Holiday Bazaar To Be Staged by CDA Court

Workshops have produced an attractive array of Christmas gift ideas and home decorations which will be displayed at Court Our Lady of Victory's holiday bazaar, "Christmas Tea and Shopping Spree," according to grand regent Mrs. Roger Ste. Marie.

Setting for the Nov. 28 open house will be the hill-top home of Mrs. Nicolas Humting, 820 Beryl, Redondo Beach, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. Homes of Mmes. Roger Ste. Marie, Torrance and Stacy Rodman, Palos Verdes have been the scenes of workshops for making distinctive gift items for young and old. Items range from table centerpieces to gift items, to stuffed toys and foods. Table arrangements will be a highlight of the fair.

In keeping with the "Christ in Christmas" theme, car bumper stickers emphasizing "Keep Christ in Christmas" and Nativity Scenes will be available.

Christmas can also be brought into the kitchen with gay terry cloth holiday aprons or perky prints for year round wear from the "Avenue of Aprons." There will also be a special "Candle Corner" offering many sale items and many do-it-yourself tips.

Junior Court Our Lady of Victory's "Kandy Kitchen" will offer a tantalizing assortment of homemade candies supplied entirely by the Junior troops, girls age 12 to 17. The candy-making has been supervised by counselors Mmes. Bill Garrison, Frank Cerda, Richard Ab-shear, Sy Durham, Rhonald Metro, Roger Ste. Marie, Nicolas Humting and Fred H. Garretson.

An added attraction will be an array of beautiful fuchsias from the fuchsia specialist, Lydia Birt, who is a well known horticulturist and lecturer. Also a colorful flat of yellow and blue violas and multi-colored English primroses from Palos Verdes Begonia Farm will be available.
