

Seamstresses To Present Awards At Yule Banquet

South Bay Seamstresses, a sewing club for local home-makers, will present two special awards at the annual Christmas Banquet on Dec. 1, 7 p.m. at the Zig Zag Restaurant in Redondo Beach. Awards will go to the Sears Del Amo store for public service, and to the Adli Swim School, 24444 Hawthorne Blvd., Waveria, for service to retarded children through the club.

Mrs. James G. Clune, president, will serve as mistress of ceremonies, to discuss rules and policies of the club. In addition to presenting the garments made for needy children, bearing a "Made Especially for You by the Seamstresses" label, members will model gowns they have made during the club year especially for the event. Guests of honor will judge the workmanship and award a prize for excellence.

DA Council to Plan Yule Party

Golden Bear Council 17, Daughters of America, will meet Thursday, Dec. 3 at 7:30 p.m. at Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave., with Vi Hubbard, councilor, in charge.

Plans will be made for the Christmas and birthday party to be held Dec. 17. Mrs. Hubbard urges all members to be present.

Guests of honor will include Mrs. Charles Goodenberger, formerly of Torrance and now residing in Anaheim, past vice president, and Mrs. D. Lavoie, holder of the club's Golden Pincushion Award, who will accept the award for Sears. A representative of the Adli Swim School will also attend.

In charge of preparations are Mmes. Joseph Maxim, Leo Zeller and Harold Hager.

Hansens Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. James Hansen of Inglewood entertained at a dinner party at Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance in honor of Barbara and Sydney Anderson of Torrance, who were both celebrating their birthday anniversaries. Guests included Eina Faubion of Los Angeles and James Hansen, Jr., of Inglewood.

Newcombs Hosts

Recent dinner celebrants at the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. William D. Newcomb of Torrance, who observed his birthday anniversary by entertaining Messrs. and Mrs. Eugene Tindall, Joseph R. Appleton and Donald Fraser.

Morley To Speak At Club Meet

The award-winning correspondent, John Morley, will present the highlights of his 1964 news-trip to the headline areas of the world, when he speaks at the catered luncheon meeting of the Torrance Woman's Club on Wednesday, Dec. 2, beginning at 12:30 p.m.

From repeated news-trips to Vietnam, Laos, South East Asia, he will try to clear the air of "news-confusion" on the whole sordid mess... the miscalculations of U. S. policy... the conspiracy of Red China... the feuds between Catholics and Buddhists... the unjustified abuse of Mme. Nhu, etc. . . . and reactions to talks with Ambassador Lodge and Vietnamese officials.

John Morley will update recent events in Cuba, Cyprus, Panama, Venezuela... dramatic changes in India, Soviet Satellites, Russia, Berlin, Formosa, Korea, and interviews with some of the new political leaders who influence change.

His talk will reveal a rare and dramatic interview with Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai, and the heretofore secret reasons for the Rissia-Red China split, which destroyed the monolithic Soviet power inside world communism.

Club's Christmas Party on Dec. 2

Fun and Fund Club of Torrance Rebekah Lodge, 347, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet on Dec. 2 at 11:30 a.m. at the home of Nell Schermerhorn, 1424 Acacia, for a potluck luncheon and Christmas party. A gift exchange will be held. Mrs. Schermerhorn will conduct a business session.

Party for Dixie

A birthday celebration was held at Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance recently for 11-year-old Dixie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex V. Smith. Well-wishers at the party were localites Pamela Fischer, Janette Smith, Jeannie Black and Catherine Carlson.

From Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Merrill, 3302 Danaha St. and Mrs. Merrill's mother, Mrs. Anthony Vizcaink of Los Angeles returned Nov. 16 from a three weeks vacation in Hawaii. Mrs. Merrill's mother had joined the couple for the last week of their island stay.

John Morley will report the pleasant and painful; but with rare and refreshing emphasis on the signs of world-betterment, over the sensationalism of bedlam. "Even in the worst crisis I just saw," says Morley, "hope often exceeds hopelessness, but the hopelessness is usually better advertised."

GIVING TEACHER A HAND . . . The Teachers Aid program, whereby PTA members assist the teachers, has been recently inaugurated at the Fern-Greenwood School. This group, now in full swing, meets every fourth Tuesday of each month at the school to assist by drawing illustrations for the bulletin board, cut letters, make murals for PTA meetings—draw instructional charts, type and do copy work, and as-ist in many other ways. The assistants are so well organized that any mother wishing to come to the school to work is furnished child care for the youngsters at home. Busy in their roles as teacher's helper are, from left, Mmes. J. L. Bardin, John Donley, Ivan S. Mummert, George Sulton and George S. Garner. Mrs. Betty Peterson of Riviera PTA assisted with getting the program under way. (Press-Herald Photo)

First Grandson Visits Ryersons

Thanksgiving Day was a special day for Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ryerson, 1402 Acacia, when they entertained their family at dinner. The special part of the celebration was the first visit of their first grandchild, Daniel Marten Schuyler of Glendale. The Ryersons' two daughters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moran of San Pedro and Mr. and Mrs. James P. Schuyler of Glendale, were dinner guests.
