Linda Lee Potter Now Heath-Faust Nuptials Mrs. James L. Campell Read on Valentine Day

On the arm of her father, Miss Linda Lee Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Potter, 1324 Crenshaw Blvd., walked down the aisle of the First Christian Church in Torrance at six o'clock on Saturday, Feb. 13, to exchange marriage vows with James Leland Campbell, Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. C. O'Leary, 2313 Cabrillo, Torrance, and Mr. J. L. Campbell of San Diego.

The traditional wedding gown was of white peau de soie enhanced with appliques Pearls outlined the neckline and the fitted bodice had long pointed sleeves. The full skirt fell into a chapel train. A pearl tiara held the illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Sharon McMullen, in a deep pink crepe gown, with satin trim, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Georgiann Potter, Janice Ruben and Nancy Moody. All wore azalea pink gowns. The attendants' bouquets were of pink carnations.

Jack Campbell served as best man and ushers were Steve Moody, John Phillips and Glen Sudmire. Rev. H. M. Sippel, pastor, officiated at the marriage. Bob Holman was soloist, accompanied by the church organist. A reception followed at the church and the honeymoon was spent at Santa Ynez Inn in Santa Monica. Both Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are graduates of Torrance High School, she is 1964 and he in 1963. The new home is on Emerald Street in Torrance.

Basket of pink, white, and red carnations and gladioli decorated the sanctuary of the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church on Sunday, Feb. 14, for the two o'clock wedding ceremony in which Miss Marie Estelle Heath became the bride of James Roger Faust. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heath, 4409 Faircross, Torrance, was escorted to the altar by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Faust of Pomona. The bridal gown was of white tulle with a square neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her full skirt was caught in bustle effect at the back and fell into a chapel train. The silk illusion veil was secured by a pearl princess tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, pale pink roses, and stephanotis.

Miss Mary Heath served as her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Joan Green and Mary Kay Heun. The three attendants wore floor length gowns of sweetheart red taffeta. Their headpieces and bouquets were of pink and red carnations. Thomas Faust served as his brother's best man and ushers were Chuck O'Brien and Don Faust. Rev. John T. O'Byrne officiated at the double ring marriage service. The 150 guests were entertained at a reception at the Mariner, at which the Valentine colors were used in decorating. A large heart, outlined with roses, formed the background for the table holding the four tiered wedding cake. The newlyweds spent a two weeks honeymoon at Big Bear Lake, Lake Arrowhead and Palm Springs. The new home is in Torrance. Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. V. Garza; two aunts, Mrs. C. I. Arroyo and Mrs. C. W. Kelso of Texas.
