

First Women's Golf Tourney at Los Verdes

WINNING ACCLAIM

Elaine La Lanne, who won the prize for the longest drive, demonstrates for, from left, Jocelle Adams, tournament publicity chairman; Patti King, who won low net at 70; Betty Candereva, president of the Women's Professional Golf Assn.; and Anne Dunn, who tied with a 70 low net. This club, one-year-old on Nov. 17, has a membership of 250 w (Press-Herald Photos)

CHARTING THE SCORES

Los Verdes Women's Golf Club held its first annual golf tournament with 66 members and 66 guests participating. Marking up tournament scores are, from left, Bess Peterson, social chairman; Ruby Allen, president; Carol Van Hook, rules chairman; Donna Frandsen, assistant tournament chairman with Marge Muhonen, tournament chairman, doing the honors. After the games, a buffet luncheon was held.

Area Republican Women

Installation Set

Guest speaker and installation officer at the noon luncheon meeting Thursday, Nov. 11, of the South Bay Club of Federated Republican Women will be Mrs. Harry Umhey, newly-elected second vice president of the Southern Division of the California Federation of Republican Women.

"Ten Little Free Workers" will be the subject of an illustrated talk by Mrs. Umhey. The event will be held at Smith Brothers' Indian Village in Torrance.

Mrs. Roland Blakeman of El Segundo is the incoming president.

Officers who will serve with her are Mmes. Richard Pick, Manhattan Beach, first vice president; Cloyd Kettering, Redondo Beach and Anna Frysinger, Manhattan Beach, second vice president co-chairmen; Truman McNeely of Harbor City, vice president; James Matthews, Manhattan Beach, recording secretary; Gordon McFarlane, Torrance, treasurer; and Don Hunter of Redondo Beach, financial secretary.

Area directors will be Mmes. William Kesener, El Segundo; W. J. Hettel, Manhattan Beach; Sallie Brown, Hermosa Beach; Ruth Larcom, Redondo Beach and Douglas Essick, Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Luncheon reservation may be made by calling Mrs. Bertha Walters, by noon Tuesday. All Republican women are invited to attend.

MR., MRS. E. M. JOHNSTON
... Married 50 Years

Open House Honors Pair

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnston of Calimesa, formerly of Torrance were honored at an Open House on Sunday, Oct. 17, in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The Open House was held at the home of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Mascola, 1633 Flower St. An only grandchild, Sharonne Mascola, was also present to celebrate the anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston were married Oct. 23, 1915 in Pittsburgh, Pa. They moved to Torrance in 1930 when Mr. Johnston transferred to the Torrance branch of U.S. Steel where he held the position of superintendent of sheet mill until his retirement. The Johnstons moved to Calimesa in 1961.

Approximately 90 guests called to congratulate the couple. Among them were former Torrance residents living in other areas in southern California, including Messrs. and Mmes Joe Zelinka of Azusa; Thomas Adams, Vista; William Evans, Jack Miller, Ludwig Miller, Yucaipa; Scott Ludlow, Sherman Oaks; Calvin Blakey, Orange; Mrs. Marie Beale, Phoenix, Ariz.; and a lifetime friend, William Lace of Los Angeles, formerly of Pennsylvania.

On the anniversary date, the honored couple received telephone calls from relatives in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana.

WORKING FOR OTHERS

To help the patients in the Veterans Hospital in Long Beach share the joy of giving during the holidays, members of the Court Our Lady of Victory, CDA, have been busy collecting gift items and wrapping them to be delivered to the patients so that they may have gifts for their loved ones. In a gift-wrapping session are from left, Mmes. John Murray co-chairman of the project, Roger Ste. Marie, trustee, Joseph Capello, chairman and Sy Durham, coordinator. (Press-Herald Photo)

Ladies Auxiliary Plans Installation

Mrs. J. Mack Oetting will be installed as president of the Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Dept. at a luncheon at 12 noon on Nov. 13 at the Indian Village. Mrs. Denny Haas, retiring president, will conduct the installation.

Others assuming office with Mrs. Oetting will be Mmes. Edward Sminich, first vice president; Walter West, second vice-president; Denny Haas, secretary, and John Blain, treasurer. After the luncheon, guests will enjoy a Fashionette, when fall's newest fashions provided by a Gardena firm, will be paraded.

Special guests at this annual installation luncheon will include Mrs. Robert Kendall of San Gabriel, state officer; Mrs. John Clifford, president of the Redondo Auxiliary; Mrs. J. J. Benner, wife of the Torrance Fire Chief, and Mrs. Gilbert Pike, junior past president of the auxiliary.

Alpha Gamma Alumnae Wine Tasting Party

In lieu of a regular monthly meeting, the South Bay Alpha Gamma Delta Alums have invited their husbands to partake in a wine tasting scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 13, at 7 p.m.

The setting will be the Brookside Winery, Ports-of-Call Village, San Pedro. The Winery will provide a generous variety of its wines for the group to sample, after which the couples will adjourn to their favorite restaurant for dinner.

Special guests for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Williams of Pasadena. Mrs. Williams is one of the sorority's international officers.

Mrs. Frank Ogden of San Pedro is chairman of the evening's festivities. Alumnae new to the area are cordially invited to call Mrs. Ogden for reservations.

ASSUME OFFICIAL DUTIES

Leadership of the Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Dept. will be placed in new hands at an installation luncheon on Saturday, Nov. 13, at the Indian Village restaurant. Accepting office responsibilities will be, from left, Mmes. Denny Haas, retiring president, who will conduct the installation and will also become the group's secretary; Edward Sminich, first vice-president; J. Mack Oetting, president; John Blain, treasurer, and Walter West, second vice president. (Press-Herald Photo)

Catholic Daughters Help Veterans In Santa Roles

Members of Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America have been busily preparing gifts and toys for patients at Long Beach Veterans' Hospital to present to their loved ones at Christmas.

For the tenth consecutive year the Court has joined with the American Legion Auxiliary on this Social Welfare project so that the Veterans may share in the joy of giving.

Mrs. Charles Buckley, grant regent, announced at a recent business meeting that the goal of one gift per member has been attained.

Among the donations are jewelry, hillfolds and Christmas decorations. Hand-made articles including stuffed animals, dust mitts, curler bags and aprons have been prepared by Mrs. Joseph Capello, sewing chairman, and her committee, Mmes. John Murray, Roger Ste. Marie, Sy Durham, Nicolas Humting and Charles Buckley.

The Catholic Daughter Juniorettes, youngest group of the organization, ages seven to eleven, have made pencil holders from juice cans covered with felt as their contribution.