ator, Press-Herald
 Once again the self-ap-and passionate vige-
 of the radical right descended upon the
 rance School Board to pect, as they see it, our
 -school and kindergartage children from the in-eous menace implicit in use of rhythmic musical rds made by the Chil-ens Record Guild of
 ung Peoples Records. In sidering this matter, let ignore for the moment
 e crude and rude behav-
 y which these patriots sistent demonstrate her their contempt for or k of understanding of e democratic American nmental processes
 hich they profess to be ecting, but which, by e hysterical and reckless avior, they endanger.
 Those opposed to the R records make two aims: 1) public funds ould not be used to sup-rt a subversive organiza-

drawn from the mere re-ital of names and dates as in this report. The 1949 Calif. report merely carries a one sentence repetition of the 1948 statement. The many "citations" in the HU-AC reports reduce themselves to the 1952 unsubstantiated reminiscences of former Communist Matusow as to the suspected Communist affiliation of the president of YPR and some of the artists. All the other citations were completely unproductive in establishing any subversive nature of the YPR. The entire set of references appear as an exercise in illogic. It has never been established that the records made by YPR are subversive, but only that a witness suspected the ideological affiliation of certain company members. This is a far-fetched guilt by association; the records should be judged on their own merit, as established by reputable authorities in the educational field.
 Rev. Noebel fears that the records in question, folk music, rock-n-roll, and the Beatles are part of a monstrous Communist master plot to "destroy our children's emotional and mental stability." My own experience with rock-n-roll and the Beatles is that they are somewhat successful in affecting my emotional stability, but all the children I observe including my own can tolerate unlimited doses with no ill effects. I dislike them for musical, not ideologeical reasons. As for the records in question, they have received high praise from many musical and educational sources.

 Rev. Noebel offers as conclusive the testimony of a Dr. Bryan, whom he claims is America's leading authority in the field of hypnosis, regarding the fearful, hypnotic, compulsive behavior-forming potential of these records.
 In this situation, I will repose my trust in the freedom and ability of the teacher to select and use the best educational material available, rather than being guided by the persuasions of the self-styled experts and political extrem-
