin and the late Artin Pachadin of France.

Miss Teague is a 1959 graduate of North High School in Torrance. Her grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Peterson, is a long-time resident of Hawthorne.

The wedding will take place at the St. Catherine's Laboure Church, 3846 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance, Nov. 24 at 2 p.m.

The couple plans to live in San Francisco where Pachadin, the bridegroom-elect, is employed at the Fairmount Hotel.

PRIVATE BEACH

Want a private sun bathing beach? Then build a small, enclosed wood deck outside your bedroom window. Douglas fir makes an ideal wood deck.

Club Welcomes Nine Members

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will welcome nine new members at Monday's coffee-dessert meeting at the American Loan and Savings Company in Redondo Beach.

New members will be introduced by Mrs. Glenn V. Smith of Torrance, president, after which each will be given a lovely carnation corsage by membership chairman Mrs. Ronald Eisman of Torrance.

New members are Mmes. Russell Cameron, Bernard Coen, Alfred Cowgill, Samuel Fillon, Ziggy Gottlieb, Bing Harris, Cleve Kimmel, Octavio Martinez and Robert Minot.

CLUB SIZE

With the addition of the new members, the club membership will total 71 mothers of twins. Among these, there are two mothers with double sets of twins and two mothers boasting sets of triplets.

New members will participate in the Exchange Table, a special club feature whereby twins' clothing, toys and equipment are exchanged at meetings among the members for nominal prices.

GOURMET TREAT

As a gourmet treat of the October coffee-dessert gathering, Mrs. Richard Cassell of Redondo Beach, social chairman, has asked members to bring two dozen of their favorite recipe cookies. At the meeting's conclusion each member will choose one dozen of the assorted cookies remaining to bring home to her twins and family.

Philanthropy chairmen Mrs. Eric Jones of Redondo Beach and Mrs. John Adams of San Pedro reported that last week the club presented to its adopted family a half month's supply of grocery staples and baby food, all contributed by the individual club members.

OFF-BROADWAY

Nov. 2, club members and guests will attend the Off-Broadway Theatre in Long Beach to see Arthur Laurents play "Invitation to a March." This comedy hit was well received by the Broadway drama critics and club members anticipated a delightful evening at the theatre. Mrs. Glenn V. Smith, president, said,

For club membership information, interested mothers of twins or triplets in the area may telephone Mrs. Eisman.

SOMEBODY'S GOIN' IN the pool Saturday at 9 p.m. when Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America, take "Time Out for Fun," at the Adli Swim Club. Participating, come rain or shine, are hostesses

Mmes. Sy Durham, in pool; James Davis, almost in pool; and Paul Hogan, not planning to go in pool. Featured at the "Indoor-Outdoor" party will be dancing, swimming, table tennis and cards. —PRESS Photo