Needlework Guild's Spring Meet May 17

Annual spring meeting of the Peninsula Volunteers Needlework Guild will be held the morning of May 17 in the Toberman Settlement House, 131 North Grand Ave., San Pedro. A coffee hour is set for 10 o'clock, and during that time the members will be given the opportunity to see various displays of the work and accomplishments so far this year of the many local sections of the Guild. Mrs. Francis J. Hines of Palos Verdes is in charge of arranging the exhibits.

Mrs. Walter R. Clark of Palos Verdes Estates, president of the Peninsula Volunteers, will preside at the meeting to follow and will introduce Mrs. Louise Larsen, Executive Director of Toberman, who will tell of the work of the settlement house and will conduct a tour of the premises.

Past presidents of the Peninsula Volunteers are to be honor guests at this meeting. They include Mrs. Holt McCracken, who was the president in the first two years of the Peninsula Guild's existence, 1953-1955. She was followed by Mmes. Harry C. Gebhart, J. Weare Pearson II, James Ingebretsen, Donald H. Earl, Henry A. Graef, H. E. Kidder, and Roger Taylor.

All members of the Peninsula Volunteers and anyone interested in their work will be welcome at this spring meeting.
