A gift of $280,000 to the California School of the Hebrew Union College by Mrs. Anna Grancell was announced by Jack Skirball, the school's administrative board chairman at a dinner meeting in the Los Angeles Club.

Mrs. Grancell, who with her late husband, Isaac, helped found Temple Menorah of Redondo Beach is still its major supporter.

Joining Skirball in paying tribute to Mrs. Grancell for her philanthropy were Dr. Nelson Glueck, president of the college, and Deal Alfred Gottschalk of its California School.

'Helping' Is Theme of Rotary Meet

"How to Succeed in Helping by Really Trying" was the topic of Edward Meier, speaker for the Braille Institute, at the Hollywood Riviera Rotary Club meeting Thursday. A public relations man whose vision began to fail four years ago, Meier emphasized the necessity of not treating the blind like children or invalids.

Following the theme of "Helping" the Rotary Club presented a scholarship of $250 per semester to honor student Donald Brunet, who was graduated from Torrance High School this week.

Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brunet of 18423 Dalton Ave., has elected to take a pre-med course at Pomona College.

Writer Advises On Use of ESP

"How to Use ESP in Your Writing" was the subject of Col. Walter Cronk at the Friday meeting of the Southwest Manuscripters.

A retired Air Force colonel, the lecturer is author of the controversial best seller, "The Golden Light," published by Fowler and Co., London, and De Voss of Los Angeles. His book deals with ESP, reincarnation, and supernatural experiences which occurred during the period Col. Cronk was attached to the Air Force.

A Penny for your Thoughts

From Dali's melted watches and Pollock's dribblings to today's Pop and Op art, modern art has been the cause of much confusion and conversation. Who finds beauty in a painting of a can of soup? Recently, I asked several ladies of Torrance: "How do you feel about modern art?"

Nancy Seaman, 21333 S. Jaffrey Ave.:

"I think some of it is pretty good and is very imaginative.

Pop Art may be just a fad that will run its course. Abstract art allows the viewer to make his own interpretation. You can project your own meaning into it."

Carlotta Agapito, 22330 Marjorie Ave.:

"I'm a Gramma Moses fan, myself. I like art that requires a little more technical skill. Most modern art is too much for me. I think you have to be a non-conformist to really appreciate it."

Sheila Prevo, 5409 Clearside Dr.:

"It's all right for those who like it, but it makes my eyes water. I don't think I'd want abstract art in my house."

Melba Murillo, 5114 Bindewald Rd.:

"It's good therapy for the artist, but I don't know about the benefit to the viewer. If a person wants to spend a lot of money for paint smears it's okay, but it's not for me."

Myrtle Hussey, 22716 Date Ave.:

"I think the modern artists have done some interesting things with their daring use of color, but I don't prefer that type of painting. Maybe I don't have the right appreciation for modern art but I like paintings where you don't have to search for the meaning."
