

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

SEPTEMBER 30, 1964

B-1

JOINT CHARITY ROUNDUP . . . They have joined forces to stage a gala "Dudes and Dolls" charity roundup with proceeds going to their youth funds, which benefit the youth of the South Bay area. The two clubs, Torrance Junior Woman's club and the Civitans, have planned casino-type games, dancing to the Mello Tones, a chuckwagon buffet, door prizes and costume prizes for this event to be held Friday evening, Oct. 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the Retail Clerk's Hall,

25049 Belle Porte, Harbor City. Grand prize will be three days and two nights at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas. Ready for this fun-for-charity evening are from left, Dr. A. F. Kline, Civitan past president, Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. David Wade, Junior vice president and event chairman and Ted Walker, Civitan Board member. Tickets may be secured at the door or by calling Dick Ciciotti. (Press-Herald Photo)

CAROL WEBBER
... Fall Bride-elect

Couple Set Oct. 10 for Nuptial Day

A champagne supper party began the pre-nuptial activities for Miss Carol Ann Webber, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Max E. Webber of Palos Verdes Estates.

Family friends were supper guests at a personal shower hosted by Mrs. James M. Hall of Rolling Hills on Friday, Sept. 25.

A miscellaneous shower will follow on Saturday, Oct. 3 at the home of Miss Patricia Elder of Palos Verdes Estates.

Miss Webber will be married to Kenneth Lloyd Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Adams of Granada Hills, at a garden ceremony at the home of her parents on Saturday, Oct. 10.

Both are students at San Fernando Valley State College where Miss Webber is majoring in anthropology and Mr. Adams, in physics.

EXTENDING HOSPITALITY . . . Torrance Woman's club honored prospective members at a tea Wednesday afternoon at their clubhouse. Greeting and serving the guests were from left, Mmes. Andrew Acampora, president, Ruth Richards, Victor Benstead, Wesley Rasmussen, tea chairman, and J. G. Louvier, at the tea service. (Press-Herald Photo)

Bridge Club Series On

First round of the Hollywood Riviera Bridge Club found the four top couples to be Lyle and Jeanette Christenson with plus 2410, second, Robert and Beverly Wonderlick with plus 2230, third, John and Kitty Owen with plus 2170 and fourth, Wayne and Vivian Curry with plus 1418 points.

The second round of play will be Oct. 9 at 8 p.m. in one of eight homes of 32 couples. Anyone interested in being a substitute and later being a member call Maj. William Parker. This is for any couple living in the Hollywood Riviera.

Club Hostess

Gathering after a summer recess, Mrs. Frank Barnes was hostess to members of her bridge club last Wednesday evening at her home on Susanna Ave.

A dessert was served followed by bridge games. High score was held by Mrs. William Steinberg with Mrs. Chalmers Strayer, second. Enjoying the evening with the hostess and prize winners were Mmes. Eugene Lenk, George Booth, Jack Rice, Jack Dean and William Starr.

Mrs. George Booth will be the club's next hostess.

Pi Beta Alums

Meet Tuesday
South Bay Pi Beta Phi Alumni will meet Tuesday evening, Oct. 6, at the home of Mrs. Ronald Terry, 3307 Raintree, Torrance, at 7:45 p.m.

The group will plan their sale to benefit the settlement school. The event is slated for Oct. 20.

Any Pi Beta Phi Alumni in the South Bay wishing to attend is asked to call Mrs. Ronald Terry or Mrs. Peter Walker.

Beginners Class In Square Dance

Belles and Bouys Square Dance Club is sponsoring an adult beginners class in square dancing beginning Oct. 6 at the YWCA building, 437 9th St., San Pedro. Classes are held from 7:30 until 10:30 p.m. with Bill Ball instructing. There will also be a one-half hour of workshop for graduate dancers.

Married 43 Years

Celebrating their 43rd wedding anniversary with dinner at Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance recently were Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel T. Goetz.

