

FRANK TALK

by Marion Frank

Lovely Jean Fenn, whose magnificent soprano voice matches her beauty, joins the Liberace show Monday night, August 19 at Melodyland Theatre in Anaheim. If you will recall, she made her professional debut with the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera in a bit part in "Rose Marie." Two seasons later she was their leading lady in "Song of Norway," and starred as Kate in "Kiss me Kate." An interesting note is that Jean, though she appeared in the San Francisco Opera and New York Center, also successfully switched at one time to engagements in Las Vegas, and even starred in the "Follies Bergere."

Maybe you knew: the beauty pageant and celebrity nite at Jack Rogers' Jumping Jack on LIVE TV, Channel 11, was rescheduled for Sunday August 18, from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., or come in person and enjoy the fun!

Slips that "passed in the PRESS" in Wednesday's paper: It is the Steve Sacca Trio at Caesars (not Sacco) and the HI-HATS at Bub Thomas' Roaring 20's (not Bob Thomas and the HI-MATS) now appearing.

The Gala Opening nites, Wednesday and Thursday in the newly decorated Halfway House was a "rousing" success, we found as my Marg and I finally maneuvered to beautiful new (grand) piano bar, to see and hear Phyllis Hart, back from a rest, sounding even better than before. Danny, the singing bartender as usual, charmed the packed house with his fans favorites: Chicago, San Francisco, Mack the Knife and his famous "fly" song. Earl Gately, too with his adept bass playing, also vocalized in his inimitable style. The hosts, the Popejays were on hand busy greeting and seating the happy and hungry throng.

Funny thing happened on the way to the office Thursday at Caesars. While having coffee with Warren Snyder, a piano was delivered, and apparently no place to put it so, (you guessed it) he had it put in his own room.

Marineland, famed for Bubbles, its performing whale, now has a baby walrus and a porpoise that does an act of rescuing a drowning diver. Bubbles and the porpoise wear hats, catch balls and blow horns, but also "sing" while a seal lion delivers a "political speech," delivers a whaaat?

SYLVIA MORA (like to see more of Mora) direct from an 8-week engagement at the Dunes at Vegas is coming to Caesars on August 12, and will remain till the 31st. How about a photo? The Indigos will continue to entertain every Sunday.

"Best Male Singer of the Year"

Singer JOHNNY PROPHET, popular recording and TV star, who appears in the beautiful "Trojan Lounge" of the Odyssey in Anaheim, has won new acclaim by being awarded the disc jockeys "Best Male Singer of the Year" award for 1963 at a special banquet at the Kings Four in hand restaurant in Beverly Hills recently. Peggy Lee won the honor of best female singer award.

Prophet has been featured on the Art Linkletter and Steve Allen shows and is recording albums with Frank Sinatra, Deane Martin, Keeley Smith and Dinah Shore. Johnny is recording a new album series called, "Frank Sinatra Presents" at Reprise Records.

For information concerning these pages on Wednesdays and Fridays please contact Marion Frank at DA 5-1515. Deadline for Wednesday paper is Monday noon, Friday's paper, Thursday noon.

BELAFONTE introduces his new singing find, Joan Toliver, at the Greek Theatre. HARRY BELAFONTE AND COMPANY, which runs for 24 performances August 12th through September 7th, will be Miss Toliver's first introduction to a theatre audience, bringing a new vitality to the art of folk singing.

THE STAR of the 488 Keys Cocktail Lounge, Madeline Willey, is playing the fabulous instrument which has made both famous. Madeline fascinates audiences with the scores of sound effects created (the chimes shown is just one) on the instrument, which has five keyboards. There is only one organ like this in the world, created by Sam Willey, electronics engineer, and there is only one Madeline Willey, who draws crowds nightly, musicians and many singers from near and far, to hear her play.
