

Football Stars to Practice

Football practice, twice daily, will launch the South Bay All-Star Game Wednesday morning at the Hawthorne and Leuzinger high school training camps.

Matching graduating high school stars from 20 high schools, the east-west game will be played Thursday, Aug. 5, at El Camino College Murdock Stadium.

Coaches Hal Chauncey (Hawthorne) and Ron Terry (Palos Verdes) will open two-day practice sessions for the West All-Stars at 8 a.m. Wednesday at Hawthorne High.

The East, under the direction of Bob Isaacson (Leuzinger) and Ed Levy (North) will begin drills at 7 a.m. the same day at Leuzinger High.

Team medics Dr. Wynn S. Mooring and Dr. Rodney Stetson will give the 48 boys final physical examinations on Tuesday at 6 p.m.

Practice will be interrupted Thursday to allow the players and coaches to attend a kickoff luncheon at 12:30 p.m. at the Redondo Elks Club.

Nine chambers of commerce will sponsor the luncheon.

Guest speakers will include USC football coach John McKay, UCLA grid boss Tommy Prothro and Homer Beatty, head coach of the undefeated small college champions from California State at Los Angeles (L.A. State).

Lennox tackle John Doherty was added to the East squad to replace North halfback Brent Nickoloff.

The 5-10, 170-pound Nickoloff, member of the national champion Tordena Bullets in the South Bay Connie Mack Conference, has been injured.

Doherty is a rugged 215-pound lineman who finished among the top shot putters in the Pioneer League track finals.

Rated the best lineman in the Lennox lineup, Doherty will see service as a weak-side tackle.

Coach Isaacson said he was high on Doherty because of his quickness and mobility. The lancer star, an all-league selection as a senior, also will be used in the defensive front wall.

It was the third roster substitution made by the East after the original selections were named.

Tackle Jerry Jerome of Gardena and halfback Brian Olson of Torrance replaced Deravin who signed a baseball contract and Fermin Lasuen's Dennis Trani broke a collarbone.

Proceeds from the game will benefit the South-west Association for Retarded Children.

BOB FERNLEY . . . Winner of nine pitching performances during the regular Torrance Babe Ruth League season and a leading batter with a .477 batting average for the Dons will play for the A-team all-stars against Westchester Wednesday at Torrance Plaza Del Amo Field. (Press-Herald Photo)

Horses Race for Charity

As a climax to charity week at Hollywood Park, the Inglewood track will present the 26th running of the $100,000 added Hollywood Juvenile Championship Saturday.

The West's finest two-year-olds will compete in a six-furlong test.

During the current week Hollywood Park's mutual commission and all profits from admissions, parking, concessions and program sales will be turned over to the Hollywood Turf Club Associated Charities. A separate entity from the Hollywood Turf Club, income is distributed to child welfare agencies, orphanages, hospitals, foundations engaged in medical research, Community Chests, Red Cross, Boy and Girl Scout work, veterans' organizations and other welfare projects.

Since the start of thoroughbred racing at Hollywood Park in 1938, $13,478,207 has been raised for welfare work by charity racing days and direct contributions from the Hollywood Turf Club.

The 55-day Hollywood meeting will close with a special program on Monday, July 26, headlining the $75,000 Sunset Handicap at a mile and five-eighths.

Royal House, a two-time stakes winner this Hollywood Park season, will head a talented band of horses in the Hollywood Juvenile Championship, first hundred-grand-er of the year in America for two-year-olds.

Dodgers Win League Flag

The Dodgers of the Torrance Little League won their league championship last week by defeating the Yankees, 6-2, in a playoff game.

The Dodgers' Gary Largent, who hit a two-run in the third inning, and Steve Voisin combined to strike out 15 Yankees.

Keith Rodenhauer homered for the losers in the second.

The Yankees, undefeated in the second half with a 10-0 record, tied with the Dodgers, White Sox and Cubs with 7-4 records for the first half.

The Dodgers beat the Yankees and White Sox in a first half playoff for the right to meet the Yankees again in the league decider.

Manager of the Dodgers is John Gentile.