Woman's Club Event

Prospective Members Honored at Club Tea

Thirteen prospective members were honored guests at a lovely tea given by the Torrance Woman's Club last Wednesday at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Mrs. W. W. Rasmussen, second vice-president in charge of membership, introduced the guests Mmes. H. T. Olson, Kenneth McVey, William Edwards, N. Campbell, J. R. Egan, T. C. Rupert, E. J. Ferraro, W. Buth, Albert Isen, Olive C. Lucke, Margery Hartnett, Adele Burchfield, and Miss Sally Carpenter.

Also presented to the membership were the club's two newest members Mmes. Clayton Lilley and Jack Dean.

Mrs. Hugh Cahill, program chairman, announced that a musical program from El Camino College will open the official club year on Wednesday, Oct. 7. On Oct. 21, Lester Foster, principal of the Columbia School, will be the guest speaker.

John Morley, noted columnist and world traveler, will give a lecture on Dec. 2. A field trip to Huntington Library has been planned for Jan. 20, and "Tips on Grooming" has been scheduled for May 19.

Mrs. Richard Dorothy, ways and means chairman, announced that a fashion show luncheon will be held at the Smith Bros. Indian Village on Nov. 4. A Christmas bazaar will be held in December and a "Headdress Fantasy" luncheon is slated on May 5.

The net proceeds from all ways and means projects go into the club's philanthropy and scholarship fund.

Schwenks at Home In Yucca Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Schwenk and sons, Lee, Lew and Lon, recently moved from their Cranbrook Ave. home in Torrance to Yucca Valley. Mr. Schwenk, who was associated with the Ken Miller Realty here, is now employed by the Glen Realty in Yucca Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Schwenk are both natives of Torrance. Their new address is 7820 Valley Vista, Yucca Valley.

Farewell for Mrs. F. Neff

Mrs. Frank Neff, who with her family is moving to The Dalles, Oregon, where Mr. Neff was recently transferred by the Harvey Aluminum Co., was guest of honor at a farewell party given by her bridge club Thursday evening.

The party was held at the home of Mrs. William Gardner, who served a dessert followed by bridge games. High score was held by Mrs. J. G. Louvier and second by Mrs. William Rogers. Mrs. Neff was presented with a farewell gift by the group.

Attending with the hostess and Mrs. Neff were Mmes. Robert Davis, William Rogers, Clifford Trezise, Ed Hatter, and Lee Clotworthy.

Mrs. Davis will be hostess at the October club meeting.

To Lake Havasu

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean and Mr. and Mrs. William Mossman will spend four days next week at Lake Havasu where they will water ski.

Dr., Mrs. F. W. Sassaman Now Living in La Jolla

Wearing an original Galina gown by Christos, fashioned of silk organza, Miss Marlene Louise Puetz, daughter of Mrs. Albert L. Puetz, 520 Paseo de las Estrellas, Hollywood Riviera, and the late Mr. A. L. Puetz, became the bride of Dr. Franklin Wesley Sassaman in a mid-afternoon ceremony Sept. 12 at the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church.

Dr. Sassaman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sassaman of Charlotte, Michigan.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her only brother, Mr. Albert Leo Puetz. Her silk organza gown was enhanced with Alencon lace and seed pearls. An obi sash folded over the detachable train. Her French illusion veil was secured by a pearl crown imported from Paris. The bridal bouquet was of white rose begonias, lilies of the valley, Queen Anne's lace and stephanotis.

Serving as matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Josie Puetz Sassaman, wearing gold silk linen and carrying apricot, tangerine and gold begonias.

Bridesmaids were Misses Susan Selman, Holly Zimmer and Margaret Sassaman, whose gowns were also floor-length gold linen. Their bouquets were of the apricot, tangerine and gold begonias.

Rev. John O'Byrne officiated at the marriage ceremony.

David Spaulding Sassaman served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Lt. Robert Grubb, Lt. Thomas Lynch and Lt. Howard Kerr.

