Footlight Theater Opens on Friday with 'All My Sons'

By KAREN KRAEGL. Footlight Theatre of Torrance, 3331 Torrance Blvd., is opening the 1963 season with Arthur Miller's drama, "All My Sons," directed by Herman Goodman.

The play opens Feb. 1 and runs Fridays and Saturdays for three weekends, closing Feb. 16. Curtain rises at 8:30 p.m., and tickets must be picked up by 8:15. The theatre is sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

In the story, two partners, Joe Keller and George Deever, have a machine shop which makes defective airplane parts, causing the death of many men.

As a result, Deever is imprisoned, but Keller goes free.

The return of Deever's son to find his father in prison dominates the action of this powerful drama.

The cast is as follows: Joe Keller is played by Louis Verne, a familiar figure at Footlight, and well-remembered as one of the Russian diplomats in "Ninotchka."

Kate Keller, who will not believe her missing son is dead, is played by Evelyn Jones, remembered for her role as the grief-stricken Mrs. Diagle in the "Bad Seed."

Chris Keller, the son, is played by Glenn Hoefner, well-known in South Bay Theatre groups having just completed a difficult portrayal in "An American Dream."

The Deever family includes Lanna Hicks, as Ann. It is Lanna's first portrayal in this community. As the girl in love with Chris Keller, her portrayal is excellent. Bud Greene, as George, is also a newcomer.

Others deserving mention for their fine performance in this dynamic drama are Phyllis Foss, as Sue Bayliss—new to Footlight, but not to South Bay. Phyllis plays a different type of character than usual in "All My Sons."

Dale Love, remembered by the children as Farmer Foss, or to the proposed grades to which the work is to be done, or to any or all of the foregoing may appear before the Board and show cause why the proposed work or improvement should not be carried out in accordance with this Resolution.

That the County Engineer shall cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of the contemplated work or improvement and along all open streets within the district liable to be assessed, notices of the adoption of this Resolution in the manner and in the form required by law.

The Clerk of the Board shall certify to the adoption of this Resolution and shall cause the same to be published for two days in the Torrance Press, a newspaper published and circulated in the County of Los Angeles, which is hereby designated for that purpose by the Board.

Hoedown in "The Pied Piper," this time plays Dr. Jim Bayliss. Another newcomer is Jim O'Donnell, as Frank Luby.

Connie Hauser as Lydia Luby is again doing a wonderful job. She is back with as much wit and humor as she displayed in "The Bad Seed."

Herman Goodman, a teacher in the Torrance schools, has directed many plays for Footlight Theatre. He again has chosen an excellent cast. As is the custom, "All My Sons," will be performed in theatre in the round, where the audience surrounds the players.

For group rates and discounts, call DA 9-5338 for reservations, which must be made because of a limited seating capacity.

'Go-Round' Goes into Last Nights

By BETTY SCHROEDER. "The Marriage Go-Round," by Leslie Stevens, now showing its final weekend at Chapel Theatre, Torrance, has had record attendance for every performance.

This two-act comedy is so stimulating and invigorating that audiences seem reluctant to have the play end, even though they laugh for two hours at the antics of the four-member cast.

The fast-moving comedy engages many witty and amusing remarks, plus the "lectures" given by Prof. Paul Deville, played by Dick Miller, of Miraleste, and his wife Content, dean of women played by Rosemary Buell, of Palos Verdes.

Alma Nelson, of Palos Verdes, portrays the role of Katrin, the Swedish blonde romantic intruder into the lives of the happily married couple of 25 years, delightfully trying to fulfill her plan to entrap the professor.

Jarl Victor, of Palos Verdes, deserves plaudits for direction of entertaining comedy, and for the coordination of players. To quote a patron of Chapel Theatre: "these may be non-professional actors, but they are far from being amateurs."

Reservations for the remaining two performances of "The Marriage Go-Round" to be held Friday and Saturday, Jan. 25 and 26 at Chapel Theatre, 4166 Pacific Coast Highway, Torrance, behind Smith Bros. Fish Shanty restaurant, may be made by phoning the box office, FR 2-9636. Admission prices are $1.50 Friday, $1.75 Saturday. Curtain time 8:30 p.m. The production is limited to adults.
