

Nancy Jean Hill Recites Vows with Russell Wolfe

In a home wedding ceremony, witnessed by 25 relatives and close friends, at 8 o'clock on Dec. 19, Miss Nancy Jean Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hill of Torrance recited her marriage vows with Russell Groves Wolfe II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Wolfe, 286 Calle de Madrid, Hollywood-Riviera.

The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Barlow, 5618 Calle de Ricardo. Two trumpet baskets of white flowers were on either side of the fireplace and a cluster of wedding bells hung over the mantel on which were tall white lighted tapers, marking the place of ceremony.

As a background of nuptial music was played, Mr. Hill escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a white wool suit with a small white hat and short veil.

Her flowers were a nosegay of white roses and heather. Mrs. S. Davidson, wearing a red wool dress, and carrying red and white carnations was her sister's matron of honor.

Barry B. Wolfe served his brother as best man. Rev. Carl Bader of the Riviera Methodist Church officiated at the double-ring, candlelight marriage service.

A reception followed with a tiered wedding cake centering the table. The newlyweds, who spent their honeymoon in Las Vegas, are now at home at 12552 Kensington Lane, Apt. B4, Garden Grove.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Torrance High School.

Her husband, a 1960 South High graduate, is a senior at USC, majoring in accounting. He will be graduated in June.
