

Thanksgiving Day 1962

'TREAT DAY'

Dirt—Clean earth—is really a food. At least, the bears at Griffith Park Zoo consider it "treat day" when their keeper gives them a shovelful of leaf mold and loam.

COLLEGE YEARS

One out of every four adults in the Los Angeles Metropolitan area over 25 years of age has completed one or more years of college, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce reported.

Buddhist Women To Bowl

Gardena Buddhist Junior Matrons will participate in a YABA - Junior Matron bowling get-together at 1 p.m. Sunday at the Gardena Bowl, according to Mrs. Miyo Tsukamoto, social chairman.

Members, who recently voted to donate $10 to the Christmas Cheer project have been asked to bring canned goods, toys and clothing to the next meeting, so that they may be turned over to the Nisei VFW for distribution to needy families in the Gardena area during Christmas.

Mrs. Hazel Imamura was appointed chairman of the rag drive, proceeds of which will go towards furnishing the new church building. Mrs. Imamura asked that all members save their discarded cotton articles.

This month's combined religious service will be at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 29, at 7:30 p.m.

Hostesses for the October meeting were Group 4, with Mrs. Yuri Nishisaka, group leader. Mrs. Yoshiko Miwa is president.

FREE CLASSIFIED AD: Wilfred J. Keal, 17203 Wilton Pl., Torrance.

GEORGE GOBEL takes musket in hand to stalk a turkey for the traditional Thanksgiving Day dinner, but the next day he trades in his Pilgrim outfit for a dinner jacket when he opens at the Ambassador Hotel's Coconut Grove for a two week starring engagement, his first Los Angeles appearance in almost five years.

IN THE BAG with mailing of Christmas Seal letters to 1,275,000 families in Los Angeles County, Jay (Dennis the Menace) North and television and motion picture actress Beverly Garland, ponder over the huge volume of mail. The 56th annual campaign of the Tuberculosis and Health Association is now under way. Jay serves as honorary youth chairman while Miss Garland is honorary women's chairman for this year's Christmas Seal campaign.

New Uses For Paper Napkins

Delight your family and guests with napkins. You can think of many different settings yourself — but here are a few ideas to get you started:

—Fold napkins like peaked hats and let them stand at attention before each plate.

—Arrange them in peaks in each guest's water glass. —Take large napkins, like Kleenex table napkins, and add a touch of your own. For example, you might make an edging of heavy paper lace, contrasting fringe

CLUB NEWS

Literature group of Torrance Woman's Club will meet at 10 a.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Donald T. LeGalley, 231 Camino de las Colinas.

DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. Ruth Sanderson of Alhambra was the Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Nelson of 1743 Arlington Ave.

or a colorful fruit or lower cut from a malazine. —Let napkins serve as place cards. Put each guest's initials on his napkin with plastic tape.

Folk Singer To Entertain Hadassah

South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will hold a paid-up membership party at 1 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 27 at the home of Mrs. Ernest Tarr, Palos Verdes Estates, vice president of membership.

Chapter members whose current dues have been paid will be guests of honor.

The group will be entertained by Stella Cotler, singer of folk songs who accompanies herself on the accordion.

Mrs. Max Stern, president, is assisting Mrs. Tarr in planning the afternoon. Other committee members include: Mmes. Jack Mishlove, Randolph Stern, Edward Lookman and Robert Breakstone.

Membership dues will be accepted at the door.

BUSY, BUSY, BUSY

The building and repair man at Griffith Park Zoo never runs out of work. The animals see to that. He has recently built a bigger and better hayrack for the deer, antelope and mouflon. These animals seem to enjoy smashing up ordinary hayracks.