A reception was held in the Banbury room at the Plush Horse Inn for the 250 guests.

The newlyweds are now at home at 724 Rushville St., La Jolla following a honeymoon at the Lake Arrowhead Lodge.

The bride, a Marymount High school graduate, received her BA degree from Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo.

Her husband, now serving with the United States Navy, is a graduate of Ablion College and the University of Michigan Medical School. He is a member of Sigma Nu and Nu Sigma Nu fraternities.

After July 1, 1965 he will be in residency at the University of Michigan, specializing in ophthalmology.

Visit Northwest

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sandstrom, 2322 Eldorado, have returned from a three and half months vacation, most of which was spent at Lake Pend Orielle, Ida. Enroute to Idaho, the couple spent three days at Yellowstone National Park. They also took a two-day trip into Alberta, B.C. and stopped at the Grand Coulee Dam enroute home.

In Santa Barbara

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears, 3210 Merrill Dr. and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brugman, also of Torrance, spent last weekend in Santa Barbara where Mr. Sears and Mr. Brugman attended a seminar of the Central California Investors Assn.

MRS. FRANKLIN WESLEY SASSAMAN
... On Her Wedding Day
(Crotty Photography)

Open 1964-65 Club Year

Las Vecinas Club Greet Provisionals

Las Vecinas Women's club opened its 1964-65 season at the Indian Village Restaurant in Torrance on Thursday, Sept. 24th. One of the main events of the meeting was the introduction of new provisionals to the full membership of the club.

Provisionals introduced include: Mmes. Roscoe Anthony, Redondo Beach; Leslie Curtis, Torrance; Raymond Jehlik, Redondo Beach; William B. J. Shakespeare, Redondo Beach; John C. Barbato, Torrance; Selbert Chernila, Redondo Beach; Ralph E. Hamer, Torrance; and Robert Shuck, Torrance.

Provisionals, during their first year, are under the guidance of Mrs. Charles K. Norman, membership chairman.

Mrs. Charles Sturgill is president of Las Vecinas for the year 1964-65. Other board members include Mmes. Rollin Ring, first vice-president; Vincent J. Austin, second vice-president; Ray Anderson, recording secretary; Don Malone, corresponding secretary; Robert F. Manning, treasurer; Roy A. Menashe, Jr., past president; Charles K. Norman, membership chairman; Robert P. Pinkney, parliamentarian; Ray C. Hickman, philanthropy chairman; William Doty, publicity chairman; and Charles Hopkins, ways and means chairman.

The club, also, presented plans for their annual "Pancake Breakfast" to be held Sunday, Oct. 18, at El Retiro Park. The breakfast will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. John W. Walti, Redondo Beach.

Bridge Party

Beginning the fall season, Mrs. Alma Smith entertained her bridge club last Monday at her home, 1614 Amapola.

The hostess served a luncheon, which was followed by an afternoon of bridge.

High score was held by Mrs. William Crooker and second by Mrs. Laura Felker.

Club members present were Mmes. Ruby Dix, B. T. Whitney, Delbert Thomsen, R. W. McNiel, B. W. Roberts, Crooker and Felker.

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME . . . These new provisionals of the Las Vecinas Women's club were greeted at the club's first meeting of the year by their president, Mrs. Charles Sturgill. They are from left, Mrs. Sturgill, Mmes. Roscoe Anthony, John C. Barbato, William Shakespeare, and Richard C. Roberson. Provisionals were introduced by Mrs. Charles K. Norman, membership chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)

SADIE HAWKINS DAY . . . Torrance Welcome Wagon Club will stage a "Sadie Hawkins Day" at its fall luncheon to be held at the South Bay Bowl on Oct. 8. After the luncheon, bowling will be enjoyed. Plotting the event are from left, Mmes. Myron Humes, ways and means chairman, Richard Irwin, bowling league chairman and Laurel Quist, assistant membership chairman.