FRONT ROW CENTER

As a further expression of the cultural advances made in the Torrance-Long Beach area, the Southern California Lyric Opera Association, centered in Long Beach, will present famous Metropolitan Opera star Christina Carroll, together with Gary Murphy and Thomas Anderson on May 23 as the third production of the company's premiere season.

Miss Carroll has won world acclaim for her performances in all of the leading opera houses and concert halls in Europe and the Americas. She has sung over 40 different operatic roles and has a wide repertory of concert material. American baritone Gary Murphy is a permanent member of the company's roster of artists as its leading baritone while Thomas Anderson, tenor, has frequently been heard in outstanding performances including his prize winning performance in the recent Metropolitan Opera Auditions.

For information or reservations call the Association at GE 3-2889 or GA 6-1651.

Over the TABLE TOPS

The young crowd is plenty happy these days because of the opening tomorrow of the sure-to-be-jumping JAMAICA WEST on Pacific Coast Highway. Patterned after Whiskey-A-Go-Go on the Sunset Strip, Jamaica West will serve only drinks such as cocktails, scotch and soda, etc. while the patrons enjoy the music of Glenn Grey and his Greymen. Understand there will be music going all the time, for when Glenn Grey and the boys rest, there will be the best in Discotheque played for the crowds. Seems to us that the surroundings of Jamaica West lend themselves ideally to a real fun spot, so plan your fun and dancing at this new spot!

UNSURPASSED . . . the choicest seafood variety and unvarying excellence fills the menu at Smith Bros. INDIAN VILLAGE in Torrance. Truly delicious and acclaimed is the fresh and superbly flavored Chinook Salmon, according to manager Mrs. Virginia Smith Haack. This entree is "dip net" fished from the Columbia River in Washington State by the Yakima

Indians as the salmon heads upstream to spawn. After this newly caught fish is broiled to peak of succulence and garnished to perfection, the entree is served with flair and pride . . . Seen lunching at INTERNATIONAL HOUSE OF PANCAKES in Del Amo Center this last week were Mrs. Adam Samozki, Mrs. Edwin Miles Wachner and Mrs. Ernest Good; they were enjoying those delicious French pancakes served regularly at the numerous Pancake Houses.

BE SURE to order the wonderful ham and swiss cheese sandwiches served HOT at VITO'S SPAGHETTI HOUSE on Sepulveda Blvd., in Torrance. Vito and his wife, Mary, must have a special way of handling these sandwiches—have never tasted anything better. Amazing to be able to find such popular sandwiches at a so-called Spaghetti House, but remember their spaghetti dinners are served Tuesdays for just 99c—and SO good!

El Camino Glee Club To Perform

El Camino College's newly-organized Men's Glee Club will perform at the Wilmington Women's Club this afternoon at 1:30. Mrs. Almond B. Cockerill, program chairman, has announced.

The group will feature selections from "My Fair Lady" and such rhythmic songs as "Jamaica Farewell" and "In That New Jerusalem."

The 21-member choral group was organized last fall by El Camino College music instructor Crist L. Mikkelsen and, since its beginning, has sung for numerous civic groups.

"THE CLUB is open to all men of El Camino who enjoy singing good music," Mikkelsen said.

"We intend to develop a men's group of very high caliber, performing the best and most enjoyable music for men's voices," he added.

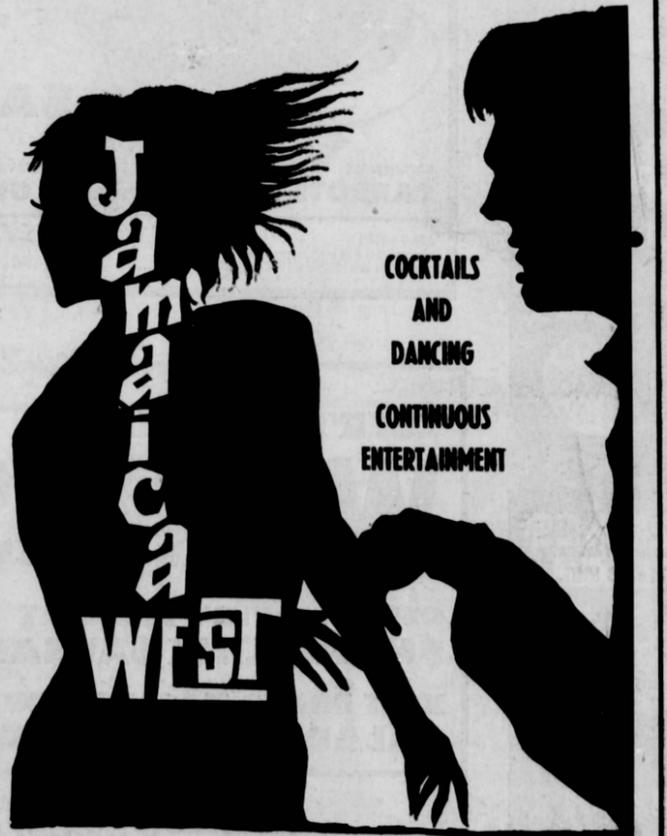

Plans are being considered for performances with the El Camino Warrior Band during the next football season.

Friday, June 11, the Men's Glee Club will appear in a Spring concert presentation with the El Camino College Community Choir.
