MRS. JAMES SISK Recites Vows (Portrait by Seeman)

Godfrey-Sisk Wedding Solemnized in Church

Rev. Thomas Ming, pastor of the First Assembly of God Church in Wilmington, officiated at the late afternoon wedding ceremony at the church on Jan. 23, when Miss Laura Godfrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Godfrey, 118 W. 225th St., Torrance, exchanged marriage promises with James Sisk, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Chambers of Lawton, Okla.

Rev. Charles Roberts, at the organ, played the nuptial music and sang "Whither Thou Goest."

After the wedding, a reception was held for the 125 guests in the church with a buffet supper following at the home of the bride's parents.

The new home is in Lomita. The bride, a graduate of Carson High School, is now a student at the Flavio Beauty College.

Her husband, a graduate of the Mission High School in Lawton, is serving with the United States Navy stationed in Long Beach.

Mrs. Robert A. Godfrey Jr., served as the matron of honor. She was gowned in dark blue satin and carried pink carnations.

Palette Art Club Will Meet Feb. 5

Miss Diane Lynn Irwin, in pale blue satin and carrying pink carnations, was the bridesmaid.

Palette Art Club of the harbor area will meet Friday, Feb. 5, at 8 p.m. at Wilhall, 325 Neptune Ave. in Wilmington with Leland Hall of Lomita, president, in charge.

Robbyn Carlan, in pale blue satin, was the flower girl.

At this meeting, results of the election of new officers will be announced and the committee for the spring art show will be named.

Daniel B. Duniap, Jr. served as best man and ushers were Robert Godfrey Jr., Charles Godfrey, Jr., Daryl Finch, and Carl Wright.

Entertain

Recent dinner hosts at the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bennett, Jr., of Torrance, who gave a small party for a table of friends.

Following the business meeting, paintings brought by members and guests, will be discussed.

Also at the Pen & Quill the same evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Woznick of Molling Hills, who entertained six localites with an informal dinner party.

All harbor area artists, and those interested in painting as hobby or work, are invited to attend the meeting and to bring their work for criticism.

Refreshments will be served and all visitors are welcome.
