

BMHS Girl Wins Top Art Medal

Mary Kay Kane, a senior at Bishop Montgomery High School, has won a gold medal for a pastel drawing in the 1965 National Scholastic Art Awards competition. The annual competition is co-sponsored here by Bullock's Downtown.

Top winners in the regional competition were Peter Balombi, 16, of Savanna High in Anaheim, and Scott Gasmer, 17, and Robert Maxey, 17, both of Mira Costa High School. All three were awarded art scholarships.

Miss Kane, who is studying art at Montgomery under Sister Rose Margaret, CSJ, is student body historian at school.

Top winners in the Southern California region will compete with winners from 46 other regions in the nation in the finals, being held in New York City.

Bloodmobile Here Thursday

The blood donor card to be given donors at the Red Cross Bloodmobile Thursday at the Elks Lodge 1948, 1820 Abalone, Torrance, may be the most important piece of identification a vacationer carries in his billfold.

Stanley Heiman, Torrance-Lomita Red Cross Branch chairman, explains that the blood credits earned by participation in the local program will travel with the donor on vacation and are good in any hospital in the United States or Canada which accepts Red Cross blood or credits.

The national eligibility policy is the result of agreements between the American National Red Cross, its sister society in Canada, and the American Association of Blood Banks. The eligibility also extends to members of the donor's family.

Should the patient require a rare type of blood not available in the community where he is hospitalized, the blood will be shipped in from the nearest Red Cross or AABB source.

There is no charge for Red Cross blood and the patient will be billed only for the hospital's costs for processing and transfusion.

In addition to providing easy identification of the donor's eligibility, the Red Cross card gives the donor's blood type, vital information in case of accident.

Heiman urges all former and currently active Red Cross blood donors to join the newcomers at the bloodmobile's Thursday visit from 2-6:30 p.m. to update their credits and give so that others may benefit from their contribution.

For blood donor appointments, prospective donors should call TE 2-8321.