Kiwanis Dodger Game Slated for July 26

Youth groups will benefit from the 26th Annual Kiwanis Crippled Children Baseball Game, July 26, between the Dodgers and Cincinnati.

Game Chairman Hap Halligan of the sponsoring Kiwanis Crippled Children Foundation of West Hollywood reports that many scout, YMCA, church and other community youth organizations will be treated to the National League attraction by individual clubs.

"In setting the pace, by buying blocks of tickets, Kiwanis is hopeful other groups will be stimulated to take similar action for this charity event," Halligan stated.

Proceeds from Kiwanis-sold tickets are used to help crippled and underprivileged children, regardless of their

FISHING REPORT

Albacore, the "chicken of the sea" made an appearance last Sunday as Captain Bob Propster of the boat, "Freedom" out of Pierpoint Landing, reported a catch of 12 of the long-fins.

The honor of catching the first fish, thus claiming the perpetual trophy at Pierpoint was Howard Roy of Lynwood.

An albacore break overshadowed the other fine fishing action which has seen boats fishing at the off-shore islands and locally, reporting in with excellent catches of log barracuda, bass and bonito, with a few yellowtail also being taken.

Pierpoint has scheduled an Albacore Special boat to chase the long-fins which are being taken in the area of the Cortes Bank and seem to be moving in-shore.

Skipper Bill Trusty on the "Frontier" has been fishing the "back side" of Catalina and reports big barracuda, lots of keeper calico bass and a good showing of yellowtail. But nearly all of these seem to have loekjaw.

Skipper Jack Carpenter on the half-day Newporter out of Art's Landing says that, despite the red tide, bass, bonito, halibut and barracuda catches have stood up very well.

In Newport Bay catches of spottin croaker, bass and halibut are continuing on a steady keel. Bait anglers using Ghost Shrimp are doing well on both bass and halibut.

Babe Ruth Stars Launch Playoffs

Babe Ruth League tournament playoffs commence today in the 13-year-old bracket and the major division picks up Wednesday in double elimination playoffs at Torrance Plaza Del Amo Field. Both tournaments will be in conjunction with games at Westchester.

Two teams in each division from the Torrance Babe Ruth League, and one each from North Torrance Babe Ruth League and Pacific-American Babe Ruth League are entered.

Today's 13-year-old division game is between the Torrance B-team and Pacific-American. Tuesday Palos Verdes and Los Angeles National collide at Torrance.

Torrance A-team and North Torrance meet Wednesday at Westchester.

In the major division early round games pit Palos Verdes against L. A. American at Westchester Tuesday; Torrance A-team against Westchester at Torrance Wednesday; and Torrance B-team vs. Huntington Park Saturday at Westchester.

North Torrance's first game will be Thursday at Westchester against the winner of Tuesday's Palos Verdes-L. A. American game.

Gary Nixon To Enter Steeplechase

Gary Nixon of Baltimore, Md., for the past five years one of the nation's topflight motorcycle racers, will lead eastern riders to Ascot Park for J. C. Agajanian's fourth annual 50-lap Grand National steeplechase the nights of July 23-24.

Nixon is third in national standings of the American Motorcycle Association after six races on the coast to coast schedule. Nixon, with 265 points, is topped by two Californians, Dick Man of Richmond, the leader with 307 points, and Mert Lawwill of San Francisco, second with 276 points. Both were early entrants for the Ascot national classic.

Mann won Agajanian's 50-lapper in 1963, the year the upstater captured the individual Grand National overall title.

Also competing will be the other two Ascot Grand National winners, Dick Dorresteyn of San Pablo, 1962, and Dave Palmer of Bakersfield, defending champion and record holder at 40:24.08.

Pony League Games Start On Saturday

Pony League will start its double elimination tournament Saturday with three weekend games at Ryan Field in Torrance. Getting the playoffs under way at 2 p.m. Saturday at Pacific-Riviera and Rolling Hills All-Stars.

A double-header will follow Sunday with Torrance Central meeting San Pedro at 1 p.m., and West Torrance going against Redondo at 4 p.m.
