Holiday Meeting Slated

Womens Society of Christian Service of the Torrance First Methodist Church will meet in the Friendship Room of the church at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Worship will be led by Mrs. McMullen. A Christmas program, "Hear The Angels Sing," will be presented by Lois Balysley in the church sanctuary. Members are asked to bring white gifts of pinto beans to the sanctuary.

Following the program, Christmas luncheon will be served by Naomi Circle.

Mrs. Robert Scarborough, Naomi chairman, is taking luncheon reservations.

'Fantasy in Pink' Set by Las Vecinas

A "Fantasy in Pink" will set the mood of holiday festivities as members of Las Vecinas prepare for their annual Christmas dinner dance to be held at 9 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 22 at the Palos Verdes Country Club.

The social affair will serve as a climax to the club's yuletide philanthropic activities, according to Mrs. Carl Benson, chairman of the event.

Pink net trees gaily accented with pink ornaments will be used as table decor with touches of silver and gold to compliment the original design decorations.

Assisting in decorative creations are: Mmes. Vincent J. Austin and Quinton Johnson.

Also serving on the decorations committee are Mmes. Edward S. Cleveland and William Franklin. Mrs. William F. Clark is in charge of reservations and invitations will be handled by Mrs. Edward Willis.

Music for dining and dancing will be furnished by the Les Tronier orchestra. Seventy-five couples are expected to attend.

Money-Tree Proceeds to Go to CARE

Torrance Woman's Club will hold its potluck luncheon and annual Christmas Party Tuesday at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Andrew Acampora, program chairman, will lead the group in singing of Christmas Carols accompanied at the piano by Mrs. James Burchett.

An exchange of gifts will be featured.

Each member will pin a dollar bill on a money-tree to go to the GFWC-CARE program for 1962-1964.

Money-tree proceeds will provide items as teacher training kits, "Tin Trunk" libraries, literacy kits, and deck and chair packages to be used in conjunction with existing educational programs.

The program will operate in Costa Rica, Guatemala, Hong Kong, India, Iran Mexico, Jakistan and Turkey.

Torrance Woman's Club is affiliated with Marina District 18 California Federation of Woman's Clubs.

FINISHING TOUCHES are put on pink Christmas trees by members of Las Vecinas for the club's "Fantasy in Pink" dinner dance. The holiday event will be at 9 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 22 at the Palos Verdes Country Club. Pictured are (l-r) Mmes. Frank Buxton, Peter Fillisti and Edwin Bowen.

International Tree to Set Tone at Party

Xi Gamma Chapter members of Beta Sigma Phi sorority and their husbands will gather for dinner Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Louis Below, 2414 W. 115th Pl., Inglewood.

Mrs. Ruth Phelps will co-hostess the party. Opening of gifts and revelation of secret sisters will follow dinner.

An international candy Christmas tree will bear names of secret sisters for the coming year. The tree will be decorated by Mrs. Charles Lockwood of Torrance, president.

Women's Council Sets Yule Party

Holiday felicitations will ring out in a traditional Christmas setting at the St. Catherine Labourer Women's Council annual holiday party at 8 p.m. Thursday, in the parish hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd.

Adding to the evening's atmosphere will be the table and hall decorations, designed and fashioned by Mrs. Dale Sutton and Mrs. Harold Cragin, which will carry out the color scheme of gold, white and green.

Instead of exchanging gifts among the women, members will each bring a wrapped present for the home missions.

According to Mrs. Gerald Sullivan, gift chairman, approximately 300 articles of toys and clothing will supplement money donations to be sent to the Glenmary Missionary Sisters in Kentucky.

Entertainment will include humorous sequences as well as a serious dramatization of the first Christmas Creche, according to Mrs. George Nuland, entertainment chairman.

Highlighting the program will be the St. Catherine Labourer 40 voice choir, under the direction of Mrs. Walter Hanf. Included in the songs of Christmas will be the first American carol with Indian interpretation of the Nativity.

Mrs. Ernest Simon and Mrs. James White, general chairmen of the party, will be assisted by: Mmes. Henry Morgan, refreshments, Peter Lavelle, kitchen, Reggie Regalado, hostesses and William Johnston, servers.
