

British Club Plans English Style Social

British Commonwealth and Friends Club will stage an old fashioned "A Go Go" English style social evening on Saturday May 15 at the American Legion Hall, Van Ness Ave., Torrance beginning at 8 p.m.

An evening of games, prizes and surprises has been planned. The regular monthly meeting will also be held.

AFS Pupils To Present Program

American Field Service students will present the program at the meeting of the Torrance Junior Woman's club this evening at the clubhouse at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Ronald Hoover, president, will be in charge.

A joint meeting of the outgoing and incoming boards was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Ashford.

Torrance Junior Woman's club is a philanthropic group of women, 18 to 35, interested in giving their time and talents to their community, state and country, with a special emphasis on youth.

This year their philanthropies included the Torrance Scout Center, Harbor Hospital Pediatrics, and the Torrance YWCA.

Any local woman wishing further information regarding this organization may call Mrs. Robert Vroman, membership chairman.

Hostesses for State Convention

Three local Catholic Daughter Courts, St. Catherine of Torrance, Our Lady of Victory, Redondo, and Court St. Michael, Westchester, have been named as hostesses for the 21st Biennial State CDA Conference to be held in Los Angeles May 13 to 16. Among the many workshops to be conducted will be the World Mission Workshop by Mrs. Wesley

Circle Meets

Phoebe Circle of the First Methodist Church closed its current year with a luncheon meeting at Welch's restaurant in Long Beach Tuesday.

Mrs. Edward Goodell, chairman, conducted a short business meeting.

Attending were Mmes William Sykes, Earl Radford, J. S. McMullen, Howard Fletcher, William Horton, Millie Millstead, Frances Tiffin, Maud Price, Bea Moyer, Lena Owens and Dorretta Herbold.

The first meeting of the new year will be held June 3 at the home of Mrs. Edward Goodell.

Local Courts to Hostess CDA Convention

Mrs. Paul Haberstroh, state regent of the Catholic Daughters of America, has sent out a call for the 21st Biennial State Conference to be held May 13-16 at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles. Court St. Catherine 1378, Torrance; Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Redondo Beach, and Court St. Michael 1633, Westchester, will perform the duties of hostess, with Mrs. James Lysaght of Court St. Michael serving as general chairman.

Working with Mrs. Lysaght are the grand regents of three courts, Mrs. Charles Butterfield, who is in charge of programs; Mrs. Roger Ste. Marie, decorations; and Miss Jane Killoyne, who is chairman of the banquet.

Workshops on all phases of the organization will be conducted by the various state chairmen.

Mrs. Wesley Muzik of Torrance, state chairman of Missions, will conduct the mission workshop at which time Mrs. Butterfield will present a chalice to Rev. Fionan Brannigan, S.J., pastor of St. Andrew's Russian Catholic Church, Byzantine Rite, El Segundo. The chalice was purchased with monies raised by the two mission circles of Ct. St. Catherine.

Working with Mrs. Muzik will be Dr. Richard Lescoe of Torrance, who will speak on the duties of the Mission doctors and the need for lay missionaries at home.

Cocanut Grove will be the setting for a luncheon on Friday honoring the Supreme Secretary, Mrs. A. A. Caprine, of New York, under the direction of Mrs. Elles Cook of Torrance.

A formal reception will be held Friday evening honoring the State Officers with Mrs. Laurence Derouin of Ct. St. Catherine serving as chairman.

His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre will be among the honored guests at the banquet planned for Saturday evening. Entertainment will be furnished by John Smith, television and motion picture personality.

B&PW Will Hear Talk

Bea Gray, founder of the Friendly House, a sanctuary for women alcoholics in the Los Angeles area, will be guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's club, Monday evening, May 17 at the Alondra club, 16411 Prairie Ave., in Lawndale.

Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. followed by the program in which the speaker will tell of her experiences in founding the home of which she now serves as house mother.

Will Meet May 12

Tyners Hosts

Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 will hold a regular meeting on May 12 at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo, with Lucille Taute noble grand, presiding.

Delegates from the local lodge will attend the Rebekah Assembly of California at Bakersfield from May 17 to 21.

Enjoying dinner recently at the Smith Bros. Indian Village restaurant in Torrance were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice D. Tyner of Torrance, who gave a party in celebration of Mr. Tyner's birthday anniversary.

Guests included a gathering of friends from Whittier, West Covina, Downey, Sun Valley and Temple City.
