Dennis Bean Workshop Staff Asks Is Funniest Toastmaster

Volunteer drivers from the Inglewood, Hawthorne, and Lawndale areas are urgently needed to transport trainees to the new PAR Southwest Workshop of the Southwest Association for Retarded Children.

The workshop is located at 180th Street and Western Avenue.

The first group of trainees began sessions Monday at the workshop. Not all parents have automobiles available however, and transportation to the workshop is uncertain for several of the children.

The center will train mentally retarded children for self-supporting jobs.

Workshop Staff Asks For Volunteer Drivers

Volunteers interested in assisting with the transportation program may contact William Paul at FR 8-2525 or Mrs. Dean Thurman at OS 9-6233.

The PAR Workshop is designed to offer a comprehensive professional staff of psychologists, medical personnel, and social workers the opportunity to give counseling, guidance, and training to the retarded. It is being operated by the Southwest Association for Retarded Children in cooperation with the Exceptional Children's Foundation of Los Angeles.

'Keep Christ in Christmas' Theme of Redondo Chamber

"Keep Christ in Christmas!"

"Please don't let the glitter of the holiday season destroy the spiritual significance of this most sacred day," urges Dr. Alfred K. chairman of the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Corwin and other members of the chamber have contacted all postage meter users in Redondo Beach, suggesting they use "Keep Christ in Christmas" on all outgoing mail.

Redondo Beach firms using the message are Redondo Title Company, West Coast Secretarial Service, Citizens National Bank, South Bay Daily Breeze, St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, South Bay Hospital and the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Sisterhood to Exhibit 'Fashions to Read By'

The possibilities of being both elegant and intelligent in the home will be demonstrated for members of Sisterhood Ner Tamid as they attend a luncheon featuring both fashions and readings for cozy "at home" evenings.

The Los Verde Country Clubhouse will be the location of the stimulating luncheon at which an antipasto will be followed by a main course and conclude with Cherries Jubilee. Interspersed with the food will be the fashions of Wanda Lance, Hollywood Riviera couterier.

While enjoying the breathtaking ocean view, the participants of the afternoon will be able to listen to current book reviews which will be given by Mrs. Joseph Cohen, Jack Esensten, and Ed Schwartz.

Reservations for the Dec. 21 luncheon are being taken by Mrs. Norman Rosen, FR 8-6712 and Mrs. Jack Esensten, FR 7-1390.

Festivities will commence at noon and are open to the public.

Keep your face in the sunshine and you cannot see the shadow—Helen Keller.

DANCE FUNDS . . . Joan Chiappetta, Nancy Menashe, and Sherill Hundley are pictured tabulating the profits earned during the South High Girls' Winter Formal. The dance, held Friday evening, was rated a big success by the Girls' League. Funds raised during the evening will be used for scholarships and to assist the Torrance Dental Health Association in its program in the Torrance schools.

FLASH WARNING
If you seen danger ahead on the freeway — and you have time — the Automobile Club of Southern California suggests that you warn the motorists behind you by gently flashing your stop lights and by signaling with your arm, indicating that you are slowing down and may have to come to a sudden stop.

Method will teach you to win time.—Johann Wolfgang von Goethe.
