

READING STORY written by Rick Thorenson, senior at South High School, is Mrs. Barbara Hawkins, English department chairman. Creative writing class is only one of its kind in Torrance. Students write stories, plays and poetry. Material has been published in school annual and two national magazines. —PRESS photo by Bill Shell

To Teaching

COMPARING BOOKS used in traditional system of teaching English and at South High School are (l-r) Kathy Wentworth and Stephanie Palmquist, seniors. Kathy holds the four books ordinarily used to teach four years of high school English, while Stephanie points out that it takes an entire table to hold the 40 books required of English students at South High School. —PRESS photo by Bill Shell

Area Man Named to Bank Post

Kenneth L. Allen, a resident of Torrance, has been promoted to assistant cashier in the commercial loan department of Union Bank, Harry J. Volk, president, has announced.

A 1955 graduate of Loyola University with a bachelor's degree in finance, Allen joined Union Bank after two years of U.S. Air Force duty. He was assigned to the loan analysis department, became a loan review analyst and then moved to the commercial loan department in August.

Allen is a member of the Bank Credit Men's Association and the Loyola University Alumni Association, and formerly was active in Toastmasters International. He is a captain in the Air Force Reserves.

Married and the father of Mary Therese, 2, and Patrick Joseph, 6 months, Allen lives at 21601 Howard Ave.

ARTHRITIS FACTS

If you suffer with arthritis — more than 700,000 residents of Southern California do — then you should learn all the facts about care, treatment and the hopes for an eventual cure. For free information write to the Wilshire Blvd., Beverly Hills, or call Oleander 8-7124.

DEVELOPMENT

Total underground development at International Nickel's operating mines in Ontario and Manitoba reached 507 miles in early 1962 — equal to the distance by road between Toronto, Ontario, and Washington, D.C.

BENCH-RAILINGS

When you design a wood deck, add built-in benches to serve as the railing. Slant the bench back slightly and add tie-on cushions for real lounging comfort. Use Douglas fir lumber for benches as well as deck.

For Cute Closets

With a little time and imagination, your closets can be beautiful. Here are some ideas to make your closets brighter and more practical.

Cover sturdy gift boxes and hat boxes with red and white checked Marvalon adhesive coverings. Make new ties out of colorful ribbons and string to hold the boxes closed.

Using the same idea, cover shoe boxes. Label each box "red flats," "Patent pumps," etc. so you don't have to scramble through the stack each time. Type or print a narrow label and cover it with cellophane tape.

Use Torrance Press Classified ads for quick results. Phone DA 5-1515.
