Margaret Harbourn Weds Allie Harrison

The marriage of Miss Margaret Ann Harbourn to Allie Maillon Harrison took place at the First Baptist Church of Lomita Friday evening, Jan. 18.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Harbourn of 2474 237th Pl., Torrance and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allie Harrison of 2015

255th Pl., Lomita.

Rev. J. W. Hardin officiated at the 8 p.m. double-ring candlelight ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a waltz length gown of white satin with chantilly lace fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves which terminated in points. A crown of pearls held the bride's veil.

A diamond pendant necklace, gift of the bridegroom, was the only ornament worn by the bride.

Mrs. Jerry Williams was matron of honor for her sister. Wearing a red satin dress, shoes, and headpiece, she carried a variegated carnation corsage.

The bridal bouquet was of stephanotis and white orchid.

Mrs. Harbourn was dressed in a blue wool sheath with matching hat, and the mother of the bridegroom wore an aqua brocade sheath dress with black accessories.

The mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom both had white orchid corsages.

Miss Kaye Dirksen, bridesmaid, was dressed in a costume matching that of the matron of honor.

William Johnson was best man for his cousin. Ushers were John Harbourn, brother of the bridegroom, Gary Lambrigger and Jerry H. Williams.

"Because" and "Wedding Prayer" were sung by Mrs. Lyn Scarborough, sister of the bridegroom. Organist was Mrs. Martha Fluke.

A reception took place at the church following the ceremony. Miss Alice Christian presided at the guest book. Assisting were Mmes. William Braughton, Christian Schroder, Oscar Nichols, Dick Wallner and William Szieff.

Employed as a typist by the Credit Bureau of South

Bay District in Torrance, the bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School. The bridegroom, who is employed as a clerk by the U.S. Post Office in Torrance, is an evening student at Harbor College.

Following a brief honeymoon, the couple are at home at 2015 259th Pl., Lomita.

Grover-Woods Vows Exchanged

Miss Marsha Lynn Grover, daughter of Mrs. Freda Grover of 151 Camino de las Colinas, became the bride of Donald Keith Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Woods of 16812 Elgar Ave., in a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Marvin Rych at 1 p.m. yesterday in the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, Redondo Beach.

The ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with floral sprays of pom-poms, gladiolus, and chrysanthemums. One hundred-fifty guests were in attendance.

Escorted by her brother, Ronald Groves, the bride wore a ballerina gown of peau de soie fashioned with an appliqued fitted bodice and bouffant skirt with chantilly lace side panels. Her shoulder-length silk illusion veil cascaded from a princess crown of pearls.

The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with a detachable orchid corsage centerpiece.

Maid of honor was Miss Carolyn Lee Weir who was dressed in a pink organza ballerina gown with a full skirt and portrait collar. She carried a bouquet of pink miniature roses and stephanotis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Grover selected a cream-colored knit sheath accented with silver accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose a grey knit suit with white accessories.

Best man was Richard Hedgecock. Attendants included Frank Van Patten, Kit Banham, Theodore Bluechel and Douglas Dolan.

Organist was Mrs. Patricia Fleener. Presiding at the guest book at a church reception following the wedding ceremony was Mrs. Dorothy Bonhom.

The couple will be at home in Torrance Feb. 8 after a honeymoon trip to Carmel, Lake Tahoe and San Francisco.

The bride, who is employed as dental assistant to a Manhattan Beach dentist, is a 1959 graduate of North High School and a 1962 graduate of El Camino College.

The bridegroom, who also graduated from North High School in 1959 and attended El Camino College, is employed by Foods Company in Torrance.
