

VACATIONING IN THE BAHAMAS are Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Batte of 4820 Pacific Coast Hwy., Torrance, who are pictured relaxing in the sub-tropical gardens of the Emerald Beach Hotel, Nassau.

—Bahamas News Bureau Photo by Roland Rose

Women Voters to Explore Stands on State Issues

"Where We Stand" will be the topic discussed by the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance at a series of unit meetings next week.

Up-to-date information will be provided on issues on the California State League program on which the league has taken a stand.

Included in the areas of study will be information on the new long range plan for mental health services in California, the present status of the one-and-three-quarter billion dollar California water plan, and public education.

Research committee members include: Mmes. Warren Shalies, chairman, Phillip Bader and Austin Woodward.

Meetings will take place as follows: 9:45 a.m. Monday at 416 Via Linda Vista; 7:45 p.m. Monday at 2911 W. 168th St.; 7:45 p.m. Tuesday at 20545 Vaccaro; 9:45 a.m. Wednesday at 2926 Sonoma St.; and 7:45 p.m. Thursday at 5313 Highgrove St.

Hostesses will be: Mmes. Frank Adair, Burton Peters, James Laird, Buerton E. Belzer and Lelan Livingston.

Guitarist To Entertain Sisterhood

Sisterhood of Congregation Ner Tamid will meet at 8:15 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Barbara Farberow, 6358 Villa Rosa Dr., Palos Verdes Estates.

Mike Bienenfeld, guitarist and folk singer, who made sound recordings for the film "The Ten Commandments," will present a medley of Chanukah songs.

Mr. Bienenfeld gathered a repertoire of Israeli folk songs during a 1950 visit to Israel.

Refreshments will be served following the program. Persons desiring additional information are asked to call Mrs. Inga Cherman, program chairman, at DA 6-9192.

Clubwomen To Tour Rancho

Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs will make its annual visit to Rancho Los Amegas tomorrow.

Tours of the Hondo facility begin at 10 a.m. Members have been asked to bring lunch.

Toilet articles will be given to the residents by members.

Financial contributions are being accepted on behalf of the inmates by Mrs. Paul Schaupp, financial secretary.

Donations will be used to purchase musical instruments.

Women

RONNIE SAUNDERS, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Clubwomen to Boost Safe Streetlighting

"Low Observance, Crime Prevention and Safety" will be the topic of a special workshop to be conducted by the California Federation of Women's Club from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday at the Inglewood Women's Club, 325 N. Hillcrest Blvd., Inglewood, according to Mrs. Frederic W. Spencer of North Hollywood, president.

Miss Mary Katherine Barnes, of Washington, D.C., general federation chairman of law observance and crime prevention, will be the special speaker.

Chairman of the federation's street and safety lighting contest, Miss Barnes will emphasize how California clubwomen can cooperate with local officials and actively participate in an outdoor protective lighting program.

Special guests invited to attend the workshop are: Dr. C. Robert Guthrie, director of Delinquency Control Institute, USC; Mrs. Beth Bennett, assistant director, Department Motor Vehicles, Sacramento; Judge Charles Hughes, Municipal Court of Los Angeles; Lt. O. V. Mendes, California Highway Patrol; Capt. Colbert Fontaine, Juvenile Bureau, L. A. County Sheriff's Office; Lt. Tom King, Traffic Division, Los Angeles Police Dept.; Robert Chaney, Southern California Automobile Club; Capt. Jack Collins, Juvenile Bureau, Los Angeles Police Dept.; Al Sanders, director of Delinquency Prevention Office, City of Los Angeles; Robert Goes, chairman, Youth Opportunity, Los Angeles; Karl Holton, director of Probation Department, City of Los Angeles; Joe Kaplan, Frank Crey, Paul Lippold and Ben Bautier, members of Los Angeles Chapter, National Safety Council; and Oscar Meissner, director of Street

Lighting, City of Los Angeles.

Representative of electric companies, safety organizations, judges, police and city government officials from communities in Los Angeles County will also attend.

State chairmen and district chairmen and officers of education, health and welfare, legislation, narcotics and safety will attend.

Local clubs have been invited to participate in the GFWC-Reader's Digest Outdoor Protective Lighting Program in which the GFWC is cooperating with the Street and Highway Safety Lighting Bureau and Floodlighting Institute.

