

TUSD Reps To Attend Institute

Dr. J. H. Hull and A. W. Charles will participate in a social science institute for California School administrators at Carmel Valley Nov. 1 through 4.

The institute is sponsored by the University of California Extension and the University's Department of Education.

Dr. Hull is superintendent of schools for Torrance, and Charles is a member of the Board of Education.

The institute is the fourth in a series devoted to educational problems and policies. This year's will seek to evaluate instructional programs, pupil and staff performance, and community attitudes.

WORKING FOR YOUTH . . . Distributing anti-smoking posters, literature and films are some of the many jobs assumed by 50 youths from Temple Menorah. Pat Diekel, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Diekel of 4810 Darlen St., is president of the group. She is working with Sally Morrison. The anti-smoking campaign is sponsored by the Los Angeles County Heart Assn.

Miss Walker At Pembroke

Miss Katherine S. Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter S. Walker of 5013 Paseo de Pablo, has entered the freshman class at Pembroke College, Rhode Island.

Pembroke College is the co-ordinate women's college at Brown University, which will celebrate its 200th anniversary this year.

Miss Walker, a graduate of South High School, is one of 225 entering freshmen at the college.

Torrance High Students Win Letters of Commendation

Four seniors at Torrance High School have been honored for their performances on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests, Dr. Carl R. Ahee, principal, has announced.

Each of the students receives a Letter of Commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corp. The letters also are signed by Dr. Ahee. Honored with letters were Keith Bleakley, Richard Labate, Richard Moore, and Richard Sloan.

Letters of Commendation were awarded to 38,000 high school students who took the examinations last Spring. They represent about 2 percent of all students who took the three-hour exams.
