

Public Meet By League Announced

Pros and cons on November ballot measures will be presented at a public meeting sponsored by the Torrance League of Women Voters, Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd.

Explanation of the seven-state measures and three county propositions, their legal background, and the leading arguments of the proponents and opponents will be given by League Voters Service speakers. A brief question period will follow presentation of each ballot measure.

Capsule pro and con sheets will be available at the meeting, according to Mrs. Irwin Boxer, Voters Service chairman of the non-partisan group.

Ballot measure speakers will be Mmes. Frank Barnes, B. E. Belzer, Donald Brink, Robert Gordon, Albert Nadel, Warren Shallies, C. R. Thompson, and Austin Woodward.

Lodge Plans Trip Benefit

Degree of Pocahontas Lodge will sponsor a chartered bus trip to Las Vegas on the weekend of Nov. 6, 7, and 8. Proceeds from the benefit will go to the building fund of the John F. Kennedy Memorial for the Mentally Retarded.

The bus ticket includes transportation, food, shows and other entertainment. For more information, Mrs. Forrest Jordan, 21401 Budlong, Torrance, or Mrs. Esther Lovejoy of Compton may be called.

At the lodge meeting on Oct. 26, Mrs. Adolph Stack will show slides of her recent trip to Europe. There will also be entertainment by members of the Council Degree of Pocahontas, and movies of the Great Council.

The Tahee Council has formed a new drill team which will perform at the official visitation on Nov. 9.

Royal Neighbor Bazaar, Party Tuesday Oct. 27

Tuesday afternoon and evening, Oct. 27, the Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors will hold its annual bazaar with a public card party in the evening at 1422 Engracia.

The bazaar is under the supervision of Mrs. Myra Snow and there will be a table of fancy work, with Mrs. Mary Baker and Mrs. Floella Whitaker in charge. Mrs. Rosy Shepherd will be in charge of baked goods; Mrs. Kathryn Baughn, the Silent Auction, and Mrs. Juanita McNew, the White Elephant table.

In the evening the regular card party will be held with bridge, canasta, five hundred, pinochle and other games. Prizes will go to the high scorers and a door prize will be awarded.

Mrs. Anne Reed will be in charge of the evening's activities.

Rummage Sale At St. Andrew's Next Weekend

Women of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will stage a mammoth rummage sale on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30 and 31, at the parish hall, on Engracia Ave.

Clothing, household items and bric-a-brac will be on sale at bargain prices. Doors will open at 9 a.m. on both days, remaining open until 5 p.m. on Friday and until noon on Saturday.

Anyone having items to contribute is asked to deliver them to the parish hall on Thursday, Oct. 29.

Entertain

Recent celebrants at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes, where they enjoyed the music of Red Nichols and his "Five Pennies," were Mr. and Mrs. William B. Harris of Torrance, who entertained a table of friends at dinner on the occasion of Mrs. Harris' birthday anniversary.

'Listening' Club Topic

"Learn to Listen Creatively" is the topic to be discussed by Hollypark Toastmistress Club members at their meeting Monday evening at 8 p.m. at the Western Avenue Clubhouse, 120th and Western Ave.

Mrs. Martin Unger will present methods to improve one's listening habits and states that "good listening creates good manners and good speeches."

Topics for the evening will deal with listening practices with Mrs. Ralph Moore as topicmistress.

Mrs. Edward Gregg, toastmistress, will introduce the speakers, Mrs. Dave Easten, who will speak on holiday gift ideas, and Mrs. John Tracy.

Dessert and coffee will be served at a nominal fee. For further information or reservations Mrs. Richard Dillon in Torrance or Mrs. Edward Gregg may be called.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Miller, 902 Javelin, were dinner guests last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ruprecht in Westminster.

Sacramento Guests

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Miller, and Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Frances Aleko, 902 W. Javelin St. had as their guests for several days last week, Mrs. Aleko's two sisters, Mrs. Jessie Arnold and Mrs. Juanita Strain of Sacramento. Mrs. Arnold has been a wigmaker in Sacramento for the past 42 years, working with the medical profession throughout the nation. She has taught the art of wig making to her daughter and her 20-year-old granddaughter, both of whom assist her. Her sister Mrs. Strain, a former beautician, supervises the fitting of the wigs.

Group Will Study Plato

South Bay's newest Great Books Discussion Group will meet Wednesday, Oct. 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the Security First National Bank, 17124 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale. Plato's "Apology" and "Crito" will be discussed.

The group will meet the second and fourth Wednesday of each month. Mr. James Alcorn of Torrance will be moderator. Among the other works to be read during the series will be the U.S. Constitution, the Gospel of St. Matthew, Macbeth and works by Thoreau and Tolstoy.

The group is sponsored by the non-profit Great Books Foundation for adult education. There is no fee for participation. Anyone interested in reading and discussing the books is welcome to attend.

Honors Father

Arthur L. Johnson celebrated his 95th birthday with a small party at the Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance. The dinner was given by his daughter, Lois Grawley.

Altar Society

Sale Nov. 13-14

Members of Nativity Altar Society have set Nov. 13 and 14 as the dates of their semi-annual rummage sale to be held at the Nativity Annex, Eldorado and Engracia.

Those having rummage to contribute are asked to call Mrs. James D. O'Brien, 3524 W. 225th St. for heavy pickup service and Mrs. John L. Redding, Jr., 20521 Eastwood Ave. or Mrs. Milton Bruce, 3209 Opal Ave. for light pickup service.

Alums to Hear

Talk on Ballot

Members of the South Bay Alumnae Chapter of Delta Delta Delta will hear a discussion of the 17 Propositions by two representatives of the League of Women Voters on Wednesday, Oct. 28.

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. David Carlo, 1907 Agnes Road, Manhattan Beach. The meeting will be called to order at 8 p.m. All Tri-Delta residents in the South Bay area are welcome to attend.