Awards will be made at the 1963 GFWC convention in Milwaukee in four categories: communities with a population less than 1,000; communities with 1,000 to 10,000; communities with 10,000 to 50,000 and communities with 50,000 and over.

MISS ANNE LOUISE ROHL ... sets June wedding date

December Meet Set by Sorority

XI Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority will hold its December meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 12, at the Melrose Nursery School, 8306 Melrose Ave., Los Angeles.

Mrs. Charles Lockwood, president, will preside. Mrs. Rhea Joy Luckey, city council representative, will report on the Christmas meeting and party, and Miss Theo Martin will discuss needy families that the chapter will supply with food, clothing, and toys for the holiday season.

A report on India and Pakistan will be given by Miss Eleanor Morales, Miss Theo Martin will discuss Iran and Iraq.

Discussion for the spotlight review will be conducted by Miss Nell Romans, program chairman.

Following the meeting, a birthday cake will be served by Miss Bea Raveling and Mrs. Doris Porter.

Members honored with December birthdays will be Miss Ruth Phelps, Mrs. Rhea Joy Luckey, and Mrs. Cleo Classic.

Attending from this area will be Miss Martha Oehlerking and Mrs. Luckey of Inglewood, Mrs. Lockwood of Torrance, Mrs. Classic of Hawthorne, and Miss Ruth Phelps and Mrs. Porter from Westchester.

Wedding Plans Told at Party

Plans for the forthcoming marriage of Miss Anne Louise Rohl to Thomas L. Crawshaw were revealed by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rohl of Harbor City, at a Thanksgiving Day engagement party.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mrs. George Nelson of Compton and the late Monroe Crawshaw.

A graduate of Narbonne High School, the bride is currently attending Harbor College. She is a member of Lomita Job's Daughters, Bethel 137.

Her fiancé is presently employed at Minneapolis-Honeywell in Gardena and attending Compton College.

The wedding is scheduled for June 29, 1963.

COMPLETING ARRANGEMENTS for the holiday bazaar of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church to be held from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday are (l-r)

Mmes. Harlon McCool, spiritual life secretary; Roy Goree, bazaar chairman, and Lois Balsley, vice-president. Luncheon and dinner will be served. —PRESS photo

Old Fashioned Christmas To Be Theme of Bazaar

"Ye Old Fashioned Christmas" will be the theme of the annual Christmas bazaar of the Womens Society of Christian Service of the Torrance First Methodist Church.

The bazaar will take place from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday at the church, 1551 El Prado.

Booths offering wares to holiday shoppers will include: old country store, bakery shop, parcel post booth, fish pond, and Christmas shoppe. Hand made items will be offered and a cake contest featured.

For shoppers in need of a coffee break, a coffee shoppe will be provided.

Luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. by members of the Priscilla Circle. Homemade soup, sandwiches and pie will be offered.

Suzanna Circle will serve turkey dinner from 5 to 7 p.m.

TO HONOR CHAIM WEIZMAN

Congregation Ner Tamid, South Bay's Conservative synagogue, will hold its regular Sabbath-evening services at 8:30 p.m. Friday at the Redondo Beach Women's Club, 400 South Broadway, Redondo Beach.

Rabbi Bernard Wechsberg's sermon will be entitled: "Portrait of a Man" in memory of Chaim Weizmann on the tenth anniversary of his death.

SENDING GIFTS to Navajo Indians at the Good News Mission Station in Arizona are members of Yukon Elementary School PTA. Presents are donated by Yukon students in place of gift exchange at school. The project is in its fourth year. Pictured are (l-r) Mmes. David Van Akon, Hugh Hilger, welfare chairman, Richard March and John Mathews, president.

—PRESS photo

MAKING DECORATIONS for the Holly Ball, annual Christmas dance of the Redondo Beach Dianas, are (l-r) Mmes. Paul Harris, provisional; Charles Hillinger, chairman; Jules Rensen, provisional; and Arthur Colen, arts and crafts chairman. The dance will take place at 9 p.m. Friday in the Squire Room of the Cockatoo Inn, Inglewood. Music will be provided by the Down Beats. Tickets are $4 per couple. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Ronald Clarke, FR 7-5173. —PRESS photo