

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY TO THE MADDALONES . . . The handsome family of Fred Maddalone will be celebrating their tenth anniversary as owners-operators of the popular Maddalone's Italian restaurant, 316 Ave. I, Redondo Beach, this coming Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, June 25, 26, 27. Souvenir gifts for adults and children, strolling musicians, klieg lights and the whole "shebang" will make this a memorable event. Better make reservations for this one. Phone FR 5-6391.

...All 'Round

dience will be "Laurentia"—a virtuoso pas de six from the popular full-length Soviet ballet, reproduced from Chabukiani's choreography by Rudolph Nureyev. Completing the opening-night program will be a revival of Ashton's famous "Daphnis and Chloe," which has not been seen here since 1953. The Ravel score was commissioned by Diaghilev, and the first performance of the original ballet was given in Paris in 1912. Ashton's version uses only the scenario and music of the original—the choreography is entirely his own, with sets and costumes designed by John Craxton.

COLORFUL AND EXCITING . . . Is the way to describe Jeane and Tony Trutanich's new Top O' Tony's restaurant, nightclub and boutique shop located on the Fisherman's Wharf in Redondo Beach. The restaurant features the finest in steaks and seafoods with an added breathtaking view of the ocean. The boutique shop carries the finest lines of Hawaiian wear and costume jewelry. Talk about two birds, with one stone! Phone FR 4-9246.

RESTAURANT OF THE WEEK . . . Mr. and Mrs. Martin's colorful Casa Martin is located at 1650 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance. It features choice home-cooked Mexican and American dishes at extremely low prices. Their specialty is azada-a char broiled steak (Mexican style) served with rice, refried beans, Guacamole and salad house dressing. Their motto — "The essence of culinary art is TIME."

WAITING TO SERVE YOU . . . Chef B. A. Walker features the finest chuckwagon in the South Bay area at the Bridle Path restaurant, 22252 Palos Verdes Blvd., Torrance. Steaks, seafoods, and choice desserts highlight the economical menu.

MADDALONE'S 10th ANNIVERSARY!
JUNE 25-26-27

Thank you Friends and South Bayans . . . Our 10th Anniversary would not have been successful without your continued loyalty and patronage keeping Maddalone's the largest Italian Restaurant in the South Bay area.

We started with a small take-out type restaurant in 1956 and have expanded yearly, with your help, to become a landmark in the Hollywood Riviera section of Redondo Beach.

We still offer the finest Italian atmosphere and Italian cuisine of our specialty house ability, the finest cocktails from menu may be ordered to go.

For our anniversary we will have the restaurant flooded in spotlights, strolling musicians entertaining for the three day celebration, and souvenir gifts for men, women and children.

My heartfelt, sincere thanks to all of you for your friendship and support. Please bring your family and friends for an evening of fun to join in the celebration Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 25, 26 and 27.

Your grateful owner and host, Fred J. Maddalone
