

WILL SCROGGINS
"Scope" Performer

'Agnostic' Subject of Appearance

Will Scroggins, El Camino College instructor in the division of social sciences, will bring to a close the current series of five "Scope" television presentations by ECC instructors.

Scroggins will appear on KABC-Channel 7 at 7 a.m., July 13, discussing "Robert Ingersoll: The Great Agnostic."

Scroggins, a resident of Long Beach, joined the El Camino College faculty in 1954. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Baylor University, where he majored in drama and history. His masters degree in history was awarded by the University of Wisconsin, and he completed additional course work at the University of California at Los Angeles, the University of Southern California, Texas Christian University and the University of Oslo.

THE HISTORY instructor participated in a United States Educational Exchange in 1960-61, teaching for one school year at the Halden Secondary School. His work at the University of Oslo preceded the teaching assignment and furthered his knowledge of the language and history of Norway.

Scroggins has traveled and lectured broadly and has taught in high schools of Los Angeles and Fort Worth, Tex. He has held offices in the American Association of University Professors and the American Federation of Teachers, Local 1388. His special interests are hiking, mountain climbing, nature study and music.

Addington Gets USC Doctorate

Robert James Addington of 21934 Ocean Ave., director of research for the southern section of the California Teachers Association, has received the degree of Doctor of Education from the USC School of Education.

Dr. Addington's research was on a sampling technique for administrative decision making in education.

A native of Miles City, Mont., and a graduate of Custer County School there, he served in the Navy in World War II and then received a Bachelor of Arts degree from California State College, Los Angeles.

DR. ADDINGTON was a teacher and assistant principal in Culver City from 1951 to 1957, meanwhile earning the master of arts degree in 1954.

He was assistant director of research for the CTA's southern section from 1957 to 1962 when he was given his present appointment.

Profs. D. Lloyd Nelson, Wallace Muelder and Raymond Perry were on his doctoral studies committee at USC.

SUMMER

"A good rule to remember on your summer vacation motor trip is "don't overload your car." Overloading, the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the National Safety Council says, tends to put most of the weight on the rear wheels, with the result front wheels float and steering effectiveness is seriously reduced. In addition, braking becomes more difficult.
